Manderson Addresses the Senate on His Military Bill. REPORT ON DAKOTA SUBMITTED.

Senator Pugh Pays His Respects to the Opponents of Silver Coinage—Work of the House Members.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—A number of petitions were presented, praying for the suspension of silver coinage.

Mr. Harrison reported favorably from the committee on territories to admit Dakota and provide for the organization of the territory of Lincoln.

Mr. Butler reserved the right to submit a minority report, if approved, and considered the majority report he should conclude to do so.

Mr. Harrison, from the same committee, reported adversely on the resolution heretofore offered by Messrs. Butler and Vest, calling for inquiries as to the organization of a state government.

The resolutions were placed on the calendar. Mr. Frye introduced a bill for the relief of the American merchant marine.

Mr. Morgan offered a resolution relating to the trustees provided for by the Utah bill to manage the property of the civil and Mormon church organization.

The preamble to the resolution recites that the union of church and state is the greatest danger to the freedom of religious worship and violates the principles of the constitution of the United States.

THE LAKE GIVES UP ITS DEAD.

The Closing Chapters of a Most Remarkable Elopement. THEY REPENTED FOR THEIR SIN

And Both Returns to Their Native Heath—The Malodorous Escapade of a Married Man and a Wayward Girl.

Elopers Returned to Life. CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—[Special Telegram.]—Z. T. O'Rourke, it will be remembered, is the lawyer who transacted business at St. Louis, and Miss Mary Larned, the attractive daughter of Albert A. Larned, treasurer of the W. Frost Manufacturing company, resided in Chicago with her parents at 2546 Dearborn street at the time of her mysterious disappearance.

She formerly taught school at Kirkwood, and it was there, to her own great grief and shame, that she became acquainted with the head of the O'Rourke family. She is said to have been a very intimate friend of Mrs. O'Rourke, and was regarded as one of the family.

Some time in July of last year Miss Larned came home in Chicago. O'Rourke followed, arriving here September 2. To his relatives and friends in St. Louis he stated that he intended to purchase property here and permanently locate in Chicago, his family to follow him.

Arriving here, O'Rourke put up at the Standard house. The next morning he called at the Larned residence on Dearborn street. Next day he put in an appearance and took supper with the family. Early in the evening he invited Miss Larned to take a boat ride with him. She assented, and about 6 p. m. the couple started out for a row. Up to the present time their whereabouts had been a profound mystery.

A great many people believed them to be sleeping in the bosom of the lake. It was a foggy night when they embarked and as they were never seen to return, it was thought that they had become befoozled, drifted out on the lake and were lost.

They and many others claimed that it had not been drowned they would be picked up by some passing vessel. The friends of the couple finally ceased their investigation and came to the conclusion that a further search was useless.

It was maintained that the boat, which had been hauled up at the foot of Sixty-third street half full of water and with both oars missing. This strengthened the supposition that the occupants perished.

Numerous theories were advanced as to the fate of the pair. As there was not enough water on the lake to float the boat, it was supposed that the boat had been blown out to sea and had struck a rock.

THE COUNTY SCHOOL FUNDS.

The Semi-Annual Apportionment for the Districts Completed. HIS BOOKS FAIL TO BALANCE.

Cashier Pritchard of the Western Union Short in His Accounts—A Woman's Connection With the Case. Money for Education.

County Superintendent Bruner yesterday finished the semi-annual apportionment of school moneys for the several districts of Douglas county. He had $16,739.91 to proportion out to the districts. Of this $15,337.97 was from the state assessment and the remainder came from county revenues.

There are 14,434 scholars in the county and Omaha with 11,202 received $9,817.78. The next best is Florence with 221 pupils and $271.70, closely followed by South Omaha with 304 and $377 of the apportionment. Waterloo has 75 pupils and $231.70, district 37, just out of Omaha south of Hanson park, 165 and $231.70.

No. 14, south of Waterloo, with five pupils and $81.70, the smallest district in the county, and possibly in point of school enumeration, the smallest in the state. The apportionment gives 87 cents per pupil and the "one-fourth" district equalized among the five and one-half districts gives each district $79.90.

It may interest not informed to learn how the "one-half" district is considered. There are three fractional school districts in Douglas county—two between Sorby and Douglas and one divided with Dodge county.

Of course this apportionment is not adequate to maintaining the schools for the half year, and the remainder of the costs of public instruction is obtained in each district by special levy. There are four districts which at the last annual meeting of April of '85 levied no school tax, and the balance of the year was sufficient to run the schools without it. The remainder of the districts levied from 2 to 20 mills.

Omaha levied 5 mills. Total number of the city from April 7th, '84, to July 13th, '85, including $14,741.69, the balance on hand, were $262,359.49; the total expenditures between the same dates $242,357.29, leaving a balance of $20,002.20 on hand. There was also on hand in the city sinking fund at the same date, $84,931.76. The city carries liabilities in outstanding bonds to the amount of $150,000.

A CASHIER SHORT. A Western Union Man Whose Books Will Not Balance. A rumor has been afloat for several days that there has been "crooked" work at the Western Union telegraph office in this city, and investigation proves the rumor to be true.

J. B. Pritchard, who has been cashier for the company since September 5 last, has been found short in his accounts for from $500 to $600. Ever since he entered upon the duties of his position Pritchard has at various times been charged with misappropriation on protracted spears and acting in a reckless manner.

At the beginning of the new year he started out for a "time," and as it is reported that the company's conclusions in regard to his case are not yet reached, it is probable that he will be discharged on January 5 Pritchard was discharged and his accounts were examined. It was found that the company's books were in bad shape, and close inspection revealed the shortage.

Among the larger items on which Pritchard is short is a bill for $125 against Mrs. J. C. Fountain for money sent by telegraph to her husband in Chicago. The bill was presented by the company to Mrs. Fountain the past week for payment, but she asserted that she had never received it.

This statement, however, is doubted in some quarters, for rumor has it that Mrs. Fountain is in part responsible for Pritchard's shortage. It is said that the cashier was wont to spend considerable of his time and money on this woman, and that she would frequently converse with him by telephone while in the office and arrange meetings with him. Pritchard is a married man, his wife and three children residing in this city, and stories are told of Mrs. Fountain calling at his house and turning his wife with a knowledge of his whereabouts when she (the wife) was in ignorance of where her husband was.

Mrs. Fountain, having become aware that her name was to be used in connection with Pritchard's case, called on him at the Bee office at a late hour last night in company with her husband and denied all knowledge of the affair. She asserted that she did not know Pritchard, and that the cashier had had dealings with him personally to her knowledge.

Pritchard's shortage will be met by his bondsmen, who are amply able to make good the loss.

Robbed His Employer. It was reported to the police yesterday that the residence of J. W. Atkinson, Nineteenth and Clark streets, had been robbed early in the morning of a number of valuables. The thief is a man named Dickson, who hails from the Bluffs. He was employed by Atkinson several days ago, and has been sleeping at his house. Yesterday morning he was called early to the fire, and on doing so he left his employer's office in a hurry. When he was called at breakfast time, however, he failed to respond, and it was discovered that he had left the house, taking with him a watch and chain belonging to his employer, a pair of gold cuff buttons, a revolver, a number of other valuables. A description of the thief was left at police headquarters and an effort will be made to apprehend him.

A Birthday Party. On last Saturday evening, Jan. 9, 1886, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Weston, at their residence on Twenty-sixth and Douglas streets, gave a most enjoyable birthday party to their little daughter Gracie on the attainment of her tenth year. The guests were Ross Towle, Charlie Rose, George Gish, Marty Kennard, Mary Shears, Emmott Murphy, Stephen Long, Leonard Long, George Miller, Jennie Gish, Mabel Kelley, Nora Emerson, Edith McCoy, Moshier Colpeter, Alice Parrott, Franklin Rose. A most elegant supper, consisting of all the delicacies of the season, was served. Then came the games and plays enjoyed by all. Many handsome and useful presents were brought for Gracie, among others a large clock, a picture of her mother in a handsome frame. The party was a grand success and the little folks went to their homes with merry good byes and happy hearts.
