

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9, 1885. OFFICE: No. 12 Pearl Street.

Published by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week. H. W. TILSON, Manager.

MINOR MENTION. Water rents are now due. Refuse, the tailor, for fall goods.

The news reaches here of the death of Lyander W. Habbit, at his present home in Bebe, Arkansas.

John Epeneter has been given the contract for putting the slate roof on the new St. Paul's church.

In the federal court the case of Mrs. Elliott vs. the Chicago & Northwestern railway, for the loss of a trunk, is still on trial.

Yesterday Justice Schurz filed the matrimonial knot uniting J. F. Larson and Miss Johanna M. Jensen, both of this city.

Mrs. Chandler, mother of Dr. Thomas J. Chandler, of this city, died at her home in Wilmington, Delaware, last Tuesday, aged 86 years.

Hon. J. C. Burroughs, of Michigan, is to speak in Masonic hall on the evening of the 23d, under the auspices of the republican committee.

H. F. Field has retired from the firm of Shepard, Field & Cook, leaving the two other members of the firm to continue the business as before.

Permit to wed was yesterday given to William Schade, of Minden, and Anna Dreier, of Shelby; also to R. B. Gillespie and Sophia Cross, both of Oakland.

John Templeton has received from Hastings a large number of peculiar kinds of apples, two being grown in one, and also one specimen of where three have grown together.

There have about twenty-seven of the saloons paid license for October, and that is not half the number which are running. This is a larger number than for years past, and yet he does not propose to let his energies flag, but is going after the delinquents now with a sharp stick.

The Montezuma band, which has recently returned to this city, furnished the music for the party given Wednesday night by the Knights and Ladies of the K. of C. This present speak in the highest terms of it.

There are in Stockert's windows two of the finest little paintings which it has been the privilege of the public to gaze on for some time. They are gems, and are the property of Gen. Dodge, who secured them in Florence.

The alarm of fire about 9 o'clock yesterday morning was caused by the burning of the tar cart, used in paving Willow avenue. The blaze sent up such a volume of smoke that everybody thought there must be a great fire, and a grand rush was made for the spot.

Mr. Beckman, the poll tax collector, reports that he has succeeded in getting about a thousand citizens to either pay their tax, or have it worked out on the streets. This is a larger number than for years past, and yet he does not propose to let his energies flag, but is going after the delinquents now with a sharp stick.

Mrs. O. A. Rogers, the milliner, will return from the east in a few days with an assortment of Paris pattern bonnets and all the latest millinery novelties. The fall opening at her millinery establishment will take place next Thursday and Friday at No. 311 Broadway.

Miss Mary Damon won the first prize at the hat carnival for the most novel lady's hat, it being an empty wasp nest. The gentleman's prize was won by Henry Atkins, who wore a large sponge as a hat, and the most novel entertainment given here.

The exhibition at the rink continues to draw crowds and ought to. The ladies have pleasing entertainments, the merchants of the city make very creditable displays, and there is much to amuse and interest. The object of the exhibition is also a most worthy one, and the ladies merit a hearty and generous encouragement.

Mr. William Maloney was yesterday speeding his new steed on the boulevards, and showing the stepper to his friend Mike Nolan, and it is reported that Nolan has taken such a fancy to the flyer that he has offered to give an advance over what Maloney paid for it, but not quite enough of a one to secure the steed.

Mr. John Tracy, day operator of the Watch, was on Wednesday invited to dine with Miss Maggie Delaney, Rev. Father McMenomy officiating. There was a merry party of friends to join in the festivities, and the happy pair started for a visit to Mr. Tracy's old home in Dixon, Ill., accompanied by the best wishes of scores of friends who will gladly welcome their return to a residence here.

J. H. Kintz and J. W. Kleeb are preparing to start on a retail grocery store on Monday, they having secured the building No. 162 Broadway, recently occupied by Parks & Platter, and located nearly opposite the Ogden house. These young gentlemen are thoroughly experienced in business, and both are excellent salesmen, and have friends everywhere and plenty of them. Their success is not only wished for, but insured.

Joe Bellin, a very peculiar old gentleman, who has been traveling about the city for some time trying to get listeners to some poetry which he claims was written by him while inspired, has been complained of as being in the city and a commission will examine into the case this morning. Not long ago he appeared before the council with a valise full of his writings and his warnings as to the terrible things which were to happen in the future, and wanted the aldermen to be only to listen to a three hours' reading, but to make an appropriation to have the documents published.

The mayor was unjustly indicted last because the Big wide public the fact that he had induced the council to allow him $105 for sundry expenses, not definitely known, but which was incurred in running his snail mill on Bryant street. The mayor was at the council meeting until that body was about ready to adjourn, it being about midnight, the reporters and citizens having all got tired out and left, he presented his little bill in the silence and secrecy of the dead hour of night, when honest taxpayers were mostly asleep. The mayor was therefore astonished to pick up the Big in the morning and see a full account of the bill. He reported about the city building to find out who had let it leak out, and got little satisfaction. When the mayor has another honest, straightforward bill to present to the council, he should file it according to the rules, and let it come up just as it is insisted the bills of worthy workmen shall come up—the workmen whose interests he is always talking about so much, but doing so little for.

Prize for Farmers. A premium for the best ear of corn from this year's crop. For particulars call on or address J. V. Fuller, buyer and shipper of wheat, corn and oats, No. 39 Pearl street, Council Bluffs.

Substantial abstracts of title and real estate loans, J. W. & E. L. Squire, 102 Pearl street.

BANKING ON BOGUS BOODLE.

A Blustering Blood Cuts High Caspers and Swindles Omaha Merchants.

A Terrible Accident and Fire at Atlantic-Republican Candidates-Other News Matters.

Checks and Check. It has been currently reported, with apparent truth at the bottom of the reports, that one of the prominent citizens, who does as much strutting and as little paying as any man in the city, has been attempting lately to get his checks cashed by saloon men and gamblers, and has occasionally succeeded, and although some of those who thus accommodated him have had great trouble to get any cash for the checks, yet they have kept rather quiet for fear that he might have some of the tremendous influence of which he boasts, and might exercise it in fighting their business.

Some of the others, who had more sense and more backbone, have stoutly refused to grant such accommodations, and a roar and threat have followed. It seems that the same writer of checks has been practicing the art across the river among the more susceptible acquaintances in Omaha, and the Globe thus touches the practice.

The Globe has just been placed in possession of some facts which it has traced to a thoroughly reliable source. For the sake of the wife and children of the party concerned, the Globe suppresses his name. It is no pity that the Globe has for the party himself. The facts are these: He is a man who sports good clothes, and prides himself upon his good blood and position. He and a boon companion went to Omaha about four weeks ago. Whether they had any money when they went there is not known, but they ran out of money before they got through. The blooded gentleman drew a check for $50 on one of our Council Bluffs banks, and presented it to a business man over there for the purpose of having it cashed. The gentleman to whom the check was presented refused to invest in that kind of paper. The two gentlemen from Council Bluffs then went to another Omaha business man with the same check, representing that there was money in the Council Bluffs bank to the credit of the drawer of the check to meet it. The Omaha business man relying upon this statement handed out his wallet, paid over the $50 and took the check. He sent it to Council Bluffs in the usual course to have it cashed, but he had the mortification to learn that at the time the check was drawn the drawer of it had no money in that bank, and no reason to think he had any, and when the check was presented he had none. That is the way some men swell up and cut purses. If some poor devil of a tramp would do a thing like that he would be sent to the penitentiary for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Two Republican Candidates in the Field. A republican convention was held at Shenandoah yesterday for the purpose of nominating a senator for the district composed of Page and Fremont counties. The contest was between Senator Clark, of Page county, and Major A. R. Anderson, of Fremont county. Page county had fifteen delegates, and cast a solid vote for Clark, while Fremont county gave its ten votes for Anderson. The nomination of Clark was unsatisfactory to Anderson and his friends, and they withdrew from the convention and held another one, choosing Anderson in nomination. This gives the republican two candidates for the senate in that district, and complicates the contest there.

Jersey Jackets at Harkness Brothers'. Home Jerseys, Winter Jerseys, and Jersey Coats.

A Terrible Accident. Atlantic Democrat: Last Saturday George McDuff, Ed. Needles, George McElwain and Thad Ruff went duck hunting, going to the ponds northeast of town. They had hunted quite a while, and in crawling up to the ponds while cock their guns in order to be ready for the game should any be there. In the act of cocking the hammer of Ed. Needles' gun slipped from his finger and the gun was discharged, and several inches of the bone shattered. A large piece of it was removed, and the wound neatly dressed. The very nature of the wound renders his recovery very doubtful. He is about 17 years of age, and has been one of the most exemplary boys in the city. The parents have the warm wishes of many friends for his recovery.

Buy your carpets at Harkness Brothers', where you can get the most for your money.

To-Night at the Exposition. Every evening's entertainment at the exposition now in progress at the rink has been pronounced the best, but the programme for to-night promises to excel all others. It is as follows:

PROGRAMME. Band "The Baby is Sick" and "Redemption" Miss Ella Witt.

Tableau "The Fall and Fall of John Bates" Music "The Fall and Fall of John Bates" Miss Nellie Lockett.

Music "Arbaces" from "Last Days of Pompeii" Mr. Frank Chamberlain.

Music "The Sun" from "Lucifer" Miss M. Deavenport.

Music "Miss" from "The Skitchee" Miss Cora Woodbury.

Cash prices this week in cloaks at Harkness Brothers'.

If you wish to make legitimately from Ten to Fifty dollars per day write to Judd & Smith, No. 34 Fourth street, Council Bluffs.

An Elevator Burned. Atlantic Democrat: The four-man elevator was again destroyed by fire Thursday last, this being the fourth building that has burned on the very same grounds, and the sixth fire that has occurred there. The water works had been shut off for repairs, and the property was thus practically left to the mercy of the devouring element. The fire boys did heroic service with the steamed means at their command, and saved considerable property. Much apprehension was felt for the safety of the buildings on Chestnut street in the direction of the Banca, but fortunately any spread of the fire was kept back. The loss is almost a total one. There were about 600 bushels of oats, 100 bushels of corn and 500 bushels of wheat in the elevator. The loss is estimated at about $10,000, with about $7,500 insurance.

Mr. Boorman, with his usual pluck, will rebuild at once.

Sewing machine needles at Harkness Brothers' 5 cents a paper, 10,000 needles to close out.

A Colored Burglar. At an early hour yesterday morning burglars visited the Eastern hotel, 330 Broadway, and thoroughly ransacked the rooms where the girls were sleeping, and helped themselves to sundry trinkets, jewelry and other little articles, and then made an attempt to go through the room of Mr. Tate, the proprietor, but his wife was awakened just as the man was opening the door, the light of the lantern which he held in his hand attracting her attention, and giving light enough to show her that it was a negro. She aroused her husband and the fellow fled in such haste that he made good his escape.

Buy your goods at Harkness Brothers' and save money.

A New Departure. On and after October 13 we shall put prices at lowest cash value and sell for cash and abandon the credit system.

We have purchased our large and well selected stock of goods for the fall trade with this purpose in view, and our prices will evidence a saving to the purchaser.

This will be to the interest of both our customers and ourselves. It saves expense to us and annoyance to customers. Goods can be sold for less, and it enables the purchasers to receive the best and largest quantity of goods for the least amount of money.

HARKNESS BROTHERS. Lamps cheap at Homer's, 23 Main street.

Personal. Hon. D. O. Finch left for Des Moines last night.

J. C. McMullen, the Q. yardmaster at Pacific Junction, was looking at the Bluffs yesterday.

G. W. Malloy and lady, and A. A. Derle and wife, of Neola, were among the townsmen at the Ogden yesterday.

E. J. Eckel, of Eckel & Mann, the St. Joseph architects of the new court house here, was in the city yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Proper, of Des Moines, the state missionary of the Baptist churches, was in the city yesterday for a few hours.

B. Newman, of Omaha, took a short run over here yesterday on business, and time gave his many friends here a chance to greet him.

J. J. Frainey returned from Chicago last night. He denies that he went off on a political mission, and says he is now out of politics.

Joseph W. Fulton, of Fairfield, Iowa, was in the city yesterday selling grading and ditching machines of the Mt. Pleasant manufactory.

R. M. Wilbur, who looks after the interests of the New Home sewing machine company, arrived home yesterday, having been working up the business in Missouri Valley, of late.

Mrs. F. Howard, sister of Mrs. J. C. Bixby, and her daughter Miss Ada Howard, after having an enjoyable visit with their friends here, left yesterday for their home in Red Cloud, Nebraska.

Oliver Haigh, who is one of the active representatives of Perogy & Moore, has been kept at home for two weeks with malarial fever. He hopes to be able to take his grip and renew his trips next week.

It is useless for the busy bee to improve the shining hour by stinging when St. Jacobs Oil is around. One application will remove all pain and swelling.
