DEATH OF AN AGED SUBORDINATE OF SATAN—THE DUAL LIFE OF A DEVIL AND HIS MISTRESS.

Special Telegram to The Bee.

Boston, Sept. 21.—There died in this city, Friday, the 4th inst., Edward S. Sanborn, an old man who has been known to the police for many years as proprietor of various houses of prostitution. There was buried in Kingston, N. H., three days later, Maj. Edward S. Sanborn, a prominent citizen, widely known in his native state as a liberal patron of the cause of education and religion. The strange story of dual life truthfully applies to the same individual. It was revealed by a late journal that the high life which is pending will doubtless develop the great social sensation New England has had for many a day.

Edward Sanborn, a good New Hampshire citizen, was born 65 years ago, in Kingston, as was his father before him. One of his sisters, the widow of the late Dr. Bartlett, grandson of Gov. Bartlett, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, still occupies one of the finest residences in town. But Edward had in his childhood a strong sense of the grossness that with his more aristocratic instincts, made a strange command. At about thirty years of age he was discovered to have deliberately determined to lead a double life, and in a few years he had an upright life, supported various public revenues, and in turn had been a jailer to his fellow townsmen, who a few years ago sent him to prison for a term of years for a crime which he had committed in his youth. The Indiana Board Swindle. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 21.—A new phase of the Indiana township bond swindle was developed here to-day. Heretofore it has been generally understood that these warrants were simply fraudulent; that they had been issued in payment for goods that were never delivered, and that Pollard and the other swindlers shared in the proceeds. To-day Edward Stark, cashier of the Cincinnati National bank, came to the city bringing $2,500 of warrants, purporting to be for the purchase of goods, and which were issued by Ernest K. Zeltz, trustee of the township in which this city is situated. The warrants were cashed at the bank, and the money was placed with the Cincinnati bank as collateral. Stark is a prominent business man, and is in the interest of his bank, and what further steps will be taken is not yet known.

A Good King Over a Good Division. TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 21.—[Special to the Chicago Tribune.]—In a quarrel here this morning over a division of crops J. W. Jones shot and killed E. H. White. Both are colored men, and Jones has been working White's farm on shares. They have had considerable controversy for a year. White leveled on the crop of corn yesterday, and in trying to effect a settlement to-day on the farm, four miles from the city, a dispute arose, which resulted in the shooting. White is a member of the school board of this city, has edited the colored Citizen and Tribune newspapers, and been quite prominent in local politics. He is a native of Virginia, and is a self-defense, White having threatened his life. The shooting was done with an old army musket, the ball penetrating the stomach. After receiving the shot White staggered toward Jones, when the latter broke the gun over his head. White died in a few moments, and Jones gave himself up to the sheriff.

Fatal Family Drunks. STAMFORD, Ky., Sept. 21.—William Ball, a prominent distiller, was shot and killed by his son George, near here. The two had been drinking and quarreling. Young Ball was arrested.

REVELATIONS. PA., Sept. 21.—A horrible tragedy occurred in the evening at Silver Spring, a mining village near here. Patrick O'Neill and wife lived with an old woman, O'Neill's aunt, who in Mrs. O'Neill accused of being guilty of the murder of her husband. Yesterday was the occasion of a quarrel and quarrel at O'Neill's house. Old Mrs. K-f, the aunt, who had been a witness to the murder, was the opportunity seized her hand from her body with an axe. Mrs. O'Neill was drunk.

A Jail Delivery Frustrated. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 21.—The Times' Nevada City, special: George Thompson and Edward Hicks were jailed here last Friday for robbery. This morning the sheriff discovered they had sawed through the bars of their cell, formed a plot to kill him, and liberate P. P. Star, who is to be hanged next month for murder, and then escape. A set of convicts, however, were found, and in the effort, and $2,000 was accidentally discovered sewed up in Thompson's underwear. Hicks' value consists of a stick of dynamite Thompson has been identified as a notorious crook.

THE FOUL SPOUSE. IONIA, Mich., Sept. 20.—Aldrich, wife and son, who resided the officers so successfully Saturday, and finally came to jail, but refused to give up their arms, were disarmed by the officers during the day Sunday. The officers seemed to have been much overawed by the power of the prisoners. The house, bars, straps, and everything belonging to the Aldrich family, except a wagon, were buried to ashes last night. The prisoners will be arraigned this morning.

School House Burned. Special Telegram to The Bee. COLUMBUS, Neb., Sept. 21.—The Pat Murray school house, in school district No. 3, was burned to the ground last night. This is the third school house burned in the last month. Suspected work of incendiaries. They should be hung.

Escape of Prisoners. STEUBENSVILLE, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Twelve prisoners, escaped from the J. P. Johnson county jail last night by sawing the cell window bars and making a hole large enough to creep through. No important characters were among them. None have been recaptured.

Denies She Attempted to Poison Her Husband. NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—[Special to Chicago Times.]—William Darrach, brother of Mrs. Waud, of Montreal, who according to a story telegraphed from that city, was accused by her husband's friends of an attempt to poison him, is a resident of this city. Mr. Darrach said to-day: "The story that Mrs. Waud had from Montreal is false. She came to New York a week ago and I remained a few days at

THE RUMELIA RISING.

St. Petersburg, September 21.—The Russian press is jubilant over recent events in eastern Roumelia, but seemed surprised at the suddenness of the rising and expressed belief that the affair was arranged at the meeting of emperors at Kremmlar.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The Standard, commenting on the rising in eastern Roumelia, says: "We cannot believe that the powers interested were ignorant of what was coming. If they were, it was the faintest interest, while Austria and Germany are bound to cooperate in keeping the Berlin treaty intact, and it remains to be seen how it will affect Russia. If the treaty powers are acting in concert, the outbreak is a serious one."

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—Agents to all great powers secretary to the treaty of Berlin sent dispatches to their respective governments regarding the rising in Roumelia. It is rumored in the various capitals of this city that the ambassador at Constantinople has succeeded in dissuading the prince from sending troops to enter Roumelia to regain possession of the country.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—French diplomats hope the outbreak in Roumelia will not extend to France. Nations of the rising in Roumelia are a new scheme for the partition of Turkey. French newspapers say that France should act cautiously in dealing with the matter, and wait until the Turkish ambassador, Edad Pacha, Turkish ambassador, had a long interview with the French minister of foreign affairs in Paris. The French minister of foreign affairs has repeatedly excited the serious attention of political circles in Paris by his attitude, continuing to cherish a desire to respect and maintain the treaty of Berlin. The action of France in Roumelia, in placing troops in Roumelia, is a grave violation of international law. It is a challenge to Turkey. Europe cannot, for the benefit of a single Balkan state, and in the interest of its own peace, establish a precedent of the violation of the Balkan peninsula, as fixed by the Berlin treaty. Europe cannot, for the benefit of a single Balkan state, and in the interest of its own peace, establish a precedent of the violation of the Balkan peninsula, as fixed by the Berlin treaty.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—The Zeltz is confident that the powers are able to deal with the outbreak in Roumelia. The powers are able to deal with the outbreak in Roumelia. The powers are able to deal with the outbreak in Roumelia.

SOBIA, Sept. 21.—G. Gabriel Pacha, the deposed governor of Roumelia, is a prisoner here. The powers are able to deal with the outbreak in Roumelia.

THE CHOLERA. ROME, Sept. 21.—Reports from Palermo regarding the progress of the cholera show a disastrous state of affairs prevailing there. Thirty thousand people have died in the city. The cholera is spreading rapidly, and the streets are almost deserted. There is great scarcity of food and water, and the epidemic is increasing with alarming rapidity. The powers are able to deal with the outbreak in Roumelia.

ROME, Sept. 20.—The king has sent a dispatch to Palermo expressing great sympathy for the suffering people. His majesty has sent $10,000 to the city, and has ordered that the streets be kept clean and that the people be supplied with food and water. The powers are able to deal with the outbreak in Roumelia.

SOCIALISTS IN LONDON. LONDON, Sept. 21.—An immense socialist meeting took place yesterday at the Limehouse. The crowd prevented many attempts of the police to arrest the speakers, but the officers finally succeeded in arresting Maxton, secretary of the meeting, and seven other speakers. Several desperate attempts were made by the mob to rescue the prisoners from the police. The powers are able to deal with the outbreak in Roumelia.

DISASTROUS FLOODS. MADRID, Sept. 21.—Disastrous rains occurred in the southeastern part of Spain during the night of the 20th and 21st. The rain descended in torrents, and the rivers overflowed their banks, causing immense destruction of property and loss of many lives. The powers are able to deal with the outbreak in Roumelia.

A FALL IN SECURITIES. LONDON, Sept. 21.—There was a heavy fall in the international securities, caused by events the past few days in Roumelia. The average fall in Turkish shares was from 2 to 5 per cent in French, 3 per cent, and 1 per cent, in London.

ROME, Sept. 21.—Repeated shots of earth-quake were felt in Benevento today, causing a panic among the inhabitants, many of whom fled from the town. A large portion of the population is continuing out in anticipation of further shocks.

TROUBLE IN ALBANIA. CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 21.—Abadly prevailed in Albania. Turkish troops and a body of Albanians have had an engagement near Pogradec. Five battalions of Turkish troops have been dispatched to the scene of the trouble.

CHINA MARSHING TROOPS. PARIS, Sept. 21.—Alarming reports were received here to-day, to the effect that China is marshaling a large force of troops upon the Tsinquin frontier.

IN THE HANDS OF BRIGANDS. SALONICA, Sept. 21.—Brigands have captured the Archbishop of Veria, his niece and another lady. They demand $20,000 for the ransom of the prisoners.

DELEGATES GATHERING FOR THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION—THE CANDIDATES AND THE OUTLOOK.

SARATOGA N. Y., Sept. 21.—Delegates to the republican state convention are arriving in large numbers to-day. There seems as yet to be no concentration upon any one candidate. There have been about twenty-five names mentioned, with Cornell, the first place on the ticket, the most prominent of whom are Alonzo B. Cornell, Cornelius N. Bliss, Ira W. Davenport, J. W. Drake, Joseph H. Carr, Levi M. Grant, James A. Warren, William H. Seward and James Wadsworth. New York county is said to hold the key to the situation, and the delegates are held at Saratoga in order to reach the convention at a quiet moment. It is said, to make O. G. Grant the nominee for secretary of state.

Delegates fairly swarmed into Saratoga this morning, and the hotel to which they were directed to reach the convention is crowded. CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Trade opened rather quiet. Sheep, who had had and good native, which were scarce, made an effort to get more money, and occasionally a lucky one succeeded, but in general way there was little or no change. Texas and Northwestern ranges were in better demand, and relatively as strong as last week. Low grade native stock remains dull and continues to sell at low prices. Stockers and feeders in light supply, and little or no demand. There were but a few country buyers present, and the few transactions recorded were on speculative account.

Sheep, who had had and good native, which were scarce, made an effort to get more money, and occasionally a lucky one succeeded, but in general way there was little or no change. Texas and Northwestern ranges were in better demand, and relatively as strong as last week. Low grade native stock remains dull and continues to sell at low prices. Stockers and feeders in light supply, and little or no demand. There were but a few country buyers present, and the few transactions recorded were on speculative account.

Shipping rates 1850 to 1700 lbs. $3.00 to $3.00. Chicago, Sept. 21.—Trade opened rather quiet.
