Church Home, Auburn, Neb. "The Missouri Pacific is fully prepared to build its branch into Lincoln, and expects to commence active work by April at the latest.

The iron, rails, ties, lumber, piles, etc., are ready to be used in the construction. I expect to furnish 100,000 feet of ties, and the forests of Arkansas. The branch will be constructed within a few months, and will be ready for traffic by summer early fall."

J. J. Shaffer, Valentine, Neb. [Mr. Shaffer was in Omaha yesterday, on business connected with the scheme for colonizing eastern Wyoming.] "The oil fields of the territory are developing wonderfully and promise to furnish one of Wyoming's greatest resources. The oil has been found in very large quantities; in a few rods, walk you can run across hundreds of springs bubbling up through the surface of the soil. In the valleys there are large tracts of land covered with oil of several feet of several feet. Fine quality? Yes, sir, the finest in the world. Scientists who have tested the oil, declare that it is the best yet discovered. Wyoming is settling up very fast, and its admission as a state is the matter of but a short time."

E. K. Leonard, Boise City. "We flatter ourselves that we have the best prospects in both mining and grazing resources combined, of any city in the far northwest. Our mines are becoming richer every day. Boise is fifteen miles from the line of the Oregon Short Line but by spring a spur will be run up to us. When this is done, Boise will be a city to bring the world to a recognition of its rapid advance."
