

THE DAILY BEE

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 29.
OFFICE: No. 12 Pearl Street.

Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at 10 cents per copy.
H. W. TAYLOR, Manager.

MINOR MENTION.

Reiter, the tailor, for fall goods.

Work is progressing well on the new Episcopal church.

John Shoup was arrested again yesterday, on the charge of getting drunk and abusing his family.

Permit to marry was yesterday given to George W. Allan and Margaret Gallagher, both of Omaha.

The policeman's hall netted for the boys over $300. This gives each one interested about $20 each.

Horr and Henderson at the opera house Saturday night. A rich treat of political oratory. All should attend.

The examination of W. F. Drew, the railway man charged with robbing one Brown of a watch, has been continued until next Saturday.

A Northwestern brakeman named Anderson, who lives on Avenue D, now suffers from two broken ribs, a car door having fallen against him.

John Hansen was pulled in yesterday for being drunk and for breaking a glass in the window of Laurion's saloon. He squared the account with the city and for the glass, and breathed free again.

Lucius Wells and family, who have been living on Bancroft street, will next week move into the large and elegant residence of Col. Scott, on Oakland avenue, the latter preparing to take up his residence in Omaha.

The storm Tuesday night interfered somewhat with the revival meeting at the Methodist church, but next night there was the usual crowd, and the meetings will be kept up through this and next week, every evening.

There are only sixteen prisoners in the county jail, a smaller number at this time of the year than for years past. Whether the decrease is because of the new jail, or because the world is growing better, or the officers of the law worse, is a question.

The cases brought against Mr. and Mrs. William Liberton for assaulting the children of Mrs. Melvina Watson, were taken from Justice Hendrick to Justice Schurz on a change of venue, and were yesterday dismissed, the prosecution deciding to let the family trouble rest a while.

The young folks of the Congregational church have reorganized their literary and social club, known as the "Merry Thinkers." S. A. Hazleton being president, Miss Carrie Spooner, secretary and treasurer. On Saturday evening next they are to meet for a Halloween frolic, and will meet every two weeks for regular sessions.

The city council meets in regular session next Monday night. Those who have bills should not forget the rule that all claims must be filed with the auditor one full business day before the meeting of the council, the mayor being the only exception to this rule, he being allowed to file his bill at midnight, and get them allowed at once.

The saloon men who were behind in paying the October license, have been a little stirred up by the order of the council for the marshal to arrest all those who had not paid within three days. A few have since come in, and to-day is the last day of grace for the others. The marshal says he has made no arrests thus far because the time of the superior court is so taken up with a civil case that the judge cannot hear the cases if the arrests are made.

O. W. Butts has now fairly established himself at No. 342 Broadway and is demonstrating the fact that Council Bluffs is an excellent distributing point for California fruit. He is handling the choicest and best fruits, he having been long associated with thoroughly experienced in this special line, and he has added a general commission business to his enterprise.

The statement made by one of the evening papers that the new postmaster, John Bowman, did not have to give as large bonds as did the old postmaster, seems to be an error. Armour gave $50,000 bonds as postmaster and $15,000 as disbursing agent. Bowman has given a $15,000 bond as postmaster and $50,000 as disbursing agent, his bondsmen qualifying in the sum of $200,000.

The first arrest in which the new captain of police claims to have taken part was an unknown man who was so drunk that he could not give his name, and who was taken in by the combined efforts of the valiant captain and Officer Austin. It is to be regretted that the man's name could not be learned, as when he gets sober enough to realize what an opportunity he has missed of having his name immortalized, he will sit in sackcloth and ashes.

When business is a little slack about the city scales the topic of discussion now is the statement made by an old experienced weighmaster, that if only the front wheels of a wagon rest on the scales, and the weight taken, and then only the hind wheels rest on the scales, and the weight taken, these two weights added together will make just the weight of the wagon itself. Many insist that this cannot be, and state reasons for the faith that is in them, but experiment after experiment has been made to show that it is so, and yet the arguments and "whys" and "hows" continue.

The job rooms of the Bee in this city will soon be supplied with power in the form of a large water motor, the workmen now putting it in place and making the necessary connections and change.

The business has grown so rapidly and to such an extent that power has become a necessity. Other changes are constantly being made for the better, and new styles of type and novelties in stock are continually being added. It is the intention at all times to be fully up with the demands of those who want the very best work and those who want the latest styles and novelties.

Wanted—Good cook at Revere house. Woman preferred. Best references required.

Substantial abstracts of title and real estate loans. J. W. & E. L. Squire, 101 Pearl street.

Lamps cheap at Homer's, 23 Main St.

Cottage ranges, kerosene stoves, radiant heaters and hot heaters of the very latest patterns at had rock prices, at Cooper & McGee's, No. 41 Main street.

For everything to the grocery line give the new firm of Kintz & Klee, 162 Broadway, a trial. Everything new and fresh. Fancy groceries a specialty.

Reared and smelt your grocer for the bread making at Smith & Lee's bakery, No. 323 Main street. It is the very best made. Try it and be convinced.

Wanted—Wheat, corn and oats in carload. Liberal advances made on all consignments, by J. Y. Fuller, Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Omaha, Neb.

If you wish to make legitimately from ten to fifty dollars per day write to J. H. & Smith, No. 34 fourth street, Council Bluffs.

IN AND ABOUT THE BLUFFS.

Two Narrow Escapes from Serious Railway Accidents in the Yards.

POLICEMEN WITH NO BONDS.

The Trouble With the Sewerage System—Notes from a Little City of Churches—Accident at Neola.

Railway Mishaps.

A. H. Winder, while switching in the east end of the Union Pacific yards yesterday, was caught between two bumpers and badly squeezed. The result of his injuries cannot yet be fully determined, but it is not thought that they will prove very serious.

S. A. Anderson, a brakeman on the Northwestern, was badly hurt and in a peculiar way. He had just made a coupling in the Northwestern yards here, and had stepped back, when the car door fell off, striking him in the chest, knocking him down and breaking two of his ribs. He was taken to his home on Avenue D, and it is thought he will be laid up for a month.

Irresponsible Policemen.

The policy of having policemen serve without giving any bonds is one which should be corrected, and unless the mayor, who is the head of the police force and claims appointing power, proposes to see to it that responsible men are put on, and that they give the necessary bonds, the council should take it in hand. The Bee has called attention to the fact that a special policeman the other night shot a citizen, as is claimed without provocation or cause to warrant such an act, and when inquiry is made it is discovered that the special has filed no bonds. Another instance is cited in the case of Wm. Brix, who seems to be a faithful policeman of the mayor's, and whom he uses as a special policeman at sundry times. It is understood that he has been put on the force until after election, and yesterday he made one arrest, but inquiry at a clerk's office revealed the fact that he has not filed any bonds. To send out men without any official responsibility to strut about and parade authority over better citizens is certainly a queer way to conduct city affairs, and bonds should at least be required, and they should be filed before the officer enters the service, unless some special emergency arises, when specials are needed, and in a hurry.

The Sewer System.

Yesterday Mr. Williams, of Chicago, the engineer who made the plans for the system of sewerage here, arrived in the city for the purpose of consulting with the city officials in regard to the matter. There seems to be some trouble about the storm sewers. The house sewers so far seem to give satisfaction, except the one on Main street, but the chief defect claimed there is that there is not quite enough fall between Broadway and the creek, and at the corner of Broadway and Main street there is an unfortunate obstruction in the form of a large water main, and the sewer pipe was laid under this, so that there is a neck which fills up necessarily. As the sewer pipe has to pass this water main, and the latter cannot be removed, this plan was decided upon to pass under the main. Still by flushing occasionally this part of the house sewer has been rendered so as to be of service.

It is the storm sewer which is troubling the most. It seems to be a question whether this is a fault of the plans or of the construction. Some of the sewers have filled up with dirt, which has washed down in such quantities from the bluffs. Mr. Williams, on examining the matter, seems of the opinion that with the peculiar soil here it is advisable to put in catch basins of large size, so that they will catch the dirt, and these can be cleaned out from time to time. It is probable that this will be done, and it is predicted that with this change the storm sewers will be found in other respects to be all that is to be desired.

The council has objected to settling with Mr. Williams until the plans proved to be more satisfactory, and this is also one of the occasions of the visit. There is a balance due him he claims, and this he wants, as he says he has filled his part of the contract.

Notes from Neola.

NEOLA, Oct. 27.—The Catholics concluded their series of missionary lectures here last evening. They have been holding meetings here for the past week which have been attended very largely. The missionaries are to leave to-day.

A brother-in-law of Thomas Skinner, chief of police of Council Bluffs, living about seven miles west of here, met with a serious accident yesterday about 2 o'clock, which resulted in the breaking of his leg. Dr. S. N. Harvey was called to care for him. The man was in the field husking corn and when he went to start his team one of them lagged somewhat, and in his undertaking to hurry the horse he was caught by the double trees and thrown under the wagon wheel, it passing over and breaking his leg.

The Mutual Protectionists had a party at the residence of E. P. Brown last Saturday evening, at which all had a very pleasant and agreeable time.

Mrs. Borsley and Mrs. E. Handbury have recently returned from Wakefield, Neb., where they have been visiting relatives.

A public convention for the purpose of selecting candidates for township offices was held here last Saturday at which the following were nominated: For justices of the peace, R. Clark and E. P. Brown; for constable, L. D. Whitney; trustees, O. J. Smith; for board of supervisors, John Buchanan.

The democratic township convention was held here to-day, and the following parties were selected: For justices of the peace, William Schierbrock and S. R. Hamitt; constable, Patrick Foley; for trustees, H. S. Watkins, road supervisor, Ira Jones.

A City of Churches.

SHENANDOAH, Iowa, Oct. 27.—This town of 2,500 inhabitants might be called a city of churches. There are seven of them, and they are fine buildings when compared with the size of the town. The Western normal college is also quite an institution, and the Bee man is informed has a larger scholarship than any year previous. Shenandoah also supports a large public school. Improvements here are quite numerous, and a reaction has set in since the small pox scare of last winter. A number of commercial men, "bummers," as the strangers are pleased to call them, take in this place, and usually stop all night, as the Bladgett house is one of the best in this section.

The latest addition to the newspaper list is the Reporter. It will be remembered that the Shenandoah Reporter "went out" last December, and has been out until October 22, when it again made its appearance, with G. W. Gunnison as editor and proprietor. Mr. Gunnison is a postal clerk between Council Bluffs and Brunswick, Mo., and has sent in his resignation before he becomes an "offensive partisan." He quits the paper on December 1.

Last Saturday night City Marshal Worrell had a difficulty with Billy Staples, a barber, who wished Worrell to arrest a man who was drunk and disorderly. Worrell claimed Staples had given him the man, whisky, and to emphasize his claim struck Staples on the left arm with a club, breaking the arm in two places.

For hardware and house furnishings, get prices of Cooper & McGee, No. 41 Main street.
