fine styles and good work cannot be excelled by any house doing business west of Chicago. All dealer can select goods, but all dealers haven't the taste to please in their selection. This we claim to do. Our record day by day proves it, and all that call at our store don't fail to notice the fact that we have the finest selected goods ever brought to Omaha.

Success Crown Our Efforts.

Our assortment of boys' and children's clothing is equalled by few and excelled by none. In fact our nerve pluck and enterprising vim, PHYLIS AND JOE DAVIS, TO-DAY. The race between the two great trotters, Phyllis and Joe Davis, which was to have occurred today, has been postponed until Friday.

CHILDREN'S DAY, SATURDAY. The society is determined that the children shall have an opportunity to enjoy the fair, and as they were deprived of that pleasure by the weather on Monday, the invitation will be again tendered them for Saturday.

THE ELECTRIC CARNIVAL. To-night one of the greatest, and undoubtedly the most brilliant features of the fair will be given.

Charles J. Egan, proprietor of the Omaha Nursery, who has his exhibits in an out-door space just west of the main building, was this morning awarded the first premium for the best display of trees and shrubbery.

The beautiful slate painting, subject "The Neapolitan Boy," a copy from a masterpiece, has been awarded the first premium. This work is on slate by Mrs. Lucia M. Gilbert, of this city.

A silk tapestry picture subject, "A Knight and Lady" by Mrs. Kate Archer, of Carson, Iowa, has been added to the art exhibits.

Miss Clara Brown, of this city, has been awarded first premium for a handsome painted vase.

Miss Nannie M. Briggs, daughter of Jno. S. Briggs, has been awarded the first premium for the best and largest display of needle work by a girl under 15 years of age.

Arrangements have been made to have an exhibition race between Joe Davis and Phyllis on Saturday.

This being the day of the great race between Joe Davis and Phyllis, the merchants of the city are to close their stores and attend the fair.

Saturday will be school children's day, and the boys and girls are expected to be on hand in full force.

Divorce Docket. In the district court yesterday Judge Neville granted a divorce, with right to custody of five children, to M. M. Clark from his wife Maria J. The allegations of the plea set forth some slightly sensational material.

Police Court Docket. The following cases were disposed of by Judge Stenberg yesterday: James Avery, B. Norris, L. T. Jager, drunk and disorderly, $5 and costs.

John Keyser, W. H. Dillman, intoxication. Discharged.

John P. Schumke, operating express wagon with number, $10 and costs.

John Jensen and Joseph Rako, disseminating circulars on the street, released with reprimand.

Will Fisher, A. Weisberg, Charles Gibson, suspicious characters.

Sneak Thieves Felled. J. A. Roeder's pharmacy, 709 North Sixth street, was entered by an unknown party yesterday morning by cutting the screen and raising the back window. The clerk was in front of the store at the time washing the windows.
