

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS

Thursday Morning, September 17
Office No. 12 Pearl St.

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city or twenty cents a week.
H. W. TILSON, Editor and Lessee.

MINOR MENTION.

Cooke & Morgan's for cloaks.
Reiter, merchant tailor, for fine goods Cooke & Morgan's for table linen.
The city council is to meet to-night, or at least try to.

The work of grading and curbing Willow avenue is progressing, preparatory to paving.

Special sale of hosiery at Cooke & Morgan's.

Postmaster Armour has received the first installment of the new special delivery stamps.

The till in Alex Ober's saloon on upper Broadway was tapped for a small amount last evening.

Charles Linn, arrested for disturbing the peace, was yesterday discharged.

Permit to wed was yesterday granted to John Henney and Beale Schroeder, both of Des Moines.

The exposition under the auspices of the Woman's Exchange, will open Monday, October 5, in the skating rink.

Grand opening at the People's store this evening. Everybody is invited.

Charlie Spoor, whose father works at the transfer, while scuffling was thrown, and now suffers from a broken leg.

Some additional testimony to the cemetery case, in the form of affidavits, is being got in readiness to present to Judge Conner.

E. Tedroe, who was arrested for vagrancy, but who was being held for investigation about another matter, was discharged yesterday.

Mrs. Mandermakers, whose husband and his partner lately disappeared from the city, leaving their creditors to mourning, has now started out to join her husband, who is said to be in Washington territory.

The grand fall opening at the People's store this evening, the grandest affair of the season. Everybody welcome.

The case of Driscoll vs. the School District has been continued until the next term of the circuit court. In this suit the plaintiff claims damages because the school board used some of his plans for a school building, without paying him for them.

The remains of W. W. Smith, the brakeman on the Northwestern who was killed near Lamotte, passed through here yesterday, for Red Oak, where his father lives, and where the body will be buried.
Smith leaves also a wife and two little children, for whom the deepest sympathy is felt.

Harkness Bros. offer unusual bargains in cotton flannels at 25 per cent below prices ever offered before in the city.
They are now receiving their fall and winter purchases of dress goods, carpets, curtains, etc., and will be pleased to show their friends through their well assorted stocks.

County Superintendent Matthews is receiving many very complimentary notices from all parts of the county, and it looks as if he was to have a pretty clear track on which to run for a second term.
He certainly has done excellent work with the schools of the county, and has done much to further educational interests.

John W. Sullivan, one of the brakemen on the dummy train, was yesterday afternoon happily joined in marriage to Miss Della Howe, sister of Broos Howe, of this city. The young folks have many friends who will improve the first opportunity to express their congratulations and well wishes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. K. Bates.

Attend the grand opening at the People's store this evening.

The reformed gambler, Long, who has been talking to crowds in the streets here for a few days past, and who has been making war on card-playing, dancing and drinking, and who has been gathering many dimes, left yesterday for the other side of the river, taking with him his quartette of vocalists. They give an interesting street entertainment.

Col. E. J. Abbott enjoyed the reunion at Beatrice hugely, but took almost, and perhaps more delight in the gathering up of some more specimens for his private collection. The colonel is getting to be a good deal of an "ologist," and has a splendid showing of specimens of geology, conchology, mineralogy, and is getting well up in all sorts of "ology," except possibly theology.

The Council Bluffs Hunting and Fishing club have opened their house, and get everything in readiness for the fall sport. As it takes money to meet expenses, a meeting of the club is to be held at the Pacific house next Monday evening, at which time action will be taken to declare all stock forfeited on which the dues have not been paid, and the delinquents will be barred from enjoying the privileges of the club.

It is a matter of general congratula-tion that arrangements have been made by which the work on the new Episcopal church is to proceed at once, and be carried forward to as speedy completion as possible. Rev. Mr. Mackey has been undergoing this enterprise, and it is to be hoped that not only those of his own flock, but the community at large will stand by him faithfully, for when completed there will be no more handsome church building to be found anywhere in this part of the country. It will be a credit to Council Bluffs, as well as to the members of St. Paul's society.

An order has been prepared for service on the Okaloosa bridge builders, by order of the city council, directing the company to remove the bridge recently built by the company on North Seventh street, deeming it an obstacle to travel and a nuisance. The only condition on which it is to be allowed to remain is by the company making the bridge satisfactory to the county board, by whose orders it was built, and who refuse to accept it in its present condition, claiming it is not according to contract.

Percy Moomaw, son of Phillip Moomaw, died last evening at 8:30 o'clock, after a three weeks' illness of typhoid fever. He was 15 years of age, and had been an employee of the Bee office for some time, where he had shown himself to be both faithful and intelligent. Notice of the funeral will be given hereafter.

Everybody is invited to attend the grand opening at Elsmann, Rodda & Co's People's store Wednesday and Thursday.

The case of Forchheimer & Co., of Mobile, against J. T. Stewart, of this city, has at last reached an end in the circuit court. This was a claim for damages on a shipment of hams, sent south by Stewart, and involved about $5,500. The case was fought inch by inch, and no more stubborn contest, or one involving finer points, has been in the courts here for a long time. The plaintiff was represented by Mr. Jacob Sims, assisted by Mr. A. T. Flickinger, while the well known firm of Sapp & Pusey were the attorneys for Mr. Stewart.

Mr. Sims so ably and clearly handled the case, and showed himself so able to cope with such able opponents, as to call forth many compliments from his brethren at the bar, and the bringing in of a verdict for the defendant was somewhat of a surprise to many. The case will doubtless not end here, but will probably be carried to the upper court. As a legal contest it is pronounced one of the sharpest and keenest for many years.

Dr. Wiles, Eye, Ear and Throat pediatric, Room 5, Eva stt block.

The Canvasses Called.
The republicans of Kane township will meet in their several wards on Saturday, the 19th of September, 1885, at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the county convention to be held at Council Bluffs, Iowa, on the 24th day of September, 1885.

In the First ward the caucus will meet at Wells & Clauren's and elect six delegates.
In the Second ward at the city building and elect nine delegates.
In the Third at the county auditor's office and elect seven delegates.
In the Fourth at the skating rink and elect ten delegates.

The delegates so chosen will also constitute a convention of the republicans of Kane township, which will convene in Masonic hall immediately after the adjournment of the county convention, and nominate one candidate for township treasurer and one candidate for constable, to fill vacancy caused by death of Jack White, and one candidate for assessor for Kane township without the city of Council Bluffs.

E. J. ABBOTT, First ward.
J. C. RHODESBACK, Second ward.
B. W. HIGHT, Third ward.
WALTER L. SMITH, Fourth ward.

Substantial abstracts of title and real estate loans, J. W. and E. L. Squire, 102 Pearl street.

Cruelty to Animals.
Considerable excitement and indignation has been caused among those in the vicinity of the oil tanks and railway tracks in the southern part of the city by the abuse of a cow, which was being driven into the city to be butchered.
The cow was sulky and stubborn, and laid down several times, and all sorts of devices were used to make her get up and move on. The whip and rope were used freely, a team tried to drag her along, and finally some one started a fire of papers to scorch her into action. The cow was yesterday afternoon in such a condition that she could hardly have moved if she wanted to, and she bore evidence of having been most brutally used. Complaint was filed against the young man who drove her into the city, and against the man who had bought her, but there was no evidence that they had in any way mistreated the animal, and that whatever cruelty was shown was by outsiders, who sought to help the driver get her along.

Grand and Great.
The People's store is at its best now, the grand opening having begun yesterday, and to continue to-day. The establishment is really three great stores in one, and is one of the largest and best stocked in the West. Elsmann, Rodda & Co. have prepared themselves to supply the people of a large sweep of country with dry goods and other needfuls, and their stock is so large and varied that it is impossible to give in brief space any idea of its extent or variety.
Everybody is invited to drop in and see for themselves, and no one can look through the establishment without cheerfully admitting that it is one of the best Council Bluffs should feel proud.
The special arrangements, displays and adornments for the opening are in good taste and excite the admiration of the crowds which are thronging the various departments.

She Had the Wrong Book.
Detroit Free Press.
"I'd like, you know—I'd like to draw $10," she said, as she pushed her book into the savings bank window. "Certainly." "Would it—that is—?" "Oh, it won't hurt the bank," said the Cashier.
"Then I'll—guess I'll draw it." He picked up the book and was absorbed for two or three minutes. He finally handed it back with a smile and she uttered a little scream as she received it. It was a pocket diary and he had opened it at "July 13. Fred called as usual this evening, but went away without proposing.
I must give him a hint." "You made a mistake," suggested the Cashier. "Yes——you know!" she stammered, and clutching the book she made a rush for the door and never came back.

LAW BREEDS LAW.

A Law Firm Sued For Filing a Petition Alleged to be Libelous.

Some time ago a very bitter fight was had in the courts between C. R. Scott, the attorney, and Mrs. Richardson, who had rented his farm. Flickinger Bros. were the attorneys for Mrs. Richardson, and there was considerable bad blood shown and hot words. The contest has taken a new twist, one of the witnesses in the case, Charles Corning, having commenced through Col. Scott as his attorney a suit in the district court, claiming damages of Flickinger Bros., the amount being left blank, the petition setting forth that Flickinger Bros. made the following written statements, by which it is claimed, Corning is practically charged with committing perjury, which charge is malicious:

"That on or about the 10th day of September, 1884, the defendant, (meaning C. R. Scott,) without probable cause, and by false and malicious swearing, and by procuring the false and malicious swearing of his employees, (meaning the said plaintiff, Charles Corning,) accusing her (certain Jane Richardson) of violating said injunction, caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest for contempt from this court, and the plaintiff's person to be attached by the sheriff of this county. That by reason of said false swearing and affidavit, and the procuring of the said false swearing and affidavit of his employee (meaning thereby the plaintiff, Charles Corning), defendant (meaning C. R. Scott) procured the arrest of plaintiff's person at different times subsequent to said date.

May, 1885, the defendant, by false and malicious swearing of his employees, (meaning thereby the plaintiff, Charles Corning) procured a writ of ejection from the superior court of Council Bluffs, Ia., whereby plaintiff was ejected from the premises."

The above quotations are supposed to be from a petition filed by Flickinger Bros. in a suit for damages lately commenced by Mrs. Richardson against C.
R. Scott, growing out of the pension ejection suit. The filing of such a petition in the clerk's office by Flickinger Bros. is the alleged cause of this suit for libel, it being claimed that the statements concerning Scott and Corning are untrue and maliciously made.

BURNING BOX-CARS.

More Excitement Going to the Fire Than at the Fire.

The alarm of fire was caused yesterday afternoon by the burning of two box-cars on the Rock Island track. One of the cars had a little coal in it, and the other had been used for oil, but was empty.
Both cars were badly scorched, the roof of one being all burned off. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

When No. 1 left the house to go to the fire the horse of the White Sewing Machine company, standing near by, was frightened into a run, and it was a neck and neck race down Broadway between the fire team and the runaway, but some one sprang out into the street, and bravely stopped the runaway, and the fire was done. On the turn from Broadway into Main street, there was a narrow escape from a collision between the hook and ladder truck and No. 1's cart. The team of the latter apparently lacked the handling of the old driver, Charles Nicholson, who was lately removed from service because he told a sarcasm, and funny story about the mayor's dime museum.

Time Flies.
Thirty days go by very quickly, so if you have any idea of purchasing a carriage, buggy, or anything else in this line you should take prompt advantage of the prices now being offered by F. Hattenhauer at his factory in this city. He will sell regardless of the cost of manufacture, and as he has an established reputation of making the best goods in the west, and as there is a large and varied stock from which to select, this makes the greatest opportunity for purchasers ever presented here.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Poulson, the paving contractor, is here, ready to complete the details of his contract with the city and commence work.

S. R. Brown, of Omaha, was greeting some of his old friends here yesterday. He came to Council Bluffs in the winter of '84 and says he has eleven days and nights confined from Mount Pleasant here. He was among the first to start a store in Omaha, and has many interesting stories to narrate of the early days.

HAWKEYE HAPPENINGS.

The schools of Davenport opened with an enrollment of 3,813.

William McMahon, a resident of Scott county, died on the 7th, at the advanced age of 103.

Master J. P. Hobbs, of Keokuk, captured the West Point cadetship for the Burlington district.

A German woman at Dubuque returned her marriage license to the county clerk saying that she had changed her mind.

Mr. and Mrs. Socrates Stevens celebrated their golden wedding at Fort Dodge last Sunday. They received numerous fine presents.

Matthew Metcalf, of Center Grove, Dubuque county, fell through a railroad bridge at that place Saturday, sustaining severe injuries. A portion of the scarp was torn from his head.

The district court for Dubuque county, which opens this week, has the largest docket known for ten years. There are 114 new cases, including fifty-eight liquor and sixteen criminal cases.

A Davenport steam boiler, who was refused pay for a job, induced his employer to descend to the depths and examine the work. As soon as the employer reached the bottom the workman pulled up the ladder and kept the boss below the surface until he cashed up for the job.

The prisoners in the Ida county jail, at Ida, made an attempt to escape Tuesday night, but Al Wilson, night-watchman, thwarted their plans. A cold chisel, saw, knife and a large block of wood, used as a hammer, were found in the cells of the prisoners. All the rivets in the lock excepting one had been removed.

A thoroughbred bull, the Jersey Lily, of Sioux City, took after Poundmaster Hall, of that city, and pinioned him up against a building, and occasionally licking his ribs with his horns until insensibility shut out the bloody scene which followed. The police rallied and reduced Hall by shooting the vicious beast full of holes and then cutting its throat.

The animal was worth $300.

Friday afternoon, near Gifford, on the Iowa Central railroad, a water-spout washed out a culvert, leaving the rails intact, so the break could not be seen by an engineer until he was right upon it.
The freight train No. 47 went through the break, the engine being turned half way around and lying across the track, the cars being stacked up behind it. The engineer and fireman escaped serious injury, but Pat Kangley, who was riding on the tender, was instantly killed.

The great arching elms on the west side of Main street, Davenport, the pride of the residents, and a grateful shelter in the torrid days of summer, have been ruthlessly cut to make way for modern improvements. They were planted in 1840. In forty-five years they had grown to a diameter of two and a half to three feet, to a height of sixty to seventy feet, while their branches interlocked with branches of elms on the east side of the street, giving pleasant shade in summer, as well as a beautiful appearance to the street.

PILES!! PILES!! PILES!!

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams, (an Indian remedy), called Dr.
Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions and instruments do more harm than good. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the itching, particularly at night, after getting warm in bed, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles, tubing of private parts, and for nothing else.

SWANSON'S CURED
Dr. Frazier's Magic Ointment. Cures as —by magic. Pimples, Black Heads or Grubs on the face, and eruptions on the face, leaving Scales clear and beautiful. Also cures Itch, Itch, Rhume, Sore Nipples, Sore Lips, and burnt Uterus.

Sold by druggists, or mailed on receipt of cents.
