

WAVES OF POLITICAL WIND.

of our people in Virginia to the success of our movement. We have to be thankful for the liberality of the present national administration to our people in the south.

AS ADOPTED.

Virginia Meet and Every Body—A Colored

THE MUGWUMS DISLIKE HIM.

New York, Sept. 30.—Inquiry as to the general sentiment of the so-called Cleveland republicans in regard to the coming state election was today made. The result indicated that the "mugwump" vote will be practically solid in support of the republican state ticket.

A FALLING BUILDING.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—At 1 o'clock this morning a large four-story building in the rear of 108 Clark street, suddenly began to totter and in a few minutes it was sinking through the floors. Men working in a bread bakery in the basement fled for their lives. A moment after the floors gradually sank down until the basement was filled.

CHICAGO BLESSED THE DAY.

That Gave to the Home Nine the Second Game in the Great Contest.

VIRTUALLY THE CHAMPIONS.

New York Must Win the Next Two Games of the Series to Tie—Various Sporting Events Yesterday.

CHICAGO AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—There was an industrious scene of cheering and hat swinging at White Stocking ball park this afternoon at the close of the ninth inning when it was certain that victory had again perched on the banners of the home team, giving them an almost indisputable claim to the national league pennant. They defeated the New York stalwarts by a score of 2 to 1 with an inning to spare. The attendance was 11,300, and this despite a sky which constantly threatened rain. The audience was kept clear of the field, however, to prevent any possible interference with the work of the umpires, and by this means no ground rules were necessary.

A Big Purse for a Big Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—All conditions were favorable for the great stallion race at Myrtle park this afternoon. The day was perfect, and the track in fine condition, and fully 8,000 persons watched the trotting. Of the seven horses entered, Carlos and Albany, Gift were drawn, leaving but five starters.

French Vaccination Folly.

A Quieter Feeling in the Riot-Ridden and Epidemic-Stricken City of Montreal.

FOURTH ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

Giddy Gertrie Chamberlain Tries It Again in Chicago—Prevented From Finding a Watery Grave in the Lake.

The Montreal Riots.

MONTEAL, Sept. 30.—Only two small disturbances occurred last night, one at the new nursery, the other near the Grand Canal. The police had received information that the mob would assemble at the latter place and a force was on hand. On becoming unruly the crowd was quietly dispersed. A man named Ureloire Theriault was arrested for inciting the crowd. Everything is quiet this morning; the large force of militia called out has evidently had good effect.

The Troupian Revolt.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—The indications today point to active war preparations by the Porte, eight battalions of first-class reserves being mobilized in and near the city.

Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The president today appointed Dudley O. Watson to be collector of customs for the district of Grand Haven, Michigan.

Dr. Gregory's Resignation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Dr. Gregory, of the bureau of animal industry, yesterday notified the president that he was ready to resign as soon as requested.

A Fatal Collision.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 30.—An Indianapolis & St. Louis train and an Indiana, Bloomington & Western freight came in collision at a crossing near Brightwood today.

A Freeman Journalist Joins the Army of Benedict.

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 30.—[Special to the BEE.]—Last night at Fremont, at the Congregational church, occurred the wedding of Mr. Ross L. Emmons and Miss Louise Reynolds daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reynolds.

It Hurt His Feelings.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Henry F. Donovan, superintendent of letter carriers, at a meeting of the young democracy to-night, tendered his resignation as president of the organization.

THE PRESIDENT'S HORSES.

The One Named After Manning is a Lamb.

There are six stories among the horsemen in Washington that the president's favorite horses are named after the presidents of the United States.

A Convict Confesses.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—George H. Procter, a noted criminal, who is serving a sentence of ten years in the Eastern penitentiary, made a confession under oath at that institution today of all the circumstances attending the audacious robbing of the Erie railroad office at Susquehanna, Pennsylvania, of $40,000 on June 21, 1885.

To Be Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Commissioner Sparks of the general land office has recommended, and Secretary Lamar has approved, the dismissal of Special Agent Travis, now on duty at Grand Falls, to take effect October 15.

Business Collapse.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—Russell Hinckley, an old and well known banker and banker of Belleville, Ill., made an assignment this afternoon to Marshall W. Fry, a public trustee, estimated at $117,000. Assets, besides valuable property in Belleville, embrace lands in several counties of Illinois and 600 acres of land in Missouri and Nebraska, but their value is not given.

The Peeling in Chicago and New York.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The greatest interest was manifested over the result of the New York-Chicago game today, and all the newspapers bulletined the innings. Afternoon papers ran extra and late editions to cover the result. Chicago now has a lead of four games over New York and is practically assured the championship, as only six games remain to be played this season.

Supposed to be Bogus.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Forty-one thousand dollars in tax stamps, were in the possession of Tom Davis after his murder by Holland, of Texas. A supervisor of Mattoon has sent to the coroner a levy for one of the bonds for examination, stating his belief that they are bogus and should be destroyed. One of the bonds will be sent.

Foreign Brevities.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 30.—The victims of the flood at False Point number 300. Many vessels were wrecked there.

A County Convention.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Sept. 30.—The republican county convention today nominated Philip M. Crapo for senator; William Pilger, of Burlington, and Miles Miller, of Trexel, for representatives; Joseph Troxel, for auditor; and H. C. Storer, for sheriff.

A Fallure in Clothing.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—Rosefield & Kaufman, clothiers, were assigned today with liabilities estimated at $100,000 assets, $60,000. The preferences amount to about $40,000. The firm had failed very high.

Base Ball Yesterday.

At Philadelphia—Athletic & Pittsburg 2; at Baltimore—Baltimore 1, Louisville 5; at St. Louis—St. Louis 3, Philadelphia 8; at Buffalo—Buffalo 1, Brooklyn 13; at New York—Metropolitan 3, Cincinnati 1.

Official Casualty in Turkey.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Constantinople was received this afternoon saying that considerable consternation prevails in official circles over the constant discovery of bodies of men, women and children, just made by Albanian Pasha, now minister of war. Immediately on being installed in the new position Alb Pasha ordered all the various department commanders to report the strength of their respective commands, the number of men, women and children, and several other particulars.

Colfax County's Fair a Success.

CHEYENNE, Neb., Sept. 30.—[Special to the BEE.]—The Colfax county fair opened with good prospects today. One thousand entries were made and the gate receipts were greater than any previous opening day. The weather is fine and the association is jubilant over the excellent success of the fair.

American Boycotters.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 30.—A convention of the retail coal dealers of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan was called to meet at Dayton, October 8, for the purpose of preventing wholesale dealers from engaging in local trade. The convention will probably agree not to purchase coal from wholesale dealers so long.

The Weather Today.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—For the upper Mississippi valley: Local rains, except extreme northern portion, stationary temperature. For the Missouri valley: Fair weather, except local rains in northern portion and heavy showers in the extreme northern portion. For the southern portion: stationary temperature in northern portion and warmer in northern portion.

Business Collapse.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—Russell Hinckley, an old and well known banker and banker of Belleville, Ill., made an assignment this afternoon to Marshall W. Fry, a public trustee, estimated at $117,000. Assets, besides valuable property in Belleville, embrace lands in several counties of Illinois and 600 acres of land in Missouri and Nebraska, but their value is not given.

To Be Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Commissioner Sparks of the general land office has recommended, and Secretary Lamar has approved, the dismissal of Special Agent Travis, now on duty at Grand Falls, to take effect October 15.

Business Collapse.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—Russell Hinckley, an old and well known banker and banker of Belleville, Ill., made an assignment this afternoon to Marshall W. Fry, a public trustee, estimated at $117,000. Assets, besides valuable property in Belleville, embrace lands in several counties of Illinois and 600 acres of land in Missouri and Nebraska, but their value is not given.

The Peeling in Chicago and New York.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The greatest interest was manifested over the result of the New York-Chicago game today, and all the newspapers bulletined the innings. Afternoon papers ran extra and late editions to cover the result. Chicago now has a lead of four games over New York and is practically assured the championship, as only six games remain to be played this season.

Supposed to be Bogus.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Forty-one thousand dollars in tax stamps, were in the possession of Tom Davis after his murder by Holland, of Texas. A supervisor of Mattoon has sent to the coroner a levy for one of the bonds for examination, stating his belief that they are bogus and should be destroyed. One of the bonds will be sent.

Foreign Brevities.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 30.—The victims of the flood at False Point number 300. Many vessels were wrecked there.

A County Convention.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Sept. 30.—The republican county convention today nominated Philip M. Crapo for senator; William Pilger, of Burlington, and Miles Miller, of Trexel, for representatives; Joseph Troxel, for auditor; and H. C. Storer, for sheriff.

A Fallure in Clothing.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—Rosefield & Kaufman, clothiers, were assigned today with liabilities estimated at $100,000 assets, $60,000. The preferences amount to about $40,000. The firm had failed very high.

CHICAGO BLESSED THE DAY.

That Gave to the Home Nine the Second Game in the Great Contest.

VIRTUALLY THE CHAMPIONS.

New York Must Win the Next Two Games of the Series to Tie—Various Sporting Events Yesterday.

CHICAGO AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—There was an industrious scene of cheering and hat swinging at White Stocking ball park this afternoon at the close of the ninth inning when it was certain that victory had again perched on the banners of the home team, giving them an almost indisputable claim to the national league pennant.

A Big Purse for a Big Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—All conditions were favorable for the great stallion race at Myrtle park this afternoon. The day was perfect, and the track in fine condition, and fully 8,000 persons watched the trotting.

French Vaccination Folly.

A Quieter Feeling in the Riot-Ridden and Epidemic-Stricken City of Montreal.

FOURTH ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

Giddy Gertrie Chamberlain Tries It Again in Chicago—Prevented From Finding a Watery Grave in the Lake.

The Montreal Riots.

MONTEAL, Sept. 30.—Only two small disturbances occurred last night, one at the new nursery, the other near the Grand Canal. The police had received information that the mob would assemble at the latter place and a force was on hand.

The Troupian Revolt.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—The indications today point to active war preparations by the Porte, eight battalions of first-class reserves being mobilized in and near the city.

Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The president today appointed Dudley O. Watson to be collector of customs for the district of Grand Haven, Michigan.

Dr. Gregory's Resignation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Dr. Gregory, of the bureau of animal industry, yesterday notified the president that he was ready to resign as soon as requested.

A Fatal Collision.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 30.—An Indianapolis & St. Louis train and an Indiana, Bloomington & Western freight came in collision at a crossing near Brightwood today.

A Freeman Journalist Joins the Army of Benedict.

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 30.—[Special to the BEE.]—Last night at Fremont, at the Congregational church, occurred the wedding of Mr. Ross L. Emmons and Miss Louise Reynolds daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reynolds.

It Hurt His Feelings.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Henry F. Donovan, superintendent of letter carriers, at a meeting of the young democracy to-night, tendered his resignation as president of the organization.

THE PRESIDENT'S HORSES.

The One Named After Manning is a Lamb.

There are six stories among the horsemen in Washington that the president's favorite horses are named after the presidents of the United States.

A Convict Confesses.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—George H. Procter, a noted criminal, who is serving a sentence of ten years in the Eastern penitentiary, made a confession under oath at that institution today of all the circumstances attending the audacious robbing of the Erie railroad office at Susquehanna, Pennsylvania, of $40,000 on June 21, 1885.

To Be Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Commissioner Sparks of the general land office has recommended, and Secretary Lamar has approved, the dismissal of Special Agent Travis, now on duty at Grand Falls, to take effect October 15.

Business Collapse.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—Russell Hinckley, an old and well known banker and banker of Belleville, Ill., made an assignment this afternoon to Marshall W. Fry, a public trustee, estimated at $117,000. Assets, besides valuable property in Belleville, embrace lands in several counties of Illinois and 600 acres of land in Missouri and Nebraska, but their value is not given.

The Peeling in Chicago and New York.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The greatest interest was manifested over the result of the New York-Chicago game today, and all the newspapers bulletined the innings. Afternoon papers ran extra and late editions to cover the result. Chicago now has a lead of four games over New York and is practically assured the championship, as only six games remain to be played this season.

Supposed to be Bogus.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Forty-one thousand dollars in tax stamps, were in the possession of Tom Davis after his murder by Holland, of Texas. A supervisor of Mattoon has sent to the coroner a levy for one of the bonds for examination, stating his belief that they are bogus and should be destroyed. One of the bonds will be sent.

Foreign Brevities.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 30.—The victims of the flood at False Point number 300. Many vessels were wrecked there.

A County Convention.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Sept. 30.—The republican county convention today nominated Philip M. Crapo for senator; William Pilger, of Burlington, and Miles Miller, of Trexel, for representatives; Joseph Troxel, for auditor; and H. C. Storer, for sheriff.

A Fallure in Clothing.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—Rosefield & Kaufman, clothiers, were assigned today with liabilities estimated at $100,000 assets, $60,000. The preferences amount to about $40,000. The firm had failed very high.

CHICAGO BLESSED THE DAY.

That Gave to the Home Nine the Second Game in the Great Contest.

VIRTUALLY THE CHAMPIONS.

New York Must Win the Next Two Games of the Series to Tie—Various Sporting Events Yesterday.

CHICAGO AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—There was an industrious scene of cheering and hat swinging at White Stocking ball park this afternoon at the close of the ninth inning when it was certain that victory had again perched on the banners of the home team, giving them an almost indisputable claim to the national league pennant.

A Big Purse for a Big Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—All conditions were favorable for the great stallion race at Myrtle park this afternoon. The day was perfect, and the track in fine condition, and fully 8,000 persons watched the trotting.

French Vaccination Folly.

A Quieter Feeling in the Riot-Ridden and Epidemic-Stricken City of Montreal.

FOURTH ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

Giddy Gertrie Chamberlain Tries It Again in Chicago—Prevented From Finding a Watery Grave in the Lake.

The Montreal Riots.

MONTEAL, Sept. 30.—Only two small disturbances occurred last night, one at the new nursery, the other near the Grand Canal. The police had received information that the mob would assemble at the latter place and a force was on hand.

The Troupian Revolt.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—The indications today point to active war preparations by the Porte, eight battalions of first-class reserves being mobilized in and near the city.

Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The president today appointed Dudley O. Watson to be collector of customs for the district of Grand Haven, Michigan.

Dr. Gregory's Resignation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Dr. Gregory, of the bureau of animal industry, yesterday notified the president that he was ready to resign as soon as requested.

A Fatal Collision.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 30.—An Indianapolis & St. Louis train and an Indiana, Bloomington & Western freight came in collision at a crossing near Brightwood today.

A Freeman Journalist Joins the Army of Benedict.

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 30.—[Special to the BEE.]—Last night at Fremont, at the Congregational church, occurred the wedding of Mr. Ross L. Emmons and Miss Louise Reynolds daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reynolds.

It Hurt His Feelings.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Henry F. Donovan, superintendent of letter carriers, at a meeting of the young democracy to-night, tendered his resignation as president of the organization.

THE PRESIDENT'S HORSES.

The One Named After Manning is a Lamb.

There are six stories among the horsemen in Washington that the president's favorite horses are named after the presidents of the United States.

A Convict Confesses.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—George H. Procter, a noted criminal, who is serving a sentence of ten years in the Eastern penitentiary, made a confession under oath at that institution today of all the circumstances attending the audacious robbing of the Erie railroad office at Susquehanna, Pennsylvania, of $40,000 on June 21, 1885.

To Be Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Commissioner Sparks of the general land office has recommended, and Secretary Lamar has approved, the dismissal of Special Agent Travis, now on duty at Grand Falls, to take effect October 15.

Business Collapse.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—Russell Hinckley, an old and well known banker and banker of Belleville, Ill., made an assignment this afternoon to Marshall W. Fry, a public trustee, estimated at $117,000. Assets, besides valuable property in Belleville, embrace lands in several counties of Illinois and 600 acres of land in Missouri and Nebraska, but their value is not given.

The Peeling in Chicago and New York.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The greatest interest was manifested over the result of the New York-Chicago game today, and all the newspapers bulletined the innings. Afternoon papers ran extra and late editions to cover the result. Chicago now has a lead of four games over New York and is practically assured the championship, as only six games remain to be played this season.

Supposed to be Bogus.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Forty-one thousand dollars in tax stamps, were in the possession of Tom Davis after his murder by Holland, of Texas. A supervisor of Mattoon has sent to the coroner a levy for one of the bonds for examination, stating his belief that they are bogus and should be destroyed. One of the bonds will be sent.

Foreign Brevities.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 30.—The victims of the flood at False Point number 300. Many vessels were wrecked there.

A County Convention.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Sept. 30.—The republican county convention today nominated Philip M. Crapo for senator; William Pilger, of Burlington, and Miles Miller, of Trexel, for representatives; Joseph Troxel, for auditor; and H. C. Storer, for sheriff.

A Fallure in Clothing.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—Rosefield & Kaufman, clothiers, were assigned today with liabilities estimated at $100,000 assets, $60,000. The preferences amount to about $40,000. The firm had failed very high.

CHICAGO BLESSED THE DAY.

That Gave to the Home Nine the Second Game in the Great Contest.

VIRTUALLY THE CHAMPIONS.

New York Must Win the Next Two Games of the Series to Tie—Various Sporting Events Yesterday.

CHICAGO AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—There was an industrious scene of cheering and hat swinging at White Stocking ball park this afternoon at the close of the ninth inning when it was certain that victory had again perched on the banners of the home team, giving them an almost indisputable claim to the national league pennant.

A Big Purse for a Big Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—All conditions were favorable for the great stallion race at Myrtle park this afternoon. The day was perfect, and the track in fine condition, and fully 8,000 persons watched the trotting.

French Vaccination Folly.

A Quieter Feeling in the Riot-Ridden and Epidemic-Stricken City of Montreal.

FOURTH ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

Giddy Gertrie Chamberlain Tries It Again in Chicago—Prevented From Finding a Watery Grave in the Lake.

The Montreal Riots.

MONTEAL, Sept. 30.—Only two small disturbances occurred last night, one at the new nursery, the other near the Grand Canal. The police had received information that the mob would assemble at the latter place and a force was on hand.

The Troupian Revolt.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—The indications today point to active war preparations by the Porte, eight battalions of first-class reserves being mobilized in and near the city.

Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The president today appointed Dudley O. Watson to be collector of customs for the district of Grand Haven, Michigan.

Dr. Gregory's Resignation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Dr. Gregory, of the bureau of animal industry, yesterday notified the president that he was ready to resign as soon as requested.

A Fatal Collision.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 30.—An Indianapolis & St. Louis train and an Indiana, Bloomington & Western freight came in collision at a crossing near Brightwood today.

A Freeman Journalist Joins the Army of Benedict.

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 30.—[Special to the BEE.]—Last night at Fremont, at the Congregational church, occurred the wedding of Mr. Ross L. Emmons and Miss Louise Reynolds daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reynolds.

It Hurt His Feelings.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Henry F. Donovan, superintendent of letter carriers, at a meeting of the young democracy to-night, tendered his resignation as president of the organization.

THE PRESIDENT'S HORSES.

The One Named After Manning is a Lamb.

There are six stories among the horse