

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS Wednesday Morning, September 23 1885. No. 12 Pearl St. Delivered by carrier to any part of the city or twenty cents a week. H. W. TITTON, Editor and Proprietor.

MINOR MENTION.

Reiter, merchant tailor, for fine goods. Free lunch at the Phoenix every morning from 9 to 11 o'clock. Substantial abstracts of title and real estate loans, J. W. and E. L. Squire, 102 Pearl street. The Congregational school is to be held Friday evening of this week at the residence of the pastor. Permit to marry was yesterday given to D. E. Willeford and Mary Grosham, both of Washington township. The motion for a new trial in the Stewart case and in the case of Stone against the city has been overruled. J. W. Perego has been reelected as treasurer of the school board for the ensuing year, and C. M. Harl secretary. The Ladies' Aid society of the Episcopal church is to meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Atkins. Hard coal is now selling at $8.00 per ton, and all kinds of hard coal stoves are selling at correspondingly low prices at A. J. Mandel's, No. 325 Broadway. The dog and pony show of Prof. Morris drew big houses at the matinee and at the evening performance yesterday. All who went, old and young, seemed delighted. There were seven applicants before the supreme court yesterday for admission to the bar. Two only were from this county, Hiram E. Booth, of Carson, and A. S. Hazleton, of this city. A large dog, acting queerly, either mad about something or poisoned, created some excitement and drew a crowd near the Methodist church yesterday forenoon and was shot by Deputy Marshal Bates. Pat Hopkins, who was arrested on the charge of malicious mischief, for having damaged a tenant's furniture in throwing it out of his house, has waived examination, and bonds have been fixed at $300 for his appearance at the next term of the district court. The Sioux City train at an early hour yesterday morning knocked a man off the trestle work near LeMars. The man was taken back to LeMars, where he soon died. His name was not ascertained by the BEE's informant, who was a passenger on the train. DIED--At the home of her son-in-law, Robert Huntington, Ellen Bywater, aged 79. The funeral will take place from Robert Huntington's residence, 148 Graham avenue, at 2 p. m. to-day. All friends of the family are invited to attend without further notice. The great and popular attraction for all, the Woman's Exchange Exposition, opens Monday, October 5th. Every evening will be varied with a series of entertainments now perfected by those having the matter in charge. Remember the great opening day. The circuit court met in Avoca Monday, and a few defaults were taken, there not being time for the hearing of cases. Adjudgment was had until November 10, at which time it is expected there will be trials by jury and other regular business, which has now been crowded out. George Heaton has been given the contract for supplying the schools with coal for the ensuing year. Mr. J. K. Cooper, who is one of the members of the board, is the weighmaster and bookkeeper for Mr. Heaton, so that the board seems to have a double guaranty that the contract will be carried out in good faith, and to the best interests of the public. Harry Finley, whose home is in Leon, Iowa, has been lodged in the county jail here to await the action of the grand jury. It is claimed that Finley, while stopping at a hotel in Carson, sneaked into the next room, occupied by a man named Erelckson, and stole a suit of clothes and some trinkets. He had an examination, the result of which was his being bound over. Deputy Sheriff Kinney brought him to this city. Yesterday afternoon a railway man named Fred Rudecampf picked up a pocketknife in Baylis park, and gave it to the park policeman, Billy Dean. Soon after, Fred Newmeyer claimed the knife of Rudecampf, and was quite indignant because it was not promptly handed over to him, the park policeman insisting on his describing it in every detail. Some hot words were indulged in, and Newmeyer was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. He gave bonds for his appearance this morning. The ushers at the opera house deserve special praise for the gentlemanly and efficient manner in which they have cared for the great crowds which have been drawn to the opera house by the entertainment given by Prof. Morris' dogs and ponies. The ushers seem to have become so thoroughly posted as to the location of every seat, that even when there is such a rush they make few if any mistakes, and they rapidly and quietly seat the audience. The only complaint heard was from a dead-head reporter, who insisted on plotting out his own seat, and was then hot because he would not be allowed to remain in the wrong one. He will get over it, however. Only give him time to reflect how foolish and inconspicuous he was. Wedding present to Homer's, 23 Main street.

FOUND, BUT DEAD.

The Body of Frederick Spetman Recovered from the River.

For several days the many friends of Frederick Spetman, a well-to-do farmer of Mills county, have been in anxious suspense over his sudden and mysterious disappearance. His description had been scattered over the country, and a reward offered for the recovery of the body, it being supposed that he had either fallen into the river by accident, or else foully murdered. Yesterday morning F. W. Spetman & Bro., of this city, received a telegram from Claude Watson, coroner of Otoe county, Neb., and dated at Nebraska City, September 21, saying: "Man found in river here to-night, answering description of Frederick Spetman. Come or telegraph at once." On receipt of this Mr. Holst, of Holst & Spetman, and Mr. F. W. Spetman, at once started for Nebraska City, accompanied by Mr. Charles Keith, the general agent of the "Q." Later in the day other telegrams were received stating that the body was surely that of Mr. Spetman, and that arrangements had been made for bringing him home on the evening train, the train to be stopped between Hinton and Island Park, at a spot about forty rods from the home of the unfortunate man, whence he could easily be taken. The telegrams received during the day were chiefly about the arrangements in regard to getting the body home, and contained no information as to the details of his death. The coroner's inquest threw no light upon the mystery of the death. There were no marks of violence on the body, but the absence of the money which the deceased had when he left home, arouses suspicion of foul play.

Tired of Drunken Abuse. The BEE yesterday morning contained an account of the doings of a German, named Rudolph Kuentzle, who was arrested and put in jail for having a row with his wife, whom he had followed here from the old country. Yesterday the wife, Emilie Kuentzle, commenced proceedings in the district court to secure a divorce. She sets up in her petition that she was married to him in 1875 in Bilsching, Prussia. He soon took to drink, and became a habitual drunkard, and was so cruel and abusive that she feared for her life. He at one time strangled her with a knife in one of his frenzied spells. She left him, and came to this country, but he followed her to this city, and he has commenced his attacks upon her again. In coming to a land of freedom she wants to secure freedom indeed. John Pergot, brakeman on the Kansas City, while trying to dislodge some tramps in a box car on the train was shot by them in the arm. This occurred Monday night while the train was passing through Nodaway county, Missouri. Two shots were fired by the tramps, one of which badly shattered the brakeman's arm.

PERSONAL.

C. R. Bolter, of Logan, was in the city yesterday. Riley Clark, of Neola, visited the Bluffs yesterday. Rev. Dr. Cleland, of Keokuk, is greeting his old friends here. Smith McPherson, ex-attorney general of the state, is here attending court. C. S. Keenan, of Shenandoah, is among the attorneys in attendance at court. Frank Shinn, of Carson, was in the city yesterday, showing his speed on the typewriter. Mr. Taylor, of Taylor & Cafet, has returned from his visit to his old Vermont home. W. R. McCollough went out on the "Q" yesterday morning to visit the heavy hardware trade. Mr. Perkins, of Perkins' windmill fame, is in the city, the guest of H. C. Addis, general agent for the mills. Mr. Cranston, of the Methodist book concern, Cincinnati, O., is in the city, looking after some property here. Mrs. George Thompson returned yesterday morning from Rockford, Ill., where she has been visiting for the past four weeks. A. W. Courson stopped over in this city yesterday on his way from Lincoln, Neb., and last evening took the C. B. & Q. east. Finley Burke, of Orange City, is here, looking after the interests of his clients in the supreme court and greeting his many old friends here. Charley Bray, who has been in the employ of the Chicago lumber company in this city as bookkeeper, is now located in the Pacific express office.

Punishing Whisky. W. A. Walls, who has been prosecuted by some of the citizens of Carson for selling intoxicating liquors contrary to law, seems to be getting the worst of it. He was tried recently before Justice Stoddard, of Carson, and the jury hung. A change of venue was taken to Macedonia, and there the case was tried the other day, and the jury found him guilty on five counts, and he was fined $50 on each, making the snug little sum of $250. He has taken an appeal to the district court, and hopes to get more consolation there.

Harmony Chapter No. 25, O. E. S., will hold a special meeting at the residence of Bro. John K. Her, corner Broadway and Bancroft, Thursday evening at 7:30, on business of importance. By order of the W. M.

THE SUPREME COURT.

Three Decisions to Mark the Opening Day of the Term. The supreme court met here yesterday and will continue in session several days. Three decisions were rendered. The first was in the case of the state vs. Elijah Thurman, from the Wayne county district court, in which the defendant had been tried and convicted for abortion on Ella Vaughn, who died from the effects of the drugs and instruments used. The supreme court affirmed the finding. W. H. Dempsey and others against the city of Burlington and others. Appeal from the Des Moines circuit court. The plaintiffs brought this action in equity for the purpose of having a certain ordinance of the city declared invalid, it being an ordinance vacating a portion of an alley. In the circuit court, on a hearing there, the petition was dismissed, and the plaintiffs appealed. The supreme court affirmed the decision of the circuit court. C. E. Adams & Co., and others against Frank T. Piper and others, appellants. From O'Brien district court. This action was to recover damages for libel. It was claimed that the defendants had charged the plaintiffs, who are dealers in grain, with having formed a combination to reduce the price of grain, one of the plaintiffs purchasing one day, and the other the next, and so on, and that as a result the price of grain was kept lower than in the neighboring towns. The plaintiffs secured a judgment, and the defendant appealed. The supreme court decided that the charges were not of such a nature as to provoke the plaintiffs to wrath, or hold them up to public contempt, as it was well known that grain men were in the habit of forming combinations to control prices, and that such being a custom of the trade, there was no damage, and the case was reversed.

If you wish to make legitimately from Ten to Fifty Dollars per day, write to Judd & Smith, No. 34 Fourth street, Council Bluffs.

The exposition given under the auspices of the Woman's Exchange, is now under way, and will open on Monday, October 15. It is hoped it will excel in excellence and success the same enterprise one year ago. It is to be held in the skating rink, the most suitable building in the city for such an affair, as the rooms are all in one floor and are easy of access. The diagrams for booths are now ready, and all wishing to make use of this excellent opportunity to exhibit the various lines of goods in the various trades can have a choice of location by applying at once to the president, Mrs. George S. Phelps, or the secretary, Mrs. E. D. F. Fisher.
