

THE DAILY BEE, COUNCIL BLUFFS.

TUESDAY MORNING, DEC. 22. OFFICE: No. 16 Pearl Street.

Published by carrier in any part of the city at ten cents per week.

MINOR MENTION.

Better, the tailor, for winter goods. Charles Guitman asked permission yesterday to become a citizen. He got his first degree.

The Presbyterian ladies are preparing for an entertainment to take place the last of January.

Arrangements are being made for making merry the pupils at the institution for the deaf and dumb on Christmas day.

At the printers' ball on Christmas night all objections to the program will be brought to the door as soon as spotted.

The postoffice employees are anxious for the holidays to be over. Their time and strength are being taxed to the utmost.

Christmas is only a few days off and presents are being selected fast. A few extra late rattan rocking chairs from $2 upward at A. J. Mandel's.

The printers have about completed arrangements for their ball which takes place on Christmas night at the Masonic hall and a grand success is assured.

The case of Knapp against the Sioux City Railway company was argued yesterday in the district court, and given to the jury late yesterday afternoon.

Permission to marry was given yesterday to John Enoch and Flora Cohen, both of Hancock, Iowa; also to Charles Jackson and Clara Brown, both of Omaha.

Only one drunk to dispose of in the police court yesterday. He gave the strange name of Jones, and although he had a $100 check, refused to pay the fine, preferring to board it out in jail.

Tresler and Levin, the two fellows arrested on the charge of vagrancy, and suspected of being connected with the gang, continued with the slugging of Hughes, have been discharged by Justice Frainey.

The C. R. I. & P. will sell holiday excursion tickets to all points within 150 miles, Dec. 21st and 22nd, and Jan. 1st, 1886, for return passage until January 1st, 1886.

The grand jury has found on indictment against William Lewis for assault with intent to kill, and has returned the result of the trouble some months ago between him and Baneroff at the Ogden house, getting into a dispute about some passengers and baggage.

The Baptist Sunday school will give its holiday entertainment in the church Christmas eve at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been provided.

One of the interesting features will be a recitation in the sign language by Mrs. Prof. McDermid.

Still Lates left yesterday for Indiana to join his wife at Hagerstown. It is hoped that he will amid new scenes and associations start on a more temperate and industrious life. He has the making of a man, and his friends would like to see him improve his chances better than he has here.

The street crossings are being cleaned, so that pedestrians do not have to wade. If there was some street cleaning done at the right time this would be so necessary, and the public would get more benefit from the paving which has been laid at such cost, but which is allowed to be buried in mud.

I now come to light that about a month ago the notorious "Major" Paul engaged a room at the house of Mr. Paul. He then represented himself as Major Howe, traveling for a hardware house, and agreed to pay a month's rent in advance, but after staying two days, disappeared without paying anything. He seems never to have been at loss for a new name.

The grand jury is inquiring into the recent shooting affair of the "com" men. There seems to be a disposition not only among the grand jurors, but among the citizens to cover up the real facts in the case. It is believed that when all is ferreted out about the affair some of the residents of this city, who will not like to have their names coupled with those of the gang, will be ashamed of their connection with the affair. It seems strange that there should be such difficulty in getting citizens who claim respectability to tell what they know about these men.

Ladies and gents get a ticket to the grand drawing on January 1st, every $20 worth of goods purchased of Arthur Lefkowitz, 623 Broadway. The choicest candies, California fruits, nuts, cigars, etc., always on hand.

Be sure and ask your grocer for the bread made at Smith & Locke's bakery, No. 523 Main street. It is the very best made. Try it and be convinced.

Personal Paragraphs.

W. C. Stuey has returned from Minneapolis.

Dr. S. N. Harvey, of Nevada, was in the city yesterday.

J. Y. Stone, of Glenwood, was in the city yesterday.

C. H. Gilbert has gone to New Hampshire on a visit.

A. G. Brown laughs all over as he hands out the cigars, "It's a boy!"

F. M. Gault, of the Washab agency, has returned from St. Louis. He says it is colder there than here.

A. T. Fiebigler, of the law firm of Fiebigler Bros., went to Lincoln last night to attend the circuit court.

Mr. and Mrs. Young, who have been stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Burnett, left last evening for their new home in Durango, Colorado.

Frederic Paine, the happy wanderer of the punch on the Northwestern passenger train, has returned from Florida with his pockets filled with alligator teeth. All of his friends shouldn't speak at once.

Ed Watts, one of the Herald's employees, has gone to Jacksonville, Fla. where on Thursday evening he will be united in marriage to Miss Eva A. Cobb. Miss Cobb was formerly a teacher in the institution for the deaf and dumb here.

Gas Smith, of the Citizens' bank, is here to spend the holidays. Mrs. Smith, a sister of Mr. E. Huntington, has been here with her friends for some time. Mr. Smith is manager at Ludington of the Maryette Lumber company. He says that just before he left there the company had opened its first set well and it is proving satisfactory. This is his first visit to the Bluffs in seventeen years.

HIS NECK OUT OF THE NOOSE.

The Supreme Court Grants Dr. Cross a New Trial.

THE DEATH OF "LONE WOLF."

Burglarizing Freight Cars—Kicking About Stolen Mules—Personal Paragraphs.

Death of "Lone Wolf." Yesterday the Bee received a telephonic message from Avoca announcing the death of Dr. Palmer, better known here as "Lone Wolf." He died quite suddenly of apoplexy. He was at the National hotel, and in company with Dr. Knapp, who has been associated with him for some time. About midnight Dr. Palmer spoke to Dr. Knapp, and complained of a choking sensation. He tried to swallow some medicine, but gave a gasp and was gone. "Lone Wolf," a few months ago opened an office here and has been traveling about the country selling his medicines on the streets. Little is known of him except that he claims to have spent many years of his life among the Indians. He was aged about 50 years, and was a fine built man, and indulged in the eccentricity of long hair and other signs of "the medicine man." It is said that he has a family in Dubuque, but on account of domestic troubles has not been living with them. The personal effects found belonging to "Lone Wolf" were two shirts, a few pieces of paper and fifteen cents.

For hardware and house furnishing get prices of Cooper & McGee, No. 11 Main street.

Cross Neck Saved. Yesterday the neck was received from Des Moines that the supreme court had reversed the case of Dr. Cross, and sending it back for a new trial. This announcement does not cause great surprise as many expected that some loopholes would be discovered by which Cross would escape the gallows. The killing of Dr. McKune has been a frequent topic of discussion ever since the first sensational shock of the event threw this community into a state of excitement. Every detail of the evidence and many rumors have been talked over and over, and ever since Dr. Cross was found guilty and sentenced to be hung there have been various conjectures as to his final fate. Next June was the time fixed in the sentence for his execution. The granting of a new trial will revive the discussions and exchange of opinions as to the outcome. The case has been long contested in every detail, and the struggle on another trial will be hardly less so.

Warning. Dealers will save money by sending us their orders before January 1. There has been a sharp advance last.

Having put in a complete new stock of clothing, furnishing goods, hats, caps, etc., at E. H. Hargis, No. 915 Main street, invite the public to give them a trial. Their expenses are small and they can do so cheap.

Try John Templeton's "Rose" cigar.

Stolen Mules. Jacob Armborst, who lives about six miles from Omaha, sent his hired man, August Shantz, to market with a load of grain. The man stole the grain and then crossed to this side of the river, where he tried to sell the mules and wagon, offering the outfit for $125. This was on Saturday, and the party to whom he offered to sell the mules suspected there was something wrong about the transaction, and so for the purpose of detaining the man, told him he would take the mules at the price stated, but he must wait until Sunday morning for his money. To this the man objected, and that night he disappeared from the city. It is thought he went from here to Missouri Valley. Officers were here yesterday after him, and gathering up what information they could, started out on the trail after him, with the expectation of capturing him and securing the reward offered.

Drs. Judd & Smith's Electro-Magnetic Insules. Only fifty cents. No. 30 Fourth street, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Agents wanted.

All kinds of interior drapings, cornice poles, shades, etc., the very cheapest in the west at E. Stockert & Co's.

Breaking Into Cars. Much of the time in Justice Schurz' court yesterday was taken up in the hearing of the case of George Blakely, charged with burglarizing a Washab railway car. The seal of the car had been broken and a quantity of wheat, lumber, flour, etc., taken. By means of a search warrant similar property was found in a little house owned by Blakely's brother, who had been gone to Missouri for some time. In Blakely's own house were found some articles indicating that they had been stolen from the Washab railway. The defendant gave no explanation of the presence of this property, and his attorney sought to get him discharged on result of the insufficiency of the evidence produced by the state. The justice refused to release him and fixed his bond at $500.

A Brother's Care. The insane man, L. E. Campbell, is still confined in the city jail. It was learned that he had a brother living in Malvern, and the officers have been trying to get some word to him as to what they should do with the insane man. Yesterday word was received at last, but to the effect that he should be sent back to Lincoln, as there was where he belonged. As the Malvern brother does not seem to take
