The Civil Service Commission's Report—Colored Labor Leaving the South—Personal and Other Gossip from Washington.

Wants the Democrats Whipped In.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—[Special Telegram.]—This morning a senator who favors suspension of silver coinage said to be between the president and Secretary Manning serious differences of opinion have arisen concerning the attitude to be assumed by the administration on the silver question.

THE COON MIXED THE NAMES.

Secretary Whitney received a severe shock last week from which he has scarcely recovered. The feeling between him and his immediate predecessor, Mr. Chandler, is not as cordial as it might be.

SOME GOOD AND SOME VERY BAD.

THE COON MIXED THE NAMES. Secretary Whitney received a severe shock last week from which he has scarcely recovered.

A Slander on Chadron.

CHADRON, Jan. 17.—[Special.]—The special appearing in the Omaha Republican of the 15th inst., stating that the county seat had been removed from Chadron and that the present board of county commissioners had declared the removal, it was shown that a large percentage, and a very large one, of male candidates fail on examination in English grammar.

STRANDED AMONG STRANGERS.

Job ain Miller's Daughter Found Penniless in Chicago. CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—Last Thursday a young woman, apparently about twenty-one years of age, called at the office of the Elder Publishing company, and asked for the editor.

Religion Where They Need It.

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—D. L. Moody, the evangelist, preached to-day and this evening at the Chicago avenue church to a very large congregation. M. Moody will conduct a series of meetings in this church, lasting through-out the week.

Hanging Up Long "Strings."

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Upon yesterday's figures being corrected, this morning it is found Levy has taken third place in the type setting contest. It is impossible to get a verified table to-night, but as near as can be ascertained, the total number of cuts set by each man at the close of the tournament is: Barnes, 32,400; McCann, 27,800; Levy, 25,000; Hutton, 24,000; Bonheimer, 23,317; Creevy, 23,220; DeJarnett, 21,429. This gives Barnes first, McCann second, and Levy third prize.

SENA TE LAND LEGISLATION.

The senate committee on public lands yesterday authorized its chairman, Senator Plumb, to report favorably the bill introduced by him to extend the laws of the United States over the "Public land strip" south of the state of Kansas.

The bill attaches the judicial district of Kansas. The committee has amended the bill by providing that the land shall only be secured in this strip under the provisions of the homestead law.

FORECAST OF CONGRESS.

What Another Week May Bring in the Way of Legislation. WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The past week having been devoted by the senate largely to speech-making and executive business, the calendar remains almost as it was at the beginning of the week with respect to measures of general legislation.

THE PENION BUREAU CHARGES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—[Special.]—"Gen. Black can't substantiate a single charge he has made against the republican party," said Col. Dudley, ex-commissioner of pensions, speaking, to-day, of the proposed senate investigation.

MAKES STRANGE BEDFELLOWS.

During the past week a good deal has been said by the tariff democrats about the republican party. The tariff democrats have often been heard to say that the republican party is a coalition of the tariff reformers and the protectionists.

FROM OUR OWN STATE.

Fell Like a Bombshell Among the M. O. People.

BEATRICE, Jan. 17.—[Special.]—The exposure of the M. O. book in the Bee of Friday has been the prevailing topic for the past two days, and the Bee was in tremendous demand. The "Protective Association" sent out messengers yesterday afternoon, and gathered up all the books with the intention of changing the "cipher." The cipher was a number of the members of the association, being rated as M. O., and he gave the thing away at once.

ONE PERPETUAL PIECE.

A good deal of surprise is being expressed by people here that no one comes to the rescue of the administration in the senate or house on the silver question. So far all the speeches, with one exception, have been devoted to the position taken by Mr. Cleveland in his message.

THE LEAGUE PRESIDENCY.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—[Special Telegram.]—In reply to an article in the New York democratic paper, telegraphed the Bee yesterday, intimating that Patrick Egan contemplated resigning the presidency of the Irish national league for the purpose of accepting the position to Alexander Sullivan, who like Mr. Egan, is a republican.

A Remarkable Exodus of Colored Laborers From the South.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 16.—The exodus of colored laborers from North Carolina for points west is beginning to excite some interest. Charlotte is a railroad center and it is here the emigration parties are made up and railroad agents meet and arrange for their transportation.

THE WESTERN MAIL QUESTION.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—[Special Telegram.]—A Washington dispatch published here charges in connection with the Madisonian resolution that it was a conspiracy on the part of Hutton and Gresham in the interest of certain railroads to injure the Union Pacific and boom the Burlington and St. Paul syndicate, as this work is worth upwards of $2,000,000 a year to the Union Pacific.

A VERY SWELL STATE DINNER.

Much is being said by the ladies about the grandeur of the president's first state dinner on Thursday night last. They declare it was as grand as any given by Mr. Arthur, and that it eclipsed those given before the last administration. Mr. Cleveland seems anxious to keep up the social standing of the inhabitants of the white house, and to have for
