

THE DAILY BEE COUNCIL BLUFFS. SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 21. OFFICE: No. 12 Pearl Street.

Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week. H. W. TILTON, Manager.

MISOR MENTION. Refer to the fallow for full story. The Mikado seemed to disappoint nearly everybody.

The city boom of late months is after noon at a standstill. The street parade by Harvey's minstrels yesterday was an excellent one.

The paving boards were being signed yesterday for settlement with Mr. Tolson for work done this fall.

If the alley known as "The Victorian" alley cannot be paved this fall, it seems that it might be cleaned.

The turn table of the street car line has been removed from in front of the Ogden house, there being no further use for it.

The case against Henry Johnson, charged with lewdness, has been continued by Justice Fraley until next Tuesday.

Work on the new government building does not seem to be on the wane yet. The people are getting impatient to see the walls go up.

Dr. Hilton will be at Beulah's hotel for a short time, and will be pleased to see all friends and acquaintances, and many new ones as they come to call.

Out of forty arrests in the recent raid by the police, there have been six convicts. A pretty good showing. The police seem to get the wrong ones. Out of the whole lot only the city has received less than $25 in cash.

Services in the Congregational church to-morrow morning and evening. Morning subject: "Is Inequality Taught in the Old Testament." Evening: "What to Persuade in." All by J. J.

The case of J. W. Danon against the city, which was sent to Mills county, has been sent back to the district court here. In this case the plaintiff claims $2,000 damages on account of a change of grade near his property.

Last Sunday Rev. W. P. Smith, presiding elder of Council Bluffs district, M. E. church, dedicated a church at Portsmouth, in his district. The subscription to be raised was $100. Raised, $115. Membership, five. Marvellous success.

A number of those arrested as convicts during the recent raid by the police, were to have a hearing yesterday morning, but as most of the city's witnesses were absent, being on a night out, the cases were again continued till Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Thomas Adams, living north of Wall, lost a valuable horse this week. While standing in the stable, the horse became frightened and broke away, running into a hay stack and against a newly sharpened hay knife, cutting himself so badly that he had to be killed.

The committee are canvassing the city for supplies for the poor and to be distributed in connection with the Harvest Home entertainment on Thanksgiving day. They are meeting with good success, the people generously responding to the appeal for so worthy a purpose.

Some of the musical people of the city are talking of organizing for the presentation of the "Mikado" for the benefit of various charitable and religious enterprises of the city. The plan is talked of for the musically inclined to prepare themselves to give several entertainments, and to devote the proceeds as indicated.

A number of farmers appeared in the superior court yesterday morning, ready to testify against Tolson and Ball, who were arrested for bringing the cattle into this county. The trouble with the fever occurred last September, but the case has been dragging along in court for two months. Yesterday it was continued again, the time for the witnesses are about tired of dragging attendance.

The old man, John Cowling, who has been at police headquarters for a day or more, has been taken to Valley, Neb., by his sister and daughter. He had arrived here Thursday evening. They say the old gentleman has been rather queer for some time. He fancied that he has trouble with his family and that strangers are plotting against him. He is a harmless old man, and his relatives say he has not had any such trouble with his family as he told about during his stay here.

When the Gerstenbergs were before Judge Aylesworth yesterday, the judge found the woman guilty in fact, but remarked that from the evidence he thought that Gerstenberg, who was not on trial, has also been guilty of an assault. Thereupon an information was filed against the man, charging him with the crime of an assault with intent to do bodily injury. The case being submitted yesterday, on the evidence taken the other day, the judge discharged the man, not thinking the evidence strong enough to warrant so serious a charge.

Mical Sullivan last evening found on the Sullivan farm, two and one-half miles southwest of Wall, an elk horn of huge dimensions. When discovered it was buried, with the exception of a small portion, in the mud near a creek. The horn contains six prongs, is five and one-half feet in length and weighs twelve pounds. The letters, "D. M." are plainly inscribed on the horn, and the inscription is that the animal that sported this extensive antler was killed by a hunter way back in 1839, while elk and deer roamed over these vast prairies in almost countless numbers. The horn will be kept as a relic by Mr. Sullivan.

In Justice Hendrick's court yesterday the Partridge family and their troubles were again brought before the public. This time a young man, named John Whitehead, was charged with having assaulted one of the girls, Sarah Partridge. The young man, who is the next door neighbor, was foolish enough to step in between the girl and his landlady when they were quarreling. He was discharged. The Partridges then began preparations for having the young man re-arrested on a charge of assaulting Mrs. Partridge with a chair.

Harvey's minstrels, after appearing before crowded houses in Omaha for two nights, were at the opera house last evening. The company were here not long ago, but there was last night such a change in the programme as to make the entertainment a new one, and even better than before. While it is the largest company on the road, its merits do not depend on numbers merely. There is great variety to the entertainment, and from beginning to the close there is not a weak chapter. Many of the company are artists, and as fire-makers a merrier set never convulsed an audience. It was a rich entertainment of mind and music. The Craig family form one of the great features of the ground and lofty tumbling being marvellous.

CURED OF HIS SMARTNESS.

Two Ladies Propose to Stop the Train and Put Him Off.

A WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN INSANE. A Dog Eishes a Man from the Creek Planning for Vinegar Works.

Gathered by the Bee on the Wing.

Two Smart Young Men.

An interesting occurrence happened on a Waterloo train last night. Thursday. A smart young man, who occasionally stays from home, was on the train. He made himself very conspicuous by his familiar attempts to turn over some of the seats, which was laughed at. As the train did not move at its will, he lost his temper, looked at it as if he would force it whether or no, and began swearing like a trooper. The conductor passing through the car, told him the seat was locked. He swore that he would not be locked, he would smash it, but what he would turn it over. The conductor was in a great hurry, there being but a short run between the station, but he took time enough to inform the smart young man, that he would attend to unlocking the seat so soon as he could get time, but warned him that if he tried any smashing or smashing, he would stand a chance of getting smashed himself. The smart young man became still angrier, and despite the warning, so soon as the conductor had passed into the next car, he began his swearing again. There were several ladies in the car, and the language he used in expressing his opinion of the road, the conductor, the seats, and all was entirely very disrespectful to them. Among the ladies were two from this city, and a young lady from an elderly, rather muscular lady, well known in Council Bluffs. These ladies finally got up from their seats, went to the young man, and the elderly lady, tapping him on the shoulder, said, "Sir, we have heard all the profanity we propose to hear. If you do not sit down there and behave yourself, I will pull the bell rope and stop the train and we will put you off ourselves." The young man took his seat, while some of the female passengers, clapping their hands, shouted, "That's right, that's right, stand by your seat." The sneaky look of that fellow was a picture of meekness. There was no more trouble with him. He didn't get the seat turned.

A Sad Case of Insanity. Capt. Noyes has so many friends here, that the following details of his illness, as given by the Harrison County Council, will be read with sad interest.

Capt. John Noyes, of Montclair, an old and well known citizen of this county, was brought before the insane commission last Monday, by whom his reasons were adjudged to be delirious, which was very evident to any one who listened to his conversation. He remained at the Lock house that night and was conveyed to Mr. Pleasant's treatment. He did not sleep a wink Monday night and kept continually talking about building railroads, canals and ditches, he kept saying the time that he was just about to engage in vast enterprises of this character. The captain's mania is of a mild form, and we hope by proper treatment he will soon return to his usual healthy position in his reason and powers. But it is a painful scene to witness the breaking down of the giant intellect of such a grand old man as Capt. Noyes, whom everybody loves, and who has been known to be a defender of the west for half a century as a man of superior intellectual and physical strength, with heart to match, whose generosity and kind deeds are only numbered by the opportunities that have been presented for the exercise of those noble qualities, many and many times to his own disadvantage.

Saved by a Dog. A fellow giving his name as Barney McFarthy, struck this city with $25, saved from hard earned wages on a farm. He bought himself a new coat and then proceeded to wet it. He got it so wet on the inside that in wandering about for dark he fell into the creek and wet the outside as well. The fellow was in a most deplorable condition, and would have died had not a dog, belonging to John Dunn, come to his rescue. The dog dragged him out of the water so far as possible, and then set up such howls as attracted the attention of the police, who finished the rescue. In view of his sad adventure, Judge Aylesworth let him off by the payment of $7.00.

Talk of Vinegar Works. Some capitalists from Fremont, N. Y., are in the city looking over the advantages presented with a view of starting a vinegar factory here. It is to be hoped that the enterprise may be secured for the city. Council Bluffs needs numerous new enterprises, and this city has great advantages in many ways, which can hardly be found in any other city in the state.

The Bee on the Wing. LOUIS, Nov. 20.—The district court is now in session here, Judge Leofebrow presiding. Much interest is felt in a case now on trial, it being entitled State of Iowa vs. Stephen Kennedy. The charge is that a neighbor killed one of Kennedy's hogs, and in settling for it gave Kennedy a note for $3. This note, it is claimed, was raised to $50 and placed in the bank. Kennedy is a farmer who has always had a good reputation.

One of the important articles of the dieting car "Blind," on the Chicago & Northwestern road, is an cat belonging to Tom Lee, one of the waiters. The cat has been with the boys over a year, and has learned to jump on to the train, when it is moving, with as much ease and grace as the oldest rail rider. It is a great pet on the train, and is better than a carpet sweeper to keep the floor clean of crumbs. Jours.

The Demand of Labor. COUNCIL BLUFFS, Nov. 20.—(To the Bee.) That organized labor is awakened from its slumbers is manifest from the resolutions passed by the Ninth District assembly last evening. This organization has made the following modest request to Hon. Mr. Pusey and Thomas Bowman, the following being the tenor: "Sir—You are requested to use your influence to obtain a suitable position for our disabled friend, I. Kinsman." Now it is generally thought that no reply from Messrs. Pusey and Bowman will follow, therefore it seems as if the said organization was only looking for the future. In its debates it was freely and openly alluded to that Mr. Pusey is already preparing to run for representative from this district, and in such a case his request will be used against him, as labor under proper leadership will be the most prominent factor in our politics in the future.
