Permit to marry was yesterday given to Martin Burke of Fontanelle, Iowa, and Miss Alice Metcalf of this city.

The police have found and arrested a boy named William Zook, who is believed to be in the reform school from that county.

There is being held in the county jail a man named Blakely, charged with stealing from the Washburn freight cars. Blakely's family are reported to be in destitute circumstances.

Business is so dull in police circles that such a commonplace occurrence as Fred Gerstberg beating his wife excites attention. Freddie was sent to jail for ten days yesterday, which will reduce the reporters from the wearisome task of reproducing this item for a week at least.

The police yesterday learned that Miss Ada Griffin, the 15-year-old girl who ran away from her home in Eastport, Iowa, is in a house of prostitution here. The girl says she was driven from home by the abusiveness of her father, and refuses to return. It has not been decided what she should do with her.

Joseph Beck died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, aged 64 years. He was the father of Peter Beck, of the firm of Snyder & Beck, and father of Mrs. J. M. Snyder. He had been in comparative good health and was able to get out on the street Wednesday, so that his death came quite suddenly.

There is hardly a business man in this city but what would gladly invest $1,000 if guaranteed that the city would thereby secure within two years $300,000 of new manufactures.

A number of the most careful and substantial citizens have already expressed their willingness to take at least $5,000 each in the company, and they now seem every reason to believe that within a few weeks every dollar of stock will be taken.

The storm knocked the railway time tables silly yesterday. The only trains arriving yesterday morning were the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and the Kansas City, and they were both badly delayed. The Kansas City went off the track at the transfer, doing no special damage but causing some delay in clearing the track.

Admitted to Bail. Wright, Baldwin & Haldane, the attorneys for Dr. Cross, yesterday afternoon said that Judge Louhewer has decided to admit him to bail, the amount being fixed as before at $20,000. He will doubtless arrange at once to furnish the amount, and thus secure his liberty again.
