Col. Frederick, Lieut. Dudley, Col. Squires, Gen. Brock and Dr. Ludington were appointed a committee to arrange a program for the inauguration and reception, December 17, fixed as the date for the ceremony.

Other business men expressed similar opinions, every one agreeing that the road must be constructed, and that at once. The plan as outlined by Mr. McShane before the board of trade committee on Tuesday appears to meet with general favor.

The sportsmen's return. The members of the Omaha Gun club have returned from their annual hunt, loaded, of course, with game. The load, however, is not as heavy as might be expected...

The Danish vote. The statement given in Monday's Daily Bee of the meeting of the Danes here in Omaha on Saturday last is liable to give your readers a misconception of our present political standing.

The largest game captured was an eagle, which yielded up its life to the unerring marksmanship of Sam Nash. For the rest, it is said, featuring the following: 10 Canada geese, 40 quoose, 120. Wilson's snipe (jack snipe), 80; golden plover, 1; pinheaded grouse, 1; quail, 12; mallard duck, 15; canvas back duck, 1; duck, 50; hawk, 3; blue birds, 5; head, 4.

and from your article it is to be inferred that Sweden, Denmark and Scandinavia are all considered identical. Whichever the Scandinavian vote has made itself felt the Swedes have got the credit, either from ignorance or from a desire to please what has been their strongest vote. To this object, and have decided sooner or later to bring ourselves forward as a nation; to accomplish this we have taken our present position.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock and Gen. Wilson was chosen temporary chairman and Capt. Brock, secretary. Roll call showed twenty-seven comrades present.
