PRIME PAPER—4@5 per cent.

EXCHANGE BILLS—Quiet at $4.84, demand, $4.85½.

GOVERNMENTS—Dull and prices heavy.

STOCKS—Stocks to-day have been unusually dull and featureless. At the opening this morning prices were strong. In early dealings there was a very slight advance from the first prices, followed by a reaction amounting to as much as 1 per cent in two or three cases, and fractional amounts for the rest of the list. After midday the market became exceedingly dull and steady, but with a slight tendency upward, and so continued until late in the last hour, when there was a slight decline, followed by a reaction in closing transactions. In a number of instances, however final prices were the lowest of the day.
