THE BEE PUBLISHING CO., PRGTS. E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

A. H. Fitch, Manager Daily Circulation, Omaha, Nebraska.

WALT WHITMAN'S royalty from his publishers for six months was $22.06.

The Council Bluffs saloon-keepers have stepped up to the captain's office and paid their local license fees.

MAYOR HARRISON, of Chicago, does not yet read his title clear. The contest for his seat by Mr. Smith will be reopened to-day.

The Daphne Egyptienne, which was suppressed, has reappeared under the name of Independence Egyptienne.

The recent rumor that Mackay proposed to buy the New York Herald is said to have grown out of the fact of his senatorial ambition.

The Salt Lake Tribune says that the eastern papers in discussing the probable claim that will be made for the killing of the Chinese at Rock Springs seem to be all at sea.

ARMOUR, the great pork packer, informs the Chicago Tribune that business is picking up rapidly, but in a quiet way.

REK's appeal to the supreme court of Manitoba has been denied, and the death sentence of the court below has been confirmed.

THE great attraction at the fairgrounds to-day will be the race between Phyllis and Joe Davis.

WE wonder if Dr. Miller's pen picture of J. Sterling Morton, framed with blue pencil marks, has been sent to headquarters at Washington.

RED CLOUD and Dr. Bland continue to shout: "McGilluddy must go." For a man that must go, Dr. McGilluddy hangs on pretty well.

THE twist given by Tom Hendricks to the British lion's tail has caused a lively squirm in the English manager's.

U. S. Circuit Court. The following new cases were filed by Dwight Hull, solicitor, yesterday: American Mortgage company, of Scotland vs. U. S. Ball, et ux, foreclosure on land in Buffalo county.

LOST HIS PANTS. A drunken individual from Nebraska City took lodgings at the Paxton hotel Wednesday night.

THE NEBRASKA MACHINE.

It was the boast of Boss Tweed in the palm days of Tammany that he was the chief of the most perfect political machine in America.

The Nebraska machine is not complicated by rings within rings. It can be operated by one man, and with a simple turn of the wrist.

A well known democrat has been selected in each county to whom applications for position can be referred and whose endorsement will be recognized at Washington.

For "men" substitute "bosses," and for "party," the "great dictator." Forty-four county bosses have already taken the oath of allegiance, and twenty-one more are soon to be recruited.

UNDER a contract entered into by Secretary Sherman, the transfer of coin was to be made by the Adams Express company.

THE Chicago News refers to J. Sterling Morton as the only man in Nebraska who dares to part his name in the middle.

THE citizens of Omaha do their duty they will attend the exposition in great crowds to-morrow and Saturday.

PROF. KITTEL, of Fremont, who returned to Washington about the same time that President Cleveland came back from his fishing excursion.

FRANK MURPHY, one of Omaha's solid democrats, is in Washington. It was evidently unnecessary for Mr. Murphy to send a telegram that Mr. Murphy is not an applicant for any office.

ARMOUR, the great pork packer, informs the Chicago Tribune that business is picking up rapidly, but in a quiet way.

REK's appeal to the supreme court of Manitoba has been denied, and the death sentence of the court below has been confirmed.

To the Editor of the Bee. I see that my article, "Regulation of Labor," in the Bee of August 3 is being read and discussed all over the state.

Legislative reduction of time for production; a fixed weekly salary for labor; single tax on land only for revenue; constitutional amendment in all the states and in the United States.

NOE.--When I employ a man, I give him a drink, if married, I agree with him that his wife shall receive his wages and receipt for them.
