The inquest on the body of J. D. Bos-nell, who committed suicide in Madam Leeper's bagnio Friday night, was held Saturday, and was in accordance with the facts as already related. A telegram was received by the coroner from the chief of police of Canton, Ill., asking if the report were true that Bosnell was dead. On being replied in the affirmastituted by supreme chancellor, Samuel Reed, and Bro, E. E. French was installed as grand recording scribe, which position he has held until now. He is the longest consecutive of-ficer within the jurisdiction of the Supreme tive, C. A. Hess, a brother-in-law of the deceased, living at Canton, telegraphed to have the remains buried here and the here within the jurisdiction of the Supremie lodge. For many years he performed a large por-tion of the general management and travel for the fraternity, besides his work of G. K. R. S., without compensation, and mostly at his own expense of money and time, and now does not get pay sufficient to compensate him for the loss of accommodating time. When Damon lodge succumbed for want of support and encouragement, even from its own membership, Bro. French found it nec-essary to get back to his first love, and there-fore rejoined Nebraska lodge, No. 1. He has officially and continuously held clerical positions in preliminary, subordinate and grand bodies, from the commencement of his fraternal existence until the present time. full particulars of the death sent to him by mail. The interment will take place to-day from the undertaking rooms of Drexel & Maul.

Capt. Sullivan, in conversation with a scribe yesterday, entered an emphatic pro-test against the way the city council is neglecting the garbage ordinance. He says that the garbage is accumulating rapidly in the streets and alleys, and that complaints thereof come pouring in every day. Of course the police are un-able to do anything about the matter, while Peterson, the former scavenger, is not to be blamed, because his facilities are too limited to handle the accumulation of refuse matter. Capt. Sullivan expressed it as his opinion that there should be at least six or seven carts kept at the work of removing garbage all the time.

Nebraska Appointments.

New York World: Mr. J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska, was at the St. James hotel yesterday, Mr. Morton has been the democratic candidate for governor of Nebraska on several occasions Under his leadership the democratic vote

Under his leadership the democratic vote in the state has increased until it now promises to overthrow the republicans. "I have been up in New England," he said, "and shall go west in a day or two. The people of Nebraska, I should say, have kindly feelings toward the adminis-tration. I believe in civil service reform to the extent of appointing good men to office. I believe when a republican is displaced it is the duty of the appointing power to put just as good if not a better man in his place. I should not object to the president's delay in making appoint-ments if he took the time to investigate the character of the candidates. It would the character of the candidates. It would do the good men no harm, and would prevent many bad appointments. But to judge from some of the president's ap-pointments he has not taken particular pains to inform himself about the parties beforehand. Still, I believe that the president's intentions are all right, and that he is trying to do his best. "The president's appointments in Ne-braska have been very good. The ap-pointment of Mr. Gardner to be surveyor-general of the state was especially gratifying to democrats, and will put a stop to the gigantic hand frands that have been carried on in the state for years. The ring wished another man appointed, some one who was called a democrat, but some one who was called a democrat, but who would continue the old swindling practices. For years the surveyor-gen-eral of Nebraska has been a myth. A ring in California has controlled the office, and regulated things to suit them-selves. When Gardner was appointed, George Miller, the editor of the Omaha Herald, denounced it. He was mad, I suppose, because the ring man was not appointed. There have been the grossest kinds of frauds in the government sur-veys in Nebraska. Commissioner Sparks has started an investigation. There is a rich field for it."
