thing sold cheap. Frank L. Bario, general agent of Will L Smith's bell ringers, is in the city arranging for the appearance of that company at the opera house Christmas afternoon and evening.

Go to Bliss' and get a pattern hat for a Christmas present, 30 per cent discount. There will be services for the first time in the Scandinavian Baptist church tomorrow morning and evening. Preaching by the pastor. There will be baptism after the evening sermon.

Services in the Congregation church to morrow morning and evening. Morning subject, "The Advent of Christ," Evening, "Royal Gifts." All invited. John Alien, arrested for having a row at the skating rink, and also charged with burglarizing McDaneld's office, has been discharged, the evidence not being sufficient to warrant his being bound Over 250 dolls were given away by Eiseman, Rodda & Co. yesterday. Considering the fact that one doll is given away with every purchase amounting to $5 or over, this firm must have been kept busy wrapping up parcels.

One of the colored boys at the Pacific yesterday had a little trouble with the pastry cook, in which the cook was struck on the head with a sling-shot. The coon flew, and sought to get out of the city on the C. B. & Q. train.

There seems little change in the condition of Hughes, the victim of last Monday's shooting scrape. It is whispered that if he recovers he will not appear to testify against "the Major," but there are enough witnesses besides him to make a

The case of Richard Baker, "Texas," charged with carving another coon named Finley, came up yesterday but was continued until Monday. Finley has not shown up since the cutting, but is sup-posed to be in Omaha. Efforts will be made to get him here by Monday to

The exhibition given last evening by the pupils of the Bloomer school drew a large audience to the opera house. The entertainment was far above the average of school exhibitions. The programme was varied and well presented by the young folks.

The Merchant's police force has been started with two men on duty, James Anderson and Ed Martin. There is a probability that the force will be increased rapidly as soon as the business men realize the advantages of such a protection from burglars and tires.

The woman, of not over savory reputation, who has about ruined a shoemaker, financially, by his infatuation for her, has now gone to Omaha, and is said to have taken with her one of the Chinamen who lately made an exodus from this city. Numerous creditors are balancing up ac-counts against her and the shocmaker, by profit and loss, mostly loss.

A stranger in the city, who gives his name as Freddie Gerstenberg, and who is supposed to hail from Weston, is under lock and key for disturbing the peace. One would think that he possibly might be the same Freddie who has been in trouble here before, but that Freddie was allowed to go on his own recognizance that he would keep the peace. That Freddie would not violate such a promise.

The second of the series of select dancing parties given by the Imperial club proved a social event of special enjoyment. The company was composed of about 200 of Council Bluffs best people with a few friends from outside the city. It was a brilliant affair and the commit tees in charge of the arrangements merit hearty congratulations.

L. S. Kempell, as he is booked at the police station, was arrested yesterday evening at the transfer by Chief Skinner and Capt. Walters. He represented himself to the chief as the postmaster general and said there was a special train over the Northwestern road that was to take him to Washington. His case will be in-quired into to-day. He is about 50 years of age and says he comes from Sidney,

"Everybody goes to Brackett's." Be-cause he has the largest variety to select. Because he has the linest fitted storeroom west of Chicago. Because he don't "bull-doze" and make his customers buy whether they wish to or not. Because he has had an experience of over twenty years in his line and knows how to conduct his business so his customers can se-cure every benefit. Don't fail to interview his parlor store, No. 238 Broadway.

A BEE man yesterday made inquiries as to the increase of the holiday trade. He inquired of L. C. Brackett, who keeps the largest assortment of toys, books, etc., west of Chicago. Mr. Brackett informed him that his sales for the week ending December 12 were double those of the corresponding week last year. So the BEE man thought it unnecessary to inquire further as Brackett's stock is a good eriterion.

On Wednesday evening last at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Loomis, on First avenue, the married ladies' progressive euchre club met and were entertained by Mrs. W. W. Loomis and Mrs. F. L. Clark The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. A. T. Elwell, while the gents' was captured by Hon. W. F. Sapp. This makes the second prize won by Mr. Sapp in the series of six played thus far. Elegant refreshments were served the club by the ladies entertaining.

entertaining. Next Tuesday night there is to be another meeting of the business men for the purpose of taking steps to secure manufactories here. The meeting will be held in the rooms occupied by the Commercial college in Shugart's block. All who have joined the new organization should be present, and an invitation is extended to such others as have any interest in the movement or sympathy with it. Several of the committees will make reports on matters of vital interest

Mrs. Howland, who keeps a candy Mrs. Howland, who keeps a candy store on Broadway, was yesterday on the war path over the manner in which her boy, Frank, had been punished at the Milk street school. She breathed flery threats of horse-whipping the teachers and having them arrested, but finally quieted down, concluding to make her complaints to the board of education. It is claimed that the how was laid neros a is claimed that the board of education. It is claimed that the boy was laid across a chair and given the benefit of a paddling. The boy does not seem to be so badly used up but that he can get around, but the board will investigate. As a rule these sensational accounts of how boys are abused result in showing that the teachers are not so much to blame as the publis. Young America is not very ant pupils. A Move to Help the Young Men of the City-Interesting Railway Case In Court-An Old Resident Airs His Views.

New Year's Glit to Young Men.

A movement to make the rooms if the Young Men's Christian as-Leave to marry was yesterday obtained by Christian Ness and Tilda Nelson, both been undertaken by the ladies of the city. The movement is popular. Subscriptions are running from $1 to $5 and all moneys received are to be expended upon the decoration and furnishing of the rooms. The committee who is directing the work is made up as follows: Mrs. L. W. Tulleys, Mrs. E. H. Odell, Mr. George T. Phelps, Mrs. E. L. Shugart, Mrs. P. J. Montgomery, Mrs. H. Curtis, Mrs. E. D. McCreary, Mrs. W. C. Staey, Miss Ida Wallace, Miss Jennie Hardin, Miss Laura Cole, Miss Julia Officer and Miss Mary A. Cole, Miss Julia Officer and Miss Mary A.
Cooley. Many willing hands are at work. Some are soliciting and some are making scarfs and tidies, and others are painting pictures to adorn the walls. All are invited to help that the New Year's reception to the young men of the city may be a most happy occasion and a most pleasant introduction to the rooms.
It is bearined from the state secretary who is It is learned from the state secretary who is looking over the work, that there is no city in the state in which there are so many large gifts for the current expenses of the association. Des Moines raises nearly twice as much money, but has three or for times as many givers. No one there is giving $150 to current expenses, while here seven gentlemen are contributing $100 each. Sioux City has raised more money, but has a longer roll of supporters. The rooms at Sioux City are the most finely furnished rooms in the place, and the finest of all the association rooms in Iowa. The rooms at Des Moines, on the third floor, are the largest and most thoroughly patronized rooms in the state, but are not so elegantly fur-

If the ladies of the Bluffs can carry out their plans for the rooms here, they will be a credit to the city, and no intelligent citizen can doubt the value of such places of resort. Mr. Curtis, the general man-ager of the work, is a man who has proved himself competent, and whom other cities of Iowa would be glad to call away from here at a larger salary. He should have better quarters and ample means. He has secured larger co-opera-tion financially from young men than any other place in the state. One young man here is the largest giver among the young men of the state. When it is remembered that this is not a club of young men at work for their own pleasure and a close work for their own pleasure and a close corporation, but an association open to all manly young men, and attempting to do a work for young men, to promote manhood in every form, it can easily see why Mr. Vanderbilt should leave one hundred thousand dollars to be devoted to this work, and why such a city as Atlanta should raise from thousands of men, women and children eighty-three thou-sand dollars to build a home for young

Let every citizen look to the interest of this place by promoting every movement which has for its object better manhood. Subscriptions to this furnishing fund can be sent in to Mrs. L. W. Tulleys, or to Harry Curtis, and should be in if possible before Monday night. -While I lay no claims on personal popularity, I do pretend to be an honest ob server, and a man who through his own efforts is able to judge right from wrong, when it lays so near as at present before our door. The present sincere desire on the part of a large and influential portion of our citizens to promote the interest and welfare of our city is one so near to my heart, that I and my friends will pull on the same string, providing we are not met half way from the opposite side by the men who have thus far rained us with the misguidings of this city. Who is that opposite side? It is those who ruled the city when Union avenue was voted away. It is those who made contracts to pay from 30 to 40 cents per cubic foot for dirt, while actual labor received but 13 to 17 cents for it. How this was done, and how it was manipulated, we will not here discuss, but it shall be done and heralded all over the country by a voice more pow-erful than my own, if necessary in the fature. We hereby give notice to the makers of politics that our shame shall Confidence is what is wanting among us, and until that can be restored there is no use to talk about enlisting manufac-turing enterprises. We know of an honest old citizen who through social ac quaintance last summer became a friend of a beef packer in New Jersey. Ritchie on the Broad Road. The report that reaches this city that Jerry Ritchie has b en getting into more trouble at Sioux City does not cause any great surprise among his acquaintances. When it was learned that he had been pilfering right along from his employer, that revelation came with a startling, sensational flurry among all who knew him. By the aid of his father, who put a mortgage on his farm, the matter was settled up, and young Ritchie claimed to be very penitent and expressed the determination to make a man of himself. In these good resolutions his friends had considerable faith, until it appeared that he was not improving very rapidly. Since then he has had two or three little escapades, and now comes the news that he is still trotting down the broad road at a lively gat. It seems that he and a gambler named Rush became ergaged in a row in a Sioux City saloon with Charles Cormeny and Mike Bronnan. There was a general

a revolver and fired several shots, none taking effect.

Ritchie has been arrested on the charge Richie has been arrested on the charge of assault with intent to do great bodily injury to Cormeny, and has been held in $500 honds for his appearance at the next term of the district court. His companion, Rush, is likewise held. Both have also been fined $25 and costs for being drunk and disturbing the peace. At last accounts Ritchie had not been able to get the processory security to set out of init. the necessary security to get out of mil. When accessed he had $5 only, which would not go far to square such a scrape

His arm is so crippled that he is unable to do any manual or clerical work, and he wants damages to cover his permanent disability.

The grand jury vesterday returned in-dictments against Benson for burglariz-ing houses in Boomer township, also against his partner, Pierson. An indict-ment was found against young Bacon, for forging an abstract of title.

The grand jury is grinding through its business at a lively rate. From Thurs-day noon of last week till last night they had examined 100 witnesses, in seven teen different eases. They have examined over twenty-four witnesses a day.
William Wickersham, who got into some difficulty in a town meeting in a school house some months ago, pleaded guilty to assault and battery. McGrew pleaded guilty to gambling in Neola. H. Sweigart pleaded guilty to some petty offense. These will have their medicine dealt out to them next Monday. Three prisoners, Pierson, Benson and Bacon, were arraigned but the judge de-clined to appoint any counsel for them until he could investigate with a view of determining whether they were not able to hire attorneys from their own means. This delay is a departure from the usual course, the judge generally making the desired appointments without any great search to determine the question of lability to pay.
