-Ella Vernon, Jeanie Boynton, May Brown and Flora Benson, four giddy girls, were arrested yesterday, charged of baing delinquent with their fines.

-Marshal Cummings has in his possession two pawn tickets, one for a silver watch and one for a gold watch. He says that the proper parties, by identifying the tickets, can secure them

-The Concordia 'singing society will celebrate next Sunday its seventeenth anniversary, at Germania hall. An appropriate programme of music and dancing has been arranged.

-The U. P. time table has been so adjusted that the morning overland train from the west waits only ten minutes at the depot here, leaving for the transfer at 8 o'clock, instead of S:10 as heretofore.

-School district No. 7, of this county, has $1,400, bearing 7 per cent interest. The funds raised on these bonds will be used for the crection of a new school house at Irvington.

-The little daughter of Dr. V. H. Coffman, who was seized with convulsions while out riding Monday afternoon, has theroughly recovered. The doctor and his estimable wife are congratulated by their large circle of friends who shared their anxiety.

-The first train to Lincoln on the B. & M. yesterday was heavily laden with parsengers, and in fact about one-third were unable to procure seats. The 9:10 special was also full. It is quite evident that Lincoln will have no cause to complain that the fair is not well patronized by Omaha.

-Mrs. McDonagh widow of the late F. M. Mcilonagh editor of the Nebraska Watchman, has received a chack for $2,000 from the Catholic Knights of Labor of America. Mr McDonagh was's member of the order of Catholic Knights and the sum of $2,000 full amount of insurance has been promptly paid by the society to the widow and children.

-MarshalfCummings has received a letter from a Councel Bluffs lady, who says that her divorced husband is living with a woman of disreputable character-a so-called widow-in. this city. The woman asks that this thing be stopped at once, as she is afraid that she and her husband's children will be disgraced. The baugh & Taylor. marshal will not interfere.

-Mention was made in these columns Mon day of the case of Mrs. H. J. Meyers who lost a valuable watch last week, for the theft to Omsha. He has purchased a handof which a young man was arrested on Sunday. Yesterday Marshal Cummings received a letter from Mr. Meyers saying that his wife had recovered the watch, having found it in man who was arrested has been released.

THAT PEOPLE FLOCK TO 1119 FARNAM STREET. You may wonder why it is that everyone you meet has got 1119 Farnam Street, mixed into every sentence they utter.

You may wonder why it is, that every day we make a new mention of 1119 Farnam Street.

You may wonder why it is, that certain clothiers speak unfavorably of 1119 Farnam Street.

You may wonder why it is, that your clothes cost more than your friend's, and is none equal in fit, style and quality. You may wonder where 1119 Farnam Street is, and what the great attractions are that causes the people to flock there.

It is Easily Explained from Top to Bottom.

1st. People will always seek the place where they can get the best satisfaction for their money, consequently they flock to 1110 Farnam Street.

and. People are so favorably impressed with their dealings, made at this 1110 Farnam Street, that they want to tell every one they meet about what they have bought and seen. This is what makes the number famous.

3d. The reason for our making a new mention of 1119 Farnam Street, every day is to inform the people of the new arrivals received the day previous, in the shape of MISFIT and UNCALLED FOR CLOTHING, that you may have the opportunity of an early selection.

lothiers speak unfavorably of 1119 Farnam Street, because they feel out done in their attempts to out do in furnishing the customer with the High Art and Elegance that is found no where outside of 1119 Farnam Street. They feel the shrinkage in their business and this is what did it
