

MAWREY HAPPENINGS.

Hog cholera is raging in Union county. One day last week a Springfield, Ill. county, firm made a shipment of 51,700 pounds of butter.

The jobbers of Davenport are making a vigorous war on the railroads for discriminating against the town.

Gabe Davis fatally shot John Shaffer at Excelsior, Mahara county. Shaffer's wife was the woman in the case.

The noted ex-Governor Packard, of Louisiana, has located in Cedar Rapids, and will stir up politics in that proximity.

The Marshalltown evening works have closed down for the season, with a record of 651,000 pounds of corn and peas canned.

William Jeffrey and Henry Gable, of Ainsworth, Washington county, have harvested a crop of 120 rattlesnakes this season.

Christian Lamb, a practical opponent of prohibition, killed a hog in the railroad yards in Burlington and ruptured his copper-lined digestive apparatus.

A collision of trains occurred on the Milwaukee road near Bloomfield during a fog Friday. The crews jumped and saved themselves. Considerable killing and old iron now mark the spot.

The coal diggers in the mines at Angus held a mass meeting last Saturday, the object of which was to ask an advance for mining coal. It is understood that the companies will pay the price demanded.

Henry H. Gray, a prominent attorney of Waverly, committed suicide Wednesday night by shooting. He was short about $5,000 in money due his clients. It is reported that his life was insured for $18,000.

G. W. James, of Maple Valley, Buena Vista county, gives this as a certain preventive and cure for hog cholera: Ten grains each of calomel and copperas as a preventive, given occasionally as a preventive and daily as a cure.

Another C. B. & Q. brakeman met a sad fate last week at near Hastings, Iowa. He is said to have lost his balance and fell between two freight cars. The wheels passed over one arm and one leg, and the unfortunate man died a short time afterward.

Mrs. E. Embleman, of Charlestown, Lee county, was found dead in the woods near her farm Monday. Her neck was broken, and there were other marks of violence. It is believed that she was killed by a vicious bull at large in the woods.

Matrimony has just struck Pacific Junction a resounding blow, no less a personage than the mayor being laid out for a while. The victim, Mayor George E. Cole returned last week from Kansas with a bride, a former Mrs. Cook of that state. Affairs of state at Pacific Junction must take care of themselves for a while.

Articles of incorporation of the World's Industrial Accident association were filed at Dubuque last week. The articles were subscribed to at Webster City, Iowa, but the principal place of business will be in Dubuque. The benefits will be paid by assessments. The incorporators are C. H. Parks, C. H. Elbert, H. D. Lagrange, J. V. Kearns and J. H. Rundo.

The huge elevator belonging to Poorman & Co., at Atlantic, was burned Tuesday. It is the elevator which holds 500 bushels of oats, 1,000 bushels of corn and 500 bushels of wheat. Total loss, $20,000. This is the fourth elevator burned for Poorman & Co., during the past eight years. It is believed that the fire was caused by a telegraph operator at Loveland, Pottawattamie county, has discovered that he can receive messages faster and make a more legible copy with the type writer than with a pen, and has decided to use the type writer in all his correspondence. He says that the type which was used in the past was so slow and illegible that he was often obliged to re-write what he had written. He says that the type writer is so fast and legible that he is now able to receive messages in less than half the time that it would take to receive them by hand.

James Fenton, living near Clara, Webster county, met with a sad fate last Monday morning. He took a dose from a bottle with a kidney label on it, supposing that was what the bottle contained. Instead it was carbolic acid which his wife had purchased a few days before. He died in a few hours after removing the label. Mr. Fenton expired in the greatest of agony a few hours after taking the fatal dose.

A monster serpent has been reported as tearing around in Appanoose county during the past few days. It is said to be twenty years old. A Kirkwood man tells that he saw the monster a few days ago. He describes it as being about forty feet long and as thick as a young tree. It makes a thrum in the dust as it crawls. Its two hands, raised its head up four or five feet as it crawls, with a tongue protruding a yard in length, and emits a sound like the roaring of a train of cars.

When Baby was sick, we cared her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a woman, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THE STORY OF A CRANK. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—The police place no reliance in the story of murder told in Chicago yesterday by Wilson. The chief of detectives states that no such murder has been committed here, as has been reported. The story is a mere invention of a man named Dale. The chief is convinced that the confession is valueless, and believes that either the insane or wishes free transportation here.
