The River Convention. A committee of prominent residents of the states and territories bordering on the Missouri have issued a call for a convention to be held at Kansas City on December 19. The object of the gathering will be to devise ways and means for securing the improvement of the Missouri. The most distinguished citizens of the west are expected to be present, with representatives from every important city in the valley. The call is signed by J. B. Holtzer, president, Logan, Iowa; W. H. Doolittle, secretary, Yankton, Dak.; J. D. Barken, treasurer, Girard, Kans.; T. B. Billings, Kansas City, Mo.; Thomas A. Scott, Wyandotte, Kas.; T. G. Merrill, Helena, Mont.; E. M. Correll, Helena, Neb.; J. H. King, Chamberlain, Dak.; H. M. Kirkpatrick, Kansas City, Mo.; William Glavin, Harper, Kas.; A. T. Sawyer, Lincoln, Neb.; T. C. Power, Helena, Mont.; J. M. Miller, St. Louis, Iowa. A general basis of representation has been agreed upon. Commercial bodies of 5,000 members or less will be given ten delegates; commercial bodies over additional 500 members or less, five delegates. In cities, towns, townships and counties having 5,000 population five delegates are allowed, and for each 5,000 additional or less two delegates.

manding not a blind vengeance but a thorough, fair, impartial, searching investigation in all its details. Nothing else will satisfy this community. And all the "influences" which can be accumulated will not prevent it.

Chicago News. It is most make several small Ohio politicians feel their own littleness to have Judge Thurman say that he is the only enemy that bothers him.

Raw silk has advanced 20 per cent in French markets. A Newark manufacturer thinks a $10,000,000 plant with contracts for 5,000 tons of armor plates would be a justifiable venture to meet government requirements.

When it was learned that the ragged miner had brought in Martin carried not long here, and was soon on his way east. In the late fall of 1871 he entered the little village of his birth. He had brought home with him a small amount of money, but he had no money to buy a suit of clothes. He had no money to buy a suit of clothes.

Secretary Manning has dismissed a government official for disloyalty to a gentleman who called for information of a public nature. This is a startling innovation in official methods which should be extensively copied.
