

THE RAIN'S RETURN.

All Elemental Nature Frowns Again on the Fair.

Rain, Mud and Sleet Once More—A Blue Day at the Grounds—Racing the Colts Through Mire—Future Plans.

The city at night-fall Thursday, was filled with people, the skies were clear and a starlight night set in. Cheered by the success of the day just past and the promise of great business for the following, the fair management would have refused $10,000 for yesterday's gate receipts.

At three o'clock in the morning, however, the aspect of affairs assumed another cast, and from the great clouds which rolled up from the southeast a heavy rain began to pour. All forenoon a drizzling shower attended by a raw, chill wind prevailed adding to the dismal complexion of everything.

The board of directors held session at noon and reached very vague conclusions. It was decided that the remaining heats of the four-year-old trotting, postponed on account of darkness from Thursday, must be run on Saturday.

The colts race being trotted and won by Consul in three straight heats, the board went about among the horsemen and at last reached conclusions. It was determined that the remaining features of the fair should be concentrated into today and the show closed.

The following races, embracing the free-for-all and the Phyllis-Joe Davis race, the greatest attraction of the day, will be run on Saturday.

2:35 Class, Trotting—Paras, $500; divided, $300 to first; $150 to second; $50 to third.

A. C. Black, Table Rock, Neb., b m Mand B. C. Rowley, Atlantic, Ia., ch a Rowley's Rattler.

C. Faulkner, Minneapolis, Minn., r m Widow Badger. Wade Carey, Council Bluffs, Ia., ch g Sunshine.

J. S. Bicker, Okaloosa, Ia., br m Thistle-down. L. W. Sinclair, St. Joe, Mo., b m Almeta.

Free-for-all trotting—Paras, $1,500, divided; $1,100 to first, $300 to second, $100 to third. The regular purse in the free-for-all is $1,000, but the Omaha Commercial Men's Association add $500 for beating 2:24.

Following are the entries in the free-for-all: Bice, Dan Mattle Harle, Patsy Olinck, Silverhall, Daisy D, Little Em.

The race between Phyllis, with her famous record of 2:15, and Joe Davis' 2:17 will be one of the greatest special events ever presented by any fair association.

Notes. Peter Hopley & Co., of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, took the sweepstakes, $25, for the best Clydesdale horse on the grounds. The winning horse is a stallion, seventeen hands in height and weighing 1,925 pounds.

Notes. The total expense of the association for the fair will reach $20,000. About $10,000 has already been received, and with fair weather a safe balance can be made before the close.

Notes. The Union Pacific will continue to run its special trains to the fair grounds today. H. C. Eckenberger, general agent of the Chicago & Northwestern at Portland, Oregon, is in the city.

from a correspondent at Rawlins, Wyo. It will be found to contain some very interesting facts: RAWLINS, September 8, 1885. To the Editor of The Bee.

Dear Sir—I notice in your report on the Rock Springs riot several misstatements. The correspondent who sent to the newspapers the telegraphic report is in the employ of the U. P. company, and gives only their side of the case. One reason why the U. P. company prefer to employ Chinamen is this—they charge them twice as much for powder, flour, hams, water, white rent, etc., than is the regular price, and what would not be improved on in the way of. Furthermore, when a Chinaman buys goods at any other store than that controlled by the contractors, and they hear of it, he is also charged with it on their books. In this any citizen of Rock Springs will bear me out. Then again the statement is made that miners earn $3 a day, but the writer forgets to mention that they only work three or four days a week, and the majority do not average more than $50 a month the year round. That mining is the very best thing that has happened to the country is a statement that is not only untrue, but also a lie.

The statements of the Union Pacific officials are a tissue of falsehoods. The people of Wyoming do not justify the killing of these people, yet they all think that the justice of the means. The universal opinion is that the contractors should have been made to prefer to employ the Chinamen. This they had man checked in the evil of oppression it will inevitably lead to the pauperization and hopeless degradation of our toiling millions. It is a question I hope you will insert this.

Sued on the Bond. Milton Lindsay filed a suit in the district court yesterday against W. T. Horn, Brad Slaughter and John Russell, directors of the Central Land & Improvement company of Nebraska, to recover $500 on an injunction bond. The history of the case is somewhat interesting.

In October, 1884, the directors of the Central Land & Improvement company filed an application in the Nance county district court for an order of injunction against Lindsay who was secretary and treasurer of the company. The accompanying petition set forth all sorts of charges against Mr. Lindsay, that he had guilty of mismanagement of the funds of the company, had converted them to his own use by speculating, etc., had sold property to the company which it did not want, and had in various ways abused the trusts of his position.

The petition set forth further that Lindsay was indebted to the company and asked for a restraining order preventing him from using any funds in bank belonging to himself or to the company, until the claim of the company could be passed upon by some competent authority. The restraining order was issued, with a clause temporarily preventing Mr. Lindsay from setting as the secretary of the company.

On November 3d Judge Post, of Nance county, Neb., was appointed guardian for the plaintiff, and accepted the name. In the case of Mat F. Patrick vs. the Omaha horse railway company, Judge Neville ordered that the defendant be required to file a more full and specific answer by this morning.

On motion of the plaintiff, the case of Edward McCaffrey vs. John T. Paulsen was dismissed.

In the case of John Hollenbeck vs. Harvey Link, the defendant was allowed to file an answer within ten days.

A young man named Orin M. Pickard came up to the police court yesterday and swore out a complaint against one Chas. Don, for larceny. He said that he had been driving a wagon to and from the fair yesterday and had engaged Don as a conductor to take in the cash. Towards night, the conductor, who was not blessed with an unusual amount of honesty, skipped out, taking with him about $9 in money, nearly the entire receipts of the day. The warrant has been issued and placed in an officer's hands for service.

A Sharp Game. One of the sharpest tricks on record is that which enriched the pockets of a certain gang of sharpers, as related at police headquarters yesterday. These men would board a carryall going out to or coming in from the fair, and would collect the passengers' fares while the driver was intent on the work of forcing his team through the maze of vehicles on Sixteenth street. After collecting all the fares on one conveyance, another one would be boarded and the operation repeated. The set in all cases escaped detection, and no arrests have been made.

Army Notes. Col. Hall, inspector of posts, returned yesterday from a ten days' eastern trip. Advice received at army headquarters yesterday are to the effect that in the competition at Fort Snelling just completed, for places on the division team of 12, between teams of 12 from departments of Texas, Missouri, Platte and Dakota, the department of Dakota got six men on the team, department of the Platte two (Weeks and Pendergast), other departments not yet having been heard from.

A Neighboring Quarrel. Mrs. Klusa, who attained some notoriety a few months ago, as being accused of the murder of her husband, John Klusa, appeared before Judge Stenberg yesterday and swore out a complaint against Kate Christian for assault and battery. Mrs. Klusa claimed that she had been bruised and beaten by the defendant without any provocation whatsoever. All parties are Bhenmas and live on the homestead.

Recovered the Papers. Mr. James Morton, whose hardware store was broken into the fore part of this week, has recovered the strong box containing valuable papers, taken from the safe. The box was found by some children on the empty lot near Eleventh and Davenport, and turned over to the police. All the valuable papers were found in the box safe and sound.

The Situation at Rock Springs. The Chinamen were to go to work yesterday at Rock Springs, and as no reports to the contrary were received, either at the Union Pacific or army headquarters, it is supposed no trouble arose. The following letter has been received

TEST YOUR BAKING POWDER TO-DAY!

THE TEST! Place a spoonful on a hot stove until heated, then remove and add a few drops of water. If it foams, it is pure. If it does not, it is adulterated.

DOES NOT CONTAIN AMMONIA. ITS HEALTHFULNESS HAS NEVER BEEN QUESTIONED. In an edition from a quarter of a century it has been pronounced pure.

THE TEST OF THE OVEN. PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., MAKERS OF Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts, Dr. Price's Lupulin Yeast Graft, For Light, Healthy Bread, The Best Yet Had in the World.

Stock Yard Items. It is a noteworthy fact that in the recent decline in the price of the Omaha market did not decline as much as the Chicago market.

S. R. Gwin sold 250 head of cattle yesterday to C. F. Cook, and 255 head averaging $91 to John A. McShane.

William Courtney sold 64 hogs yesterday to Clark Bros.

The latest hog arrivals are B. W. Tower, Laramie; P. E. Roberts, Weir, Idaho; H. C. Borghon, Chicago; A. B. Clark, Topeka; S. R. Gwin, Minnoka; Idaho; J. W. Mitchell, C. W. Lewis, L. Thomas, Sweetwater, Wyoming.

One hundred and eighty-three head averaging 1,135 were sold yesterday at $3.50. P. S. Real, of Grafton, had 62 hogs at the yards yesterday.

Another train of cattle was received yesterday from Clay & Fisher, 323 head.

Tanner & Banner, of Ontario, Oregon, have 250 head of cattle in the yards.

Four hundred and thirty-eight head, belonging to the Swan Land & Cattle Co., were at the yards yesterday.

H. Gilmore & Son, of David City, has 62 hogs and Moore, Rogers & Co., of North Bend, 63 hogs at the yards.

Lodging for State Fair. The ladies of the First Presbyterian church of Lincoln, Neb., will be prepared to furnish good lodging during the state fair; also will furnish lunch on the fair grounds. Applications for lodgings may be made by letter or in person to S. W. Irwin, 1200 H street, Lincoln, Neb.

He Had Fled. Deputy Marshal Skinner, of Sioux City, was in the city yesterday looking up a man named John Haney, who is charged with selling liquor without a license. Haney, however, in some way got wind of the chase, and left the town. Skinner, therefore, was compelled to return without him.

GENUINE DIAMONDS.

Found in Tea and Coffee. The Empire mills, of New York, have opened a store in this city, at 1403 Douglas St., in Clark Bros. & Co.'s old stand, for the purpose of introducing their new brands of tea and coffee, which are put up in neat cans, coffee, can and contents about three pounds. Tea, can and contents about 1 1/2 pounds.

As an inducement to purchasers this company will put into each package of coffee and tea a souvenir or present, running in amount from 10 cents to 50 dollars, consisting of nickel, silver and solid gold watches, genuine diamonds in solid gold settings, and other jewelry. This company have adopted this expensive method so as to thoroughly advertise their goods in Omaha.

But after 30 days this choice tea and coffee will be sold wholly on their merits by their agents in Omaha at the same price, same quality and same quantity, but without the souveniers, the tea and coffee being worth at a fair retail value more than the price asked, without any regard to the souveniers, which are put into the packages for thirty days only to advertise and introduce these goods.

This company is an old established one. It has already appointed over fifty agents in the various cities, none of whom are now selling souveniers with their goods, but each agent has a large and rapidly growing trade, as the superior quality of their tea and coffee becomes known.

Known. For single packages, six packages, $5, thirteen packages $10, twenty-seven packages $20. Send in your order by mail, accompanied by cash, post-office order, and they will be forwarded to any part of the United States or Canada.

Address Empire Mills Tea Co., 1403 Douglas street, Omaha, Neb. Below will be found a partial list of purchasers finding valuable articles in their cans of tea and coffee: D. H. Goodrich, superintendent Omaha water works, diamond stud; Frank Schmidt, Union Pacific R. R. shops, Bartholdi statue; R. W.
