The City's Morality as Viewed from Local Standpoint.

> AT THE CAPITAL. THE CITY'S MORALITY,

The mayor recently in a public speech made a protestation that he desired the city cleansed from all moral impurities, and that his endeavors had all been in hotel for a short time. The horses ran that direction. The records bard'y bear his honor out in his remarks, for according to the oldest residents there has terposition of a tree, around which the never been a time when there was really a greater number of disorderly places in the city than at present. It must not be ing to the oldest residents there has the city than at present. It must not be charged that the mayor is responsible for and one owned by a Mr. Huribert will all tals because it would be doing that take place at the driving park to-day. gentleman an injustice, but there are things which he could remedy which he does not do.

Within the past few months there have been at least three places started which, ostensibly respectable, are the greatest pitfalls in the city, in which young and innocent girls may be entrapped. One place on Tenth street, which will not be designated, is an assignation house of the most pronounced type. Under a thin and gauzy cubterfug the proprietor endeavors to hide from th eyes of the authorities the character o his business. The rooms upstairs are in charge of a woman who will let them whenever desired. Many young girls just entering womanhood are thus led astray, when otherwise the opportunity which is here offered being out of the way they might have remained virtuous and grown into useful womanhood.

The house, or rather store, in which this nefartous business is carried on, is owned by a prominent judge of this city, a man who is now holding an important to the proposed changes and appointed a judicial position in Lancaster county. It is charitable to suppose that he does not know what kind of people he is renting to, but now that he has notice, there will be no excuse for him not to turn the present occupants out.

It is presumed that the mayor, if he is attending strictly to the business of his position, knows these things, for there are certainly lots of people ready and anxious to inform him of them.

Those places here named are but iso isted cases, and disorderly women are in creasing in the city at an alarmingly rapt rate. It is time to call a halt, and thd rick's addition, in accordance with the mayor is the proper person to do thise city ordinance, will be held before Judge Lincoln has a highly moral class of cit. izens, who are deeply chagrinned at the noon. The complaint on which Mr. present state of things, and they call for an immediate reform. Private assigna- Patrick. Distinguished counsel have tion houses and places of that character should be suppressed at once, and Mayor Burr should at once start his police on the track of all such places. If any Ignorance of their location is expressed by either the mayor or police, the BEE will be glad to point them out.

ESCAPED CONVICTS.

without effect. Parsuit was made, and one of the men captured, but the remaining three succeeded in getting a way. The men had been employed in the foundry, and got out by tearing away the wall near the shop and crawling through the hole. The men who escaped are described as follows:

John Strunel, 25 years old, light complexion and hair, and weighs 160 pounds. He was sent from Gage county April 21, 1882, for burglary, for six years.

sent from Furnas county June 5, 1885, for an outrage. Frank Greek, the third man, is 26 years old, five feet ten inches tall, has light complexion, black hair and light blue eyes. He was sent up from Cass county in May, 1884, for two years and a half, for grand larceny.

A reward of $50 for each convict has been offered, and a number of men have been sent out after them. Up to 8 o'clock last night nothing had been heard of the

TROTTING HORSES AND THE ASYLUM. The board of public lands and build ings are very indignant over the appointment of Mrs. Mathewson to the matron ship of the insane asylum. Gov. Dawe acted in a very arbitrary manner in making this appointment without consulting the wishes of the balance of the board. The gentlemen think that the best interests of the institution are not subserved. and that the state is not getting that which it should in the management of the asylum. Dr. Matthewson has many strictures passed upon his conduct by people who are interested in the good conduct of the asylum, and the breath of scandal has many times assatled him, wrongly, perhaps, in many instances. It is said that he at present is giving more attention to the training of a trotting horse which he owns, It is kept at the driving park and promises to become a very speedy animal in the course of time. There is no objection to a man's keeping a fast horse so far as is known, and nothing is more pleasant than a drive behind one, but leasure should not be allowed to interfere with business. This, certain parties claim, is the doctor's case.

LOCAL POLITICS.

Yesterday politics engrossed the atten-tion of all classes to the exclusion of everything else, and candidates were as thick as ficas. The only contast which amounted to anything was in the Fourth ward, where the machine had a ticket and the outside or independent citizens had a ticket. The wise men say that Griffith will get enough delegates to secure his nomination for the treasurer ship, and that office is really the only one worth fighting for. The present has been the most exciting local canvas for years, and there is no element of cartainty about the result.

ARRESTED FOR FRAUD. The saloon keeper, Legier, who has had some trouble lately in settling with his creditors, is in trouble sgsin. terday he was arrested on a charge of disposing of property to defraudhis creditor. Legier kept the saloon at No. 940 P atreet until recently, when he was cleased up. The man has been in hard luck for the past year, and it is presumed he was rendered desperate and attempted to sell out and get away. The case against him was continued until next Wednesday.

will make an effort to negotiate the Lancaster county five per ceut optiona bonds. If he is successful the commitslovers will probably refund the present $158,000 six per cent bonds which the state now holds. These bonds have long been a source of annoyance to the authorities, and if Mr. Lewis is successful in disposing of them he will receive the Three Convicts Escape from the everlasting thanks of Lancaster county.

City Hall Plans

The plans of Architect Myers for the new city ball building were submitted last evening to the board of education for their approval. A number of changes have been made in the internal arrangements, and as the plans now stand the Myers presented the plans in person, and government assist them to migrate. after inspecting them the board agreed to the proposed changes and appointed a London, August 28.—Gladstone states that committee to inform the city council of his cruise to Norway and tr vels through that the action taken. A special meeting of the council had been called for 8 o'clock to consider the plans, but as Mr. Myers was detained until 8:30 by the board of education the councilmen became impatient and adjourned before he arrived.

A Harvest song. BY ELIZABETH E. STARKEY. The odor sweet of new-mown hav Is waited o'er the land; Piled high, the sheaves of golden grain, Wait for the thresher's hand.

Wide, billowy fields of corn unplift Their binners broad and green With plenty's promise graven bright
On each, in glittering sheen.

The leafy vine bends low with weight Of juicy clusters fair.

Springtime's glad prophecies fulfilled
The burdened orchards bear.

O'er all the land brown-handed Toil And patient Thrift have wrought Day after day, till dreams have been To full fruition brought,

Yet not to them all praise be given, Not all Toil and Thrift;
'Who gives the increase," unto Him
Our grateful hearts we life.

Who can the richly varied store Of goodly gifts behold,
Nor say with Israel's prophet bard,
"Thy works, how manifold!"

The Silver Lining. There's never a day so sunny But a little cloud appears: There's never a life so happy But has had its time of tears; Yet the sun shines out the brighter When the stormy tempest clears.

There's never a garden growing With a rose in every plot;
There's never a heart so hardened
But it has one tender spot;
We have only to prune the border
To find the forget-me-not.

There's never a cup so pleasant But has bitter with the sweet, There's never a path so rugged That bears not the prints of feet; And we have a helper promised For the trials we may meet.

There's never a sun that rises
But we know 'twill set at night;
The tints that gleam in the morning At evening are just as bright; And the hour that is the sweetest

Is between the dark and light. There's never a dream that's happy But the waking makes us sad; There's never a gream of sorrow Out the waking makes us glad: We shall look one day with wonder At the troubles we have had.
