Indigestion Cured.

I suffered for more than five years with indigen-ston, scarcely able to retain the simplest foad on my stonech. Thebut ning semaation was almost intolerable, and my whole system was deranged in was wakeful and coold not sleep, and consequently more or less nervots all the time. I decline in fisch and suffered all the usual depression attendant upon this terrible discass. In a word, I was miscrable, and consequently menoced the directive organs, and soon all that burning ceased, and I could retain food without difficulty. Now my health is good, and can east any the slickest difficulty. I most cheerfully bear this testimony because there are hundreds suffering as I the steristic difficulty. with a number of saloon men, to see whether any agreement could be made as to allowing the saloons to remain open all night next week. The mayor said that he did not care to issue any order to that effect, but would leave the matter to me, and would not take any undue advantage of the saloon-men if they kept their saloons open during the week. His position was one of silent assent." Mayor Boyd resents the charge that he gave the order that the saloons could keep open after midnight during the fair week. He merely consented that the marshal might use his own judgment in enforcing the law, and that Cummings seemed agreeable to giving the saloonists a week of grace. "I am not foolish enough," said the mayor Saturday to a BEE representa-tive, "to issue any order which will re-Myrtle division, held a meeting Friday voke an ordinance of the city." The members of Nebrasks lodge No. 1
