

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 10. OFFICE: No. 12 Pearl Street. Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week. H. W. TILTON, Manager.

MINOR MENTION.

Reiter, the tailor, for winter goods. Hear the Merkel sisters to-morrow night at the opera house.

The city council is to meet next Monday night to read up the minutes, which are behind.

Mr. Fielding, of St. Paul, is talking of opening a skating rink in the Myster block on Broadway.

P. Schoede, arrested for pawnbroking some instruments belonging to the city engineer, has been discharged.

All the trains were behind time yesterday morning, from one to four hours.

The heavy fall of snow was the cause.

The police have some fun goods which they think have been stolen from some store, and are anxious to find the owner.

L. Lewshaw has changed his cigar factory into a union shop. Every factory in the city of any account is now in the union.

The cigar makers' union, has elected G. Moore president and Fred Lamb secretary. The union is in a prosperous condition.

All members of the Twenty-fourth Iowa infantry are invited to be present at a reunion to be held in Cedar Rapids, December 17.

T. Bray and Mace wisely evidently think there is to be considerable sleighing yet. Each has bought for his lively stable several new outfits.

Mr. H. G. Hill and Miss Lena Seabold were married Tuesday evening, by Rev. Dr. McCreary, at the residence of the bride's parents on South First street.

The superintendents of the various roads centering here held their regular monthly meeting at the transfer yesterday. The time was taken up in routine business.

Mr. Revel France, of Omaha, a favorite bass here, is to assist in the Fuller-Merkel concert, and will sing a solo.

Mr. M. M. Freyner, of this city, will also give a solo. Mr. Freyner, as all know here, is a fine tenor.

Harry Shaw is preparing to have an ice skating rink on Broadway near the dummy depot. The place is being put in readiness for putting on the water, and much sport is expected if the weather continues favorable.

The Merkel sisters, who are to appear in concert here with Miss Fuller, are such favorites among the music lovers that their names alone should cause the house to be filled. A rare feast of music is promised by this concert on the 11th.

The Chinese are not waiting for some one to tell them they must go, but are moving out of the city. The Council Bluffs people have been patronizing the excellent Mohican laundries so much that they see little show for washewash.

The concert to be given by the Mme. Fry company on the 11th is under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Those who attend will not only be richly repaid by the musical treat, but will have the satisfaction of helping financially one of the best organizations in the city.

Fred Peterson got full of liquid inspiration and thought he was Sullivan. He found his match, though, when he ordered a lunch at a counter and refused to pay for it. Besides a sore head it cost him $7.00. He says at this rate board in Council Bluffs is too high.

The district court did not meet yesterday. Judge Loofbourow still being detained in Green county. Adjournment was taken until this morning. The jury in the Angus murder case went out Tuesday morning, but did not come in in time to permit of the judge coming here yesterday.

Melville, a contractor, who has been working on some western railway, and was on his way to Spencer, Iowa, stopped long enough to test the prohibitory law. He succeeded in punching several big holes through the law, and getting his head punched. He left $10 to cover any fine that might be imposed.

The recent storms have caused orders for rubber boots to pour into Lindsey's wholesale store, so that all hands are kept busy day and night filling them. The convenience to western dealers of having such an establishment located here, thus saving the necessity of sending east for goods, and the thing days, when they can now get them in a few hours, has been sufficiently proved.

The firm are meeting with good success in selling tickets for their ball on the 16th. The boys get but one benefit a year, and this being the annual they hope not only to have a good time but to realize a snug little sum. The ball is to be a masquerade, and Mrs. Pfeiffer has arranged for a large number of costumes from which selections can be made.

Miss Fuller, who is to join with the Misses Merkel in a concert at the opera house on the 11th inst., has won the highest praise from the press of the state. Even the Des Moines Register, generally so conservative in this respect, has given her such enthusiastic notices, and at such length, that the other papers thought the Register had got its head turned. Those who have heard Miss Fuller, however, do not blame the press for becoming enthusiastic.

The little mayor does not intend to have the city owe him anything when he goes out of office in the spring. He has shown great zeal in drawing his salary promptly, as well as drawing an even larger amount for extra services, rent, attendance upon office, etc. He has now got the council to allow him to draw his pay for the last quarter of the year. As the quarter does not commence until the 15th, it seems like paying the little mayor a long way in advance. The mayor evidently believes in collecting in advance. It is not in paying in advance.

Teeter, who was found entering Horton's barn at night, has been sent to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury. He says he wanted to get into the barn just to sleep and not to plunder. Parrot, who was also with him, explained to the judge that he also had an innocent motive. He further told about his family and his eleven little children waiting at home for their papa. This touched the stern heart of the judge, and he let Parrot go. The number of children whom Parrot has been producing, and in such a manner in which he meets the responsibility of being the father of so numerous a family, should have led the judge to have locked him up for a time.

Sympathy and Sorrow.

At a meeting of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of this city, the following resolution was presented by a committee consisting of Michael Scanlan, Patrick O'Rourke, Timothy O'Hern, John Fitzgerald, William Fitzgerald, Thomas Gifford and Nicholas O'Brien. The resolution was adopted, and ordered put on the minutes and published:

Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, to call to Himself His heavenly abode, Mrs. Albine Burns, wife of James Burns, residing at No. 1016 Tenth avenue, Council Bluffs, and a respected member of Division No. 1, A. O. H., during a life of devotion to her church and family, therefore be it Resolved, That we, the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Council Bluffs, Iowa, tender to her bereaved husband, our brother member, and his family our sincere sympathy and condolence. In their deep affliction they will feel comforted by the happy thought that she died as she lived, in peace with her maker and all mankind, and that she is now sharing with the heavenly reward which awaits all true christian mothers and wives whose sole aim in life was to love her neighbors and console them in their afflictions and troubles, and that she has done her duty as a true, christian mother and loving wife.

The electric belt of Judd & Smith, 30 Fourth street, Council Bluffs, positively cures rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, piles, paralysis, indigestion, fits, cold feet, nervousness, headache, kidney and liver complaints, loss of vitality, lead poisoning, lack of nerve force and vigor, wasting weakness of those diseases of a personal nature in male and female.

A Glimpse of Death.

James Winslow, who claims to be from Cheyenne, had a narrow escape from being killed by the cars Tuesday night. He was crossing the Chicago & Milwaukee railway track, and, blinded by the storm, did not notice a switch engine until the engine struck him, throwing him off the track. Strangely enough no bones were broken nor serious injuries received. His left leg was badly bruised and he is unable to bear any weight upon it, but in a few days with care, it is thought he will be able to get about. He is now being cared for at the police station, there being no other place for a stranger without friends or money. Winslow has already lost one arm by accident, he says, by a planing mill. Every few days some accident occurs here, which shows how careful a city hospital is. There is no place in the city where a sick or wounded man can be cared for. It is high time that the much-talked-of hospital be started up in earnest.

Expensive Delegation.

The action of the city council in appropriating $150 for the purpose of sending a committee to Des Moines to attend the meeting of mayors, has called out some criticism from citizens. The purpose of the meeting is to consider some way by which the cities represented can handle the saloon question, and secure legislation allowing of license. It may be well to have such a meeting, but it is hardly to be seen how $150 is needed to meet the expenses of sending the mayor and one or two aldermen there. They will doubtless be furnished with passes, and the hotel bill for two for two days will hardly exceed $15. Just what is to be done with the remaining $135 is a conundrum. It will probably be answered when the mayor returns and makes his report.

Benefit for the Home.

AVOCA, Dec. 8.—The Avoca Colored Jubilee Singers gave their first entertainment Friday and Saturday nights. Friday night being very stormy a small house greeted them. Saturday night the weather was more favorable and the many words of praise by those in attendance the previous evening resulted in giving them a good house. The admission fee was 25 and 15 cents. The total receipts both nights was $39.10. Twenty-five per cent of this the singers gave to the home of the friendless of Council Bluffs. We are justly proud of our home jubilee singers that they have manifested their liberality by sending the home of the friendless $14.77. It is well to mention the kindness of Messrs. A. P. Cramer, of the Avoca Herald, and W. J. Trotter, of the Delta, who did all the printing, free of charge, and Mr. and Mrs. Coffman, who assisted in many ways. Mr. Coffman donating his hall in connection with lights and fuel for rehearsals as well as the evenings of the entertainments, while Mrs. C's help was indispensable in the preparations and arranging of costumes so necessary. Mrs. F. How donated the company a very nice and appropriate hat for their productions. The singers will visit our neighboring towns, and in consequence the Home will hear from them again, as they intend donating to that deservng institution 25 per cent of their receipts, over and above their expenses.

In conclusion it would be an injustice to overlook the magnanimous spirit so plainly exhibited by Prof. W. C. Davis of the Delta. He was warmly welcomed and presented with complimentary tickets for himself, wife and teachers, and asked to please hand each scholar a ticket reading thus:

"Come, bring this ticket and 15 cents and you will be admitted." He did so with this kind benevolent remark: "Here's a ticket if you take it and go it will cost you 15 cents, but if you stay at home it won't cost you anything." He corroborated his statement by staying at home himself. Such generosity should not go unrewarded. X. Y. Z.

Wouldn't Steal City Warrants.

The store of Tholl & Kracht was entered by burglars Tuesday night. Entrance was gained by prying up a rear window. The intruders were apparently on securing cash. The safe was open, so they did not have the trouble of cracking it. They went through it and left about $300 of city warrants scattered about on every floor. They are evidently did not think them worth carrying off. Securing no ready cash, they left without helping themselves to any of the stock.

Having put in a complete new stock of clothing, furnishing goods, hats, caps, etc., Fox & Hughes, No. 915 Main street, invite the public to give them a trial. Their expenses are small, and they can afford to sell cheap.
