

JEWELRY GATHERED IN THE CITY

A Cold and Quiet Sunday With Few Important Occurrences.

DROPPED DEAD IN THE STREET.

A Few Small Accidents—Work for the Plumbers—The Bee Keepers' Convention—Other Interests.

A Sudden Call.

Mrs. Freyhan, mother of John A. Freyhan, the Douglas street wholesale liquor dealer, dropped dead at the corner of Seventeenth street and St. Mary's avenue last evening about 8 o'clock.

Asleep in the Street.

A man lying in the snow on St. Mary's avenue was discovered by S. Kalish last evening about 7 o'clock peacefully sleeping.

Freeze His Foot.

An intoxicated man wandered into the works of the Sperry electric light company about 6 o'clock yesterday morning and asked to be allowed to warm himself.

Mashed His Hand.

James Wilson, a Union Pacific brakeman, had his hand badly mashed Saturday while coupling cars on the tracks in two of the engines being crushed.

A Close Call.

Saturday morning Mr. T. Truesden and family, living near Thirty-sixth and Harney streets, were discovered by neighbors nearly asphyxiated by escaping coal gas.

Blew Out the Gas.

A. C. Sheely, of Norton, Kansas, is lying in the Metropolitan hotel suffering from the effects of escaping gas, which nearly caused his death the other night.

Over an Embankment.

The two stallions harnessed to Peckel Bros.' heavy delivery wagon, while standing at the rear of the Union Pacific depot Saturday, pitched into each other with teeth and hoofs.

A Runaway Steigh.

A horse hitched to an old horse sleigh and driven by three boys, took flight Saturday on Dodge street and ran away.

A Fall—A Broken Leg.

A locksmith named Harding, employed in the Union Pacific shops, had the misfortune to fall yesterday morning on the icy pavement and break his leg.

Bee Keepers' Head.

The eighth annual meeting of the Nebraska State Bee Keepers' association will hold its next session at Lincoln, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 13, 14, and 15, 1886.

THE PLUMBERS' HARVEST.

Large Numbers of Frozen Water Pipes to be Cared For.

There was a great change in the weather in the very early morning yesterday and the thermometer took a sudden and decided fall.

A SAD STORY.

The Alleged Incest Case Investigated—Saturday's Developments.

Asleep in the Street.

A man lying in the snow on St. Mary's avenue was discovered by S. Kalish last evening about 7 o'clock peacefully sleeping.

Freeze His Foot.

An intoxicated man wandered into the works of the Sperry electric light company about 6 o'clock yesterday morning and asked to be allowed to warm himself.

Mashed His Hand.

James Wilson, a Union Pacific brakeman, had his hand badly mashed Saturday while coupling cars on the tracks in two of the engines being crushed.

A Close Call.

Saturday morning Mr. T. Truesden and family, living near Thirty-sixth and Harney streets, were discovered by neighbors nearly asphyxiated by escaping coal gas.

Blew Out the Gas.

A. C. Sheely, of Norton, Kansas, is lying in the Metropolitan hotel suffering from the effects of escaping gas, which nearly caused his death the other night.

Over an Embankment.

The two stallions harnessed to Peckel Bros.' heavy delivery wagon, while standing at the rear of the Union Pacific depot Saturday, pitched into each other with teeth and hoofs.

A Runaway Steigh.

A horse hitched to an old horse sleigh and driven by three boys, took flight Saturday on Dodge street and ran away.

A Fall—A Broken Leg.

A locksmith named Harding, employed in the Union Pacific shops, had the misfortune to fall yesterday morning on the icy pavement and break his leg.

Bee Keepers' Head.

The eighth annual meeting of the Nebraska State Bee Keepers' association will hold its next session at Lincoln, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 13, 14, and 15, 1886.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE, MONDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1885.

While at the meeting, any time during the session, proof of the same, which will entitle all who hold such certificates to a return ticket at one-third fare.

THE PLUMBERS' HARVEST.

Large Numbers of Frozen Water Pipes to be Cared For.

There was a great change in the weather in the very early morning yesterday and the thermometer took a sudden and decided fall.

A SAD STORY.

The Alleged Incest Case Investigated—Saturday's Developments.

Asleep in the Street.

A man lying in the snow on St. Mary's avenue was discovered by S. Kalish last evening about 7 o'clock peacefully sleeping.

Freeze His Foot.

An intoxicated man wandered into the works of the Sperry electric light company about 6 o'clock yesterday morning and asked to be allowed to warm himself.

Mashed His Hand.

James Wilson, a Union Pacific brakeman, had his hand badly mashed Saturday while coupling cars on the tracks in two of the engines being crushed.

A Close Call.

Saturday morning Mr. T. Truesden and family, living near Thirty-sixth and Harney streets, were discovered by neighbors nearly asphyxiated by escaping coal gas.

Blew Out the Gas.

A. C. Sheely, of Norton, Kansas, is lying in the Metropolitan hotel suffering from the effects of escaping gas, which nearly caused his death the other night.

Over an Embankment.

The two stallions harnessed to Peckel Bros.' heavy delivery wagon, while standing at the rear of the Union Pacific depot Saturday, pitched into each other with teeth and hoofs.

A Runaway Steigh.

A horse hitched to an old horse sleigh and driven by three boys, took flight Saturday on Dodge street and ran away.

A Fall—A Broken Leg.

A locksmith named Harding, employed in the Union Pacific shops, had the misfortune to fall yesterday morning on the icy pavement and break his leg.

Bee Keepers' Head.

The eighth annual meeting of the Nebraska State Bee Keepers' association will hold its next session at Lincoln, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 13, 14, and 15, 1886.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Neville granted Saturday a mandamus to M. T. Patrick, compelling the Omaha Street Railway company to operate their cars through his addition.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE, MONDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1885.

While at the meeting, any time during the session, proof of the same, which will entitle all who hold such certificates to a return ticket at one-third fare.

THE PLUMBERS' HARVEST.

Large Numbers of Frozen Water Pipes to be Cared For.

There was a great change in the weather in the very early morning yesterday and the thermometer took a sudden and decided fall.

A SAD STORY.

The Alleged Incest Case Investigated—Saturday's Developments.

Asleep in the Street.

A man lying in the snow on St. Mary's avenue was discovered by S. Kalish last evening about 7 o'clock peacefully sleeping.

Freeze His Foot.

An intoxicated man wandered into the works of the Sperry electric light company about 6 o'clock yesterday morning and asked to be allowed to warm himself.

Mashed His Hand.

James Wilson, a Union Pacific brakeman, had his hand badly mashed Saturday while coupling cars on the tracks in two of the engines being crushed.

A Close Call.

Saturday morning Mr. T. Truesden and family, living near Thirty-sixth and Harney streets, were discovered by neighbors nearly asphyxiated by escaping coal gas.

Blew Out the Gas.

A. C. Sheely, of Norton, Kansas, is lying in the Metropolitan hotel suffering from the effects of escaping gas, which nearly caused his death the other night.

Over an Embankment.

The two stallions harnessed to Peckel Bros.' heavy delivery wagon, while standing at the rear of the Union Pacific depot Saturday, pitched into each other with teeth and hoofs.

A Runaway Steigh.

A horse hitched to an old horse sleigh and driven by three boys, took flight Saturday on Dodge street and ran away.

A Fall—A Broken Leg.

A locksmith named Harding, employed in the Union Pacific shops, had the misfortune to fall yesterday morning on the icy pavement and break his leg.

Bee Keepers' Head.

The eighth annual meeting of the Nebraska State Bee Keepers' association will hold its next session at Lincoln, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 13, 14, and 15, 1886.

MAX MEYER & BRO

THE ONLY DIRECT IMPORTERS OF DIAMONDS, PEARLS, AND OTHER PRECIOUS JEWELS IN OMAHA.

An inspection by connoisseurs or others contemplating purchases will convince them that they can save from 10 to 25 per cent. by making their purchases direct from importers.

POPULAR PRICES

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES. Be sure to consult your inventory inspecting out stock before purchasing.

MAX MEYER & BRO, Cor. 11th and Farnam Sts., Omaha, Neb.

Douglas County Teachers.

A meeting of the Douglas County Teachers' association was held Saturday afternoon in Superintendent Bremer's office.

Police Court Docket.

The following cases were disposed of in police court Saturday: George E. Wilson, John Loom, John Morris, William Smith, drunk and disorderly; discharged.

Omaha Loan and Trust.

Articles of incorporation of the Omaha Loan and Trust company were filed Saturday in the county clerk's office.

United States Court.

The usual Saturday holiday was enjoyed by the officers and bar of the United States court and but little business was done.

Doctors.

Isaac Kenzie is a suspicious character confined in the city jail. He was arrested yesterday morning.

A Free Fight.

The jail was crowded yesterday with prisoners brought in Saturday night for various offenses. The biggest haul made by the officers was a crowd of eighteen people from the United States hotel.

Lauer and the Nail Works.

The directors of the Omaha Nailworks held a meeting Friday afternoon to consider chiefly the succession to the superintendency vacated by Jno. W. Lauer.

Sneak Thieves at Work.

A sleek robbery was reported at police headquarters Saturday. The victims were G. M. Hunter, J. F. Fitzgerald and T. H. Silkworth, three young men working in the Union Pacific headquarters.

Y. M. C. A.

Young men's meeting on Thursday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. Subject—"A Young Man Dressed in New Clothes."

A Late Train.

The Union Pacific "overnight" due here at 7:30 a. m., Saturday, did not arrive until evening when it came in as section No. 2 on train 1.

Brevities.

J. Frank Allen is the father of a healthy, lively boy put in an appearance at his home Friday night.

Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad.

By reason of the central location and close relation to the principal cities of the West, the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad is the most important line in the West.

The Famous Albert Lea Route.

The direct and shortest line between Chicago and St. Louis is the famous Albert Lea route.

DOCTOR McMENAMY, Omaha Medical and Surgical. CORNER 15th St. and Capitol Avenue. Chronic and Surgical Diseases.

ROYAL HAVANA LOTTERY. Drawn at Havana, Cuba, Ever 12 to 14 Days. Tickets 25 Cents. Prizes from $100 to $10,000.

Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad. The direct and shortest line between Chicago and St. Louis is the famous Albert Lea route.

The Famous Albert Lea Route. The direct and shortest line between Chicago and St. Louis is the famous Albert Lea route.

DR. PRICE'S SPECIAL FLAVORING EXTRACTS. MOST PERFECT MADE. PUREST AND STRONGEST NATURAL FRUIT FLAVORS.