Eleven more men were made citizens by the superior court yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. W. H. Smith will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A cheap bridge has been ordered built across the sewer ditch at Sixteenth avenue.

James Harvey has been arrested for assault and battery, the trouble having occurred at Gerstenberg's saloon.

Officer Cusick is now serving as city policeman at the transfer, and is on the lookout for confidence men with an eagle eye.

The revival services continue at Broadway Methodist church, and will be kept up during the coming week, and perhaps longer.

F. Murphy is booked at the police station for disturbing the peace. He was one of those brought in from Gerstenberg's saloon.

Eggleston and Stringham, who have been the chief cooks at the Pacific and Ogden houses, have opened a first-class lunch counter at No. 308 Broadway.

A fellow giving his name as James Brown was taken in yesterday afternoon by Officer Towns, who found him sleeping off a drunk in a stairway in one of the business blocks.

In the superior court yesterday the long drawn out case of the Western Cottage Organ company against J. Mueller, was drawing to a close, the arguments being entered upon in the afternoon.

Services in the Congregational church to-morrow morning and evening. Sacrament in the morning. Subject of address: "Establishing a Memorial." Evening: "Seeking and Being Saved."

The city marshal has been ordered to have all obstructions removed from the lower part of the new sewer ditch, there having been some "hay" bridges and other obstacles to the flow of water put in by citizens who have tired waiting for the completion of the ditch and the building of bridges by the city.

The masquerade given by Abe Lincoln post G. A. R. last evening proved quite a success, the purpose of the same being not only to have an enjoyable social session, but to swell the fund for the relief of the widows and children of veterans.

Many here who remember M. C. Felker, known as "Doc" Felker, will be interested in learning that he is a candidate for county commissioner at Kimball, Dakota.

Hank Marr has been appointed as special policeman at the river to serve without pay. The city thus far has not been very fortunate in the choice of special policemen but Marr may do some good service at that point.

The club of students, known as the "Diligent Dozen," met on Thursday night at the home of Miss Day, Davenport, on First avenue, and passed a very enjoyable and profitable evening.

To-night there is to be a rich treat at Masonic hall for the Congregational floor, of Michigan, is to speak. He is known to be one of the wittiest, keenest speakers in the country, and those who heard him two years ago will eagerly listen to him again.

It seems to be the fashion of office holders to be real holders on till the last possible minute. E. S. Barnett, who has been elected street supervisor, seems to be having almost as hard a time getting full possession of his office as did the chief of the fire department and the city clerk.

Another case of bold horse stealing is reported as having taken place Thursday evening right on Broadway. Mr. Fauerhousen hitched his horse and buggy in front of the St. Louis house, and while he was inside for a few minutes some one boldly jumped into the buggy and drove away with the rig, and no trace of it had been found up to yesterday evening.

SOMETHING ABOUT SEWERS.

An Important Suggestion About Basements On the Bottoms.

WORK ON THE NEW DITCH.

A Bold Case of Horse Stealing—A Saloon License Revoked—Heartless Description and Sad Death—Personal Paragraphs.

No Sewerage to a Basement.

The city council succeeded in getting a quorum for a special session called for the purpose of consulting with Mr. B. Williams, of Chicago, the engineer of the sewer system.

One important matter to which the attention of the council was called was the fact that in the plans as drawn by Mr. Williams there appears a contour line showing the elevation at which it is safe and expedient to make connections with the house sewers.

The muscles of the mouth and throat had become impaired so that he swallowed with the greatest difficulty, and he had to talk. His sufferings were beyond expression and to see him in this agony was sufficient to touch the stoutest heart with pity.

On this suggestion being presented in detail, the council passed a resolution instructing the city attorney to prepare the necessary ordinance, describing this contour line, and prohibiting the connection of any basements in that part of the city with the house sewers unless the connection was made with tight pipes at such a height as to prevent any leakage from back water.

Mr. Williams was allowed $112 for time and expenses in attending the conference, and was allowed the balance due him on plans.

The Sewer Ditch. It now appears the long delayed work on the sewer ditch is to be removed and completed at once.

Mr. Vincent has got into a tangle about the matter. The city concedes that it has not used the contractor fairly, but it could not help itself very well.

voiced once and remarked, and from whom he lately tried again to get a divorce, has been serving as bartender at times, and her presence has not made the place any more peaceful.

Deserted While Dying. Carroll has been all stirred up over the death of an old man there, who, while in a dying and unconscious condition, was deserted by his son and by his relatives.

One of the saddest and most shocking details have ever been called upon to record occurred in Carroll about noon of Monday last, Saturday the county officers were notified that Richard Metzger, whose home was about six miles north of Carroll, was insane, and he was brought to town, the idea being that he should go to the insane asylum.
