

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS Friday Morning, September 25 1885.

MINOR MENTION. Rafter, merchant tailor, for fine goods.

Free lunch at the Phoenix every morning from 9 to 11 o'clock.

Protected meetings are being held now in Harmony mission chapel.

Dr. Barstow is the father of a wee little maiden, who promises to make home even happier than ever.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians are arranging for a grand ball at Masonic hall on the evening of the first of October.

Now is your time for getting prepared for winter. Coal stoves and other needs can be secured at A. J. Mandel's, No. 325 Broadway, at remarkably low prices.

The case of the Western Cottage Organ company against J. Mueller was postponed in the superior court yesterday afternoon until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Permits to marry were yesterday granted to Peter Sorenson and Anna S. Frederickson, both of this city; William Bevins and Minnie Rinehart, both of Masonia.

Complaint is made of the way boys use their "nigger stokers." Several windows have been broken by these shooters, the latest being one of the store windows of Mrs. C. L. Gillett, on Main street.

Several improvements have been made in the telephone central office, among which is an additional switch board and a power wire. An additional operator has been put on, increasing the force to seven.

The Congregational social to be given this evening at the residence of the pastor, Rev. G. W. Crofts, promises to be a very enjoyable affair. An interesting programme has been prepared, and all are invited to be present and enjoy it.

The cases brought against James O'Brien and Mrs. Oblinger, charging them with adultery, have been dismissed, the prosecuting witness not appearing.

Mr. O'Brien is a well known railway man who bears an excellent reputation, and it will be gratifying to his many friends to learn that there is nothing to the charge made against him.

Besides losing the others who worked gratuitously for Mr. Dohany in the opera house all the hands employed on the stage have left him except one. He being the only one receiving pay, the others heretofore taking their pay out by "taking in" the show.

This accounts for the bad breaks that have so often been made in the shifting of the scenery.

The county board met yesterday and allowed a few bills. The petition of Mr. Clayton, of Oakland, for permit to sell liquor, against which a protest had been filed, was allowed.

There was no action taken in regard to the reduction of taxes on the stock yards and the elevator, beyond the agreement that the board would coincide in any action taken in the matter by the city council.

Some other matters which have been referred to the county attorney were laid over, the attorney being out of the city, and unable to report.

The Y. M. C. A. has taken the responsibility of giving the people of Council Bluffs a rare musical treat and have secured the celebrated McGilbrey family, who will appear at the opera house on Thursday evening, October 1. Reserved seats, 75 cents; general admission, 50 cents; children, 25 cents.

This entertainment will surely be appreciated by the people of our city who attend. At Boston, New York City, Philadelphia, Washington, Buffalo, Cleveland, and a score of other cities in the east, they carried things by storm and were given some of the best press notices to be found. A crowded house should greet them at this point.

Hymeneal happiness. Yesterday morning there was a quiet little wedding party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Warren, at the marriage of their daughter, Miss Edith Warren, to Mr. J. S. Standeford. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. A. E. Bates, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and the happy couple left on the morning train for Kansas City, Mr. Standeford's old home, but will return shortly to make their permanent residence here.

The worthy young lady thus worldly wedded has many friends here, and is one of the most accomplished musicians in the city. Mr. Standeford is the agent for Iowa and Nebraska for the K. W. Valley Paint and Oil company, of Kansas City, and is a business man of much energy and ability.

The Bas joins with the many in congratulations and the best of wishes.

PERSONAL. Mrs. I. C. Bonham has returned from a visit to Malvern.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cowdrey left last evening on their wedding tour, to Chicago, Detroit, etc., after which they go to Plattsville Wis., to reside.

Mrs. L. C. Dunn has returned from a very pleasant visit to her friends in Ogdenburg, N. Y.

A Ticket. Yesterday afternoon, after the close of the county convention, the republicans of Kane township held a convention and unanimously nominated Elihu Myers for treasurer, W. McFadden for constable, and B. A. Bonham as assessor for outside property.

THE TICKET. The Republicans Nominate Their Strongest Men. The County Convention Harmonious and Happy.

Details of Its Doing.

The republican county convention was called to order at 11:30 o'clock by Jacob Sims, the chairman of the committee, who named as temporary chairman C. R. Scott.

On taking the chair he said that during a residence of eleven years he had never seen the republican party so harmonious, and standing shoulder to shoulder, marching on to victory.

The democrat party was divided into factions, each faction saying the pet of the other was not fit for office, and the republicans thought that both were right.

Mr. Walter Smith was chosen as secretary. PRELIMINARY WORK.

On motion of Mr. B. F. Clayton, the chairman named a committee of five on credentials—B. F. Clayton, Thomas J. Evans, E. A. Consigney, Dr. W. F. Pierce and O. F. Kelsey.

On motion of John Lindt, the chair appointed a committee on permanent organization—John Lindt, of Kane; F. Benjamin, of Avoca; M. Blaby, of Walnut; W. J. Trotter, of Avoca; C. L. Field, of Hancock; O. F. Adams, of Kane; Eli Clayton, of Wright; W. H. McGinnis, of Hazel Dell; Peter Ehlers, of Minden; Mr. Remington, of Neoa.

The convention then adjourned until 1:30 o'clock to allow the committee time to make up their reports.

AFTERNOON SESSION. On reconvening the committee on credentials reported through their secretary, Dr. Pierce. The only contest was in Crescent township. The committee reported in favor of admitting both sets of delegates, and giving to each delegate a half vote.

Mr. Matlock, one of the contestants, protested against the adoption of the report. The report was adopted. Boomer, Washington and Lincoln townships were not represented.

The committee on permanent organization reported in favor of terminating the permanent chairman "president," and selecting a vice-president from each township. For "president," C. R. Scott was recommended, and for secretary, Walter Smith. The report was adopted.

Col. Scott said he supposed he was expected to make a speech, but he hardly thought he did so as the title of "president" had nearly taken away his breath, and besides there was no opposition and no one treading on his toes.

He succeeded, however, in speaking and calling out considerable enthusiasm. He warned prohibitionists that they were alone safe inside the republican ranks, and that outside the lines they were liable to be killed and deserted, as in the past.

He predicted that Blaine would yet be president and Logan vice-president and urged the waving of the bloody shirt again, and swiping the democracy across the mouth with it, and if there were not enough bloody shirts to do this, then bloody more.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE. Mr. Jacob Simms moved to proceed to the nomination of two candidates for the legislature from this county. Carried.

B. F. Clayton named Hon. W. F. Sapp, of Council Bluffs, and Austin Hake, of Avoca, and moved that they be nominated by acclamation.

Colonel Sapp insisted that his name should not be used.

The chairman called him to order, but Colonel Sapp insisted on declining. He nominated in his stead John Lindt.

F. Benjamin seconded the nomination of Mr. Lindt.

Mr. Hake expressed thanks for the mention of his name, but declined to have it mentioned further.

Mr. E. A. Consigney insisted that Mr. Hake was too good a republican to refuse to accept the nomination. He thought, too, that Colonel Sapp should come to the help of the party, now that it needed him.

He renewed the motion that the nominations of Colonel Sapp and Mr. Hake be made by acclamation.

B. F. Clayton moved to proceed by ballot. Before the ballot was announced, Col. Sapp moved to make the nominations of Hake and Lindt unanimous by acclamation. Ruled out of order.

He insisted, however, on the ground that he could not sacrifice his large law practice by serving the people, if elected. The ballot was announced: Hake 96, Sapp 71, and Lindt 47.

On motion of C. F. Adams the nominations of Col. W. F. Sapp and Mayor Hake, of Avoca, were made unanimous amidst cheers.

Col. Sapp came out amid cheers and remarked that of all things in the world which he admired it was a good horse, and he thoroughly despised a balky one.

He would not, in the face of such a sentiment as that, in this convention, be found balking. They had stood by him when he wanted nominations, and he could not further resist, now that they laid claims upon him.

tionation of Mr. Armour, he receiving 61 votes and Mr. Guttler 46. On motion of Col. Sapp the nomination of Mr. Armour was made unanimous.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS. C. H. Converse, of Oakland, named for superintendent of schools J. M. Matthews, the present incumbent. Mr. T. J. Evans seconded it, and moved to choose him by acclamation. Nominated unanimously.

THE NEXT INQUEST. For coroner Mr. Consigney named Mr. H. H. Field. Mr. Sims named the present incumbent, D. M. Cornell. The name of E. Rosecrans was also presented.

The ballot resulted in the nomination of H. H. Field by an overwhelming majority, he receiving 76 votes, Rosecrans 17, and Cornell 14. The nomination of Field was made unanimous.

Mr. Field in thanking the convention expressed the hope that the first inquest he would be called upon to hold would be that of the democratic party.

FOR MEMBERS OF THE COUNTY BOARD. Mr. Sims moved that Mr. S. B. Frum be renominated for county supervisor. Mr. B. F. Clayton moved Eli Clayton be nominated as the other supervisor. Mr. Matlock named Joseph McCord. The name of J. P. Boulder was also presented.

Before the ballot was announced Mr. Benjamin moved to nominate Eli Clayton for supervisor by acclamation. Carried unanimously.

THE COUNTY SUPERVISOR. Thomas Tosevlin, the present incumbent, was nominated unanimously by acclamation.

The convention had been a sort of running love feast, and as a finish Mr. J. J. Steadman was called for a speech, and made an enthusiastic one, closing with an appeal for unanimous, enthusiastic support of the ticket which had been framed, and which was pronounced by him a strong one.

On motion of Mr. A. T. Fickinger the convention closed with three cheers for the candidates.

WORSE THAN A BRUTE. A Cass County Farmer Charged With Crimes Too Foul to Name.

From the Cass County Democrat it is learned that the grand jury at its recent session found an indictment against Cyrus Baughman, charging him with incest.

The evidence as produced before that body, and upon which the indictment is based, is said to be of the most horrifying and sickening kind.

It was proven that for years he has been more of a hyena than a father, more a devil than a husband. His treatment of his family had been of the most brutal order, and so abjectly terrified had they become under his treatment that they dared not give the notice to the public which would no doubt result in hanging by an indignant people years ago.

One boy is a cripple for life, his hip having been kicked out of place, as we are informed by this inhuman devil of a father. The daughter, who now has a baby, the result of a forced cohabitation with her brutal parent, says that her own father seduced her when she was scarcely more than 12 years of age, and that he had kept up his hellish relations with her until a few weeks before her babe was born.

Another daughter, about 13 years of age, says that he tried to force her also to submit to his filthy lust only a few days before the denouncement came. The older daughter says she kept silent under fear of death with which the old devil threatened her in case of her telling what was occurring, and from the manner of his treatment generally she no doubt believed he would fulfill his threat.

Substantial abstracts of title and real estate loans, J. W. and E. L. Squire, 102 Pearl street.

Houghton-Beebe. Last evening another couple of Council Bluffs favorite young folks were joyfully joined in matrimony, they being Dr. F. W. Houghton and Miss Geneva M. Beebe, daughter of Mr. C. A. Beebe, at whose residence the ceremony took place.

In the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends, Rev. Mr. McDowell officiated. The happy couple will start this morning for Fort Calhoun, where the doctor is established in practice.

He is a young physician and surgeon of excellent education, and is rapidly winning his way, while the companion whom he has thus chosen for life is an accomplished young lady, who will grace the best home and the best society. The well wishes of a large circle of friends go with them to their new homes.

If you wish to make legitimately from Ten to Fifty Dollars per day, write to Judd & Smith, No. 34 Fourth street, Council Bluffs.

POLITICAL PRATTLE. The Mayor Said to be Working the Wires for a Trap.

There has been a good deal of guessing as to what the mayor means by calling a democratic convention of his own. Among the reports circulating in the democratic camp is that the mayor's play is to mislead his democratic opponents, and to give them the impression that he and his confederates do not intend to take any part in the regular convention, but that they are going to hold a convention of their own, and frame a ticket to suit themselves, leaving the other faction of the democratic party to act in harmony, and to be free from all annoyance from him.

This throw off their guard, the democrats will not watch the caucuses as closely as they otherwise would, and he and his friends will improve the chance to slyly capture the caucuses and secure delegates favorable to nominating the little mayor for the legislature. If he can thus steal a march on them, his convention may not be heard from again, but if it should fall, then he can hold the convention and nominate himself for the legislature. Such is the outline of the scheme as plotted by the alarmed democrats of the other faction. If he has any such scheme on foot, he will now find it difficult to capture the regular caucuses, as they will be on their guard.

The democrats who thought they had got rid of the troublesome mayor seem to still find him a thorn in the flesh. He openly declares that he will fight any one nominated at the Bowman convention, but he would probably change his mind if he should succeed in stealing the nomination in that convention.
