

PAIN IN THE PACKING HOUSE

Cutting Blows Inflicted by the Cleaver of the Slaughter House Crew.

SURVEYOR GARDNER WONT GO.

Startling Disclosures of Countess Frauds Perpetrated on the Government in Surveying Public Lands in Nebraska.

Gardner Will Not Be Removed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The efforts of a faction of Nebraska Democrats to secure the abolition of the office of surveyor general of Nebraska and Iowa, located at Plattsmouth, have occupied the attention of Commissioner Sparks for some time.

Exposing Public Thieves.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The Times this morning, in a Washington dispatch, gives a startling disclosure of the land frauds perpetrated upon the government under the guise of surveying public lands.

It Ought to Satisfy Both.

Senator Sherman Explains His Silver Bill Introduced Yesterday.

IT SUSPENDS SILVER COINAGE.

A Flood of Labor Petitions to Organize Indian Territory—Prospects of Sioux City's Public Building—Cleanings.

Senator Sherman's Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator John Sherman was seen to-night by your correspondent, and asked to explain the object of the bill introduced in the senate by him to-day. The senator replied: "Its provisions are simple. First, it suspends the coinage of silver; second, it issues coin certificates on loaner bullion; and last, the issue of similar certificates upon gold or silver coin, or gold bullion deposited with the treasurer as security."

A Tussle For Blood.

A Sensational Match Between the Jap and Lewis.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—An exciting contest, with incidents bordering on the sensational, was witnessed to-night by a large audience at Central Park Hall. It was the match between Matsuda Sorakichi, the Japanese athlete, and Evan Lewis of Madison (Wis.). The terms were $300 a side and 75 per cent of the gate receipts, but in five falls, catch as catch can, Sorakichi was hardly a match for Lewis in point of strength, but as the contest progressed, Sorakichi showed more choice, and in skill the Jap was a trifle superior.

THE TIMES PROPERTY.

Surprising Proceedings in the Storey Will Contest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—There was no abatement of the interest in the progress of the Storey will case, which resulted at the close of the day's testimony in a surprise, the attorney for Mrs. Farrand, a sister of the deceased editor, and who had asked for the appeal from the probate court, asking to have the appeal dismissed on the question of insanity, which has been urged as the reason why the will of 1881 should not be probated.

DOING THE THING UP BROWN.

A Field Day in the Iowa Senate Over the Auditorship Investigation.

FACTION FRACAS OF HOT WORDS.

The Democrats Demand Provision for Representation on the Committee and Succeed in Securing Their Coveted Desire.

The Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—To-day was a field day with the Brown matter in the senate. It had been set for a special order at 3 p. m., and at that time Senator Johnson (dem.) called up his resolution asking for a committee of two from the senate and three from the house to investigate on the lines of his resolution already printed. He stated that he had drawn his resolution of his own accord, and without consultation with his colleagues, but because he believed the grave charges made through the public prints against Auditor Woolson demanded an investigation.

A VAST CORRUPTION FUND.

Republicans Should Go Slow in Aiding Schemes to Replenish It.

A NAVAL REBUILDING STEAL.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

MEASURE CHANCE FOR THE REPEAL OF THE LIMITATION OF ARREARAGES BILL—The Crowd at the Capital—The Telephone Suit.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

PACKED FULL OF PEOPLE.

There has not been so large a crowd here as now since the consideration of the tariff bill in the first session of the Forty-seventh congress four years ago.

Captain Crawford's Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Major General Pope states today that he felt certain the Mexicans who attacked Captain Crawford were not regular troops, but renegades who took the opportunity of the war to enrich themselves in hope of obtaining the cash money offered by the state of Sonora for the hostiles.

TELEGRAPH NOTES.

St. Paul and Ellendale (Dak.) report severe cold weather.

A fire damaged the Albany (N. Y.) Brewing company's malt house $125,000.

The office of W. H. Jans, clerk of the district court, is divided into two parts by a counter which extends from the east to the western wall.

Horace S., Helen, Mary S. and George F. Newman, minors, by their guardian, Horace Newman, filed a petition in the district court yesterday asking the children of Peter Forbes, deceased, be compelled to partition his real estate.

A Red Canon (Cal.) prospector gathered rabbit manure enough during the late storm to do him till June. He cut down a lot of trees, piling up the manure, and the rabbits bit their brains out, and the property has never been divided.

A fight occurred in a farmyard at Stanley, N. J., a day or two ago between a mare and a bull dog. The mare finally killed the canine by falling on it, but had to be killed herself afterward on account of the injuries she had received during the encounter.

The most valuable postage stamp known to collectors is said to be one issued by the postmaster of Battledore, Vt., in 1847, which was suppressed after a few weeks. A specimen is now worth six or eight hundred dollars.

According to the Progress Medical, a method of treating rabies by inoculation was discovered in Leipzig, Prussia, and the journal as long ago as 1849, and the doctor recommending it was stated to be Constantine Hering of Philadelphia.

IT OUGHT TO SATISFY BOTH.

Senator Sherman Explains His Silver Bill Introduced Yesterday.

IT SUSPENDS SILVER COINAGE.

A Flood of Labor Petitions to Organize Indian Territory—Prospects of Sioux City's Public Building—Cleanings.

Senator Sherman's Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator John Sherman was seen to-night by your correspondent, and asked to explain the object of the bill introduced in the senate by him to-day. The senator replied: "Its provisions are simple. First, it suspends the coinage of silver; second, it issues coin certificates on loaner bullion; and last, the issue of similar certificates upon gold or silver coin, or gold bullion deposited with the treasurer as security."

A TUSSE FOR BLOOD.

A Sensational Match Between the Jap and Lewis.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—An exciting contest, with incidents bordering on the sensational, was witnessed to-night by a large audience at Central Park Hall. It was the match between Matsuda Sorakichi, the Japanese athlete, and Evan Lewis of Madison (Wis.). The terms were $300 a side and 75 per cent of the gate receipts, but in five falls, catch as catch can, Sorakichi was hardly a match for Lewis in point of strength, but as the contest progressed, Sorakichi showed more choice, and in skill the Jap was a trifle superior.

THE TIMES PROPERTY.

Surprising Proceedings in the Storey Will Contest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—There was no abatement of the interest in the progress of the Storey will case, which resulted at the close of the day's testimony in a surprise, the attorney for Mrs. Farrand, a sister of the deceased editor, and who had asked for the appeal from the probate court, asking to have the appeal dismissed on the question of insanity, which has been urged as the reason why the will of 1881 should not be probated.

DOING THE THING UP BROWN.

A Field Day in the Iowa Senate Over the Auditorship Investigation.

FACTION FRACAS OF HOT WORDS.

The Democrats Demand Provision for Representation on the Committee and Succeed in Securing Their Coveted Desire.

The Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—To-day was a field day with the Brown matter in the senate. It had been set for a special order at 3 p. m., and at that time Senator Johnson (dem.) called up his resolution asking for a committee of two from the senate and three from the house to investigate on the lines of his resolution already printed. He stated that he had drawn his resolution of his own accord, and without consultation with his colleagues, but because he believed the grave charges made through the public prints against Auditor Woolson demanded an investigation.

A VAST CORRUPTION FUND.

Republicans Should Go Slow in Aiding Schemes to Replenish It.

A NAVAL REBUILDING STEAL.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

MEASURE CHANCE FOR THE REPEAL OF THE LIMITATION OF ARREARAGES BILL—The Crowd at the Capital—The Telephone Suit.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

PACKED FULL OF PEOPLE.

There has not been so large a crowd here as now since the consideration of the tariff bill in the first session of the Forty-seventh congress four years ago.

Captain Crawford's Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Major General Pope states today that he felt certain the Mexicans who attacked Captain Crawford were not regular troops, but renegades who took the opportunity of the war to enrich themselves in hope of obtaining the cash money offered by the state of Sonora for the hostiles.

TELEGRAPH NOTES.

St. Paul and Ellendale (Dak.) report severe cold weather.

A fire damaged the Albany (N. Y.) Brewing company's malt house $125,000.

The office of W. H. Jans, clerk of the district court, is divided into two parts by a counter which extends from the east to the western wall.

Horace S., Helen, Mary S. and George F. Newman, minors, by their guardian, Horace Newman, filed a petition in the district court yesterday asking the children of Peter Forbes, deceased, be compelled to partition his real estate.

A Red Canon (Cal.) prospector gathered rabbit manure enough during the late storm to do him till June. He cut down a lot of trees, piling up the manure, and the rabbits bit their brains out, and the property has never been divided.

A fight occurred in a farmyard at Stanley, N. J., a day or two ago between a mare and a bull dog. The mare finally killed the canine by falling on it, but had to be killed herself afterward on account of the injuries she had received during the encounter.

The most valuable postage stamp known to collectors is said to be one issued by the postmaster of Battledore, Vt., in 1847, which was suppressed after a few weeks. A specimen is now worth six or eight hundred dollars.

According to the Progress Medical, a method of treating rabies by inoculation was discovered in Leipzig, Prussia, and the journal as long ago as 1849, and the doctor recommending it was stated to be Constantine Hering of Philadelphia.

IT OUGHT TO SATISFY BOTH.

Senator Sherman Explains His Silver Bill Introduced Yesterday.

IT SUSPENDS SILVER COINAGE.

A Flood of Labor Petitions to Organize Indian Territory—Prospects of Sioux City's Public Building—Cleanings.

Senator Sherman's Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator John Sherman was seen to-night by your correspondent, and asked to explain the object of the bill introduced in the senate by him to-day. The senator replied: "Its provisions are simple. First, it suspends the coinage of silver; second, it issues coin certificates on loaner bullion; and last, the issue of similar certificates upon gold or silver coin, or gold bullion deposited with the treasurer as security."

A TUSSE FOR BLOOD.

A Sensational Match Between the Jap and Lewis.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—An exciting contest, with incidents bordering on the sensational, was witnessed to-night by a large audience at Central Park Hall. It was the match between Matsuda Sorakichi, the Japanese athlete, and Evan Lewis of Madison (Wis.). The terms were $300 a side and 75 per cent of the gate receipts, but in five falls, catch as catch can, Sorakichi was hardly a match for Lewis in point of strength, but as the contest progressed, Sorakichi showed more choice, and in skill the Jap was a trifle superior.

THE TIMES PROPERTY.

Surprising Proceedings in the Storey Will Contest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—There was no abatement of the interest in the progress of the Storey will case, which resulted at the close of the day's testimony in a surprise, the attorney for Mrs. Farrand, a sister of the deceased editor, and who had asked for the appeal from the probate court, asking to have the appeal dismissed on the question of insanity, which has been urged as the reason why the will of 1881 should not be probated.

DOING THE THING UP BROWN.

A Field Day in the Iowa Senate Over the Auditorship Investigation.

FACTION FRACAS OF HOT WORDS.

The Democrats Demand Provision for Representation on the Committee and Succeed in Securing Their Coveted Desire.

The Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—To-day was a field day with the Brown matter in the senate. It had been set for a special order at 3 p. m., and at that time Senator Johnson (dem.) called up his resolution asking for a committee of two from the senate and three from the house to investigate on the lines of his resolution already printed. He stated that he had drawn his resolution of his own accord, and without consultation with his colleagues, but because he believed the grave charges made through the public prints against Auditor Woolson demanded an investigation.

A VAST CORRUPTION FUND.

Republicans Should Go Slow in Aiding Schemes to Replenish It.

A NAVAL REBUILDING STEAL.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

MEASURE CHANCE FOR THE REPEAL OF THE LIMITATION OF ARREARAGES BILL—The Crowd at the Capital—The Telephone Suit.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

PACKED FULL OF PEOPLE.

There has not been so large a crowd here as now since the consideration of the tariff bill in the first session of the Forty-seventh congress four years ago.

Captain Crawford's Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Major General Pope states today that he felt certain the Mexicans who attacked Captain Crawford were not regular troops, but renegades who took the opportunity of the war to enrich themselves in hope of obtaining the cash money offered by the state of Sonora for the hostiles.

TELEGRAPH NOTES.

St. Paul and Ellendale (Dak.) report severe cold weather.

A fire damaged the Albany (N. Y.) Brewing company's malt house $125,000.

The office of W. H. Jans, clerk of the district court, is divided into two parts by a counter which extends from the east to the western wall.

Horace S., Helen, Mary S. and George F. Newman, minors, by their guardian, Horace Newman, filed a petition in the district court yesterday asking the children of Peter Forbes, deceased, be compelled to partition his real estate.

A Red Canon (Cal.) prospector gathered rabbit manure enough during the late storm to do him till June. He cut down a lot of trees, piling up the manure, and the rabbits bit their brains out, and the property has never been divided.

A fight occurred in a farmyard at Stanley, N. J., a day or two ago between a mare and a bull dog. The mare finally killed the canine by falling on it, but had to be killed herself afterward on account of the injuries she had received during the encounter.

The most valuable postage stamp known to collectors is said to be one issued by the postmaster of Battledore, Vt., in 1847, which was suppressed after a few weeks. A specimen is now worth six or eight hundred dollars.

According to the Progress Medical, a method of treating rabies by inoculation was discovered in Leipzig, Prussia, and the journal as long ago as 1849, and the doctor recommending it was stated to be Constantine Hering of Philadelphia.

IT OUGHT TO SATISFY BOTH.

Senator Sherman Explains His Silver Bill Introduced Yesterday.

IT SUSPENDS SILVER COINAGE.

A Flood of Labor Petitions to Organize Indian Territory—Prospects of Sioux City's Public Building—Cleanings.

Senator Sherman's Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator John Sherman was seen to-night by your correspondent, and asked to explain the object of the bill introduced in the senate by him to-day. The senator replied: "Its provisions are simple. First, it suspends the coinage of silver; second, it issues coin certificates on loaner bullion; and last, the issue of similar certificates upon gold or silver coin, or gold bullion deposited with the treasurer as security."

A TUSSE FOR BLOOD.

A Sensational Match Between the Jap and Lewis.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—An exciting contest, with incidents bordering on the sensational, was witnessed to-night by a large audience at Central Park Hall. It was the match between Matsuda Sorakichi, the Japanese athlete, and Evan Lewis of Madison (Wis.). The terms were $300 a side and 75 per cent of the gate receipts, but in five falls, catch as catch can, Sorakichi was hardly a match for Lewis in point of strength, but as the contest progressed, Sorakichi showed more choice, and in skill the Jap was a trifle superior.

THE TIMES PROPERTY.

Surprising Proceedings in the Storey Will Contest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—There was no abatement of the interest in the progress of the Storey will case, which resulted at the close of the day's testimony in a surprise, the attorney for Mrs. Farrand, a sister of the deceased editor, and who had asked for the appeal from the probate court, asking to have the appeal dismissed on the question of insanity, which has been urged as the reason why the will of 1881 should not be probated.

DOING THE THING UP BROWN.

A Field Day in the Iowa Senate Over the Auditorship Investigation.

FACTION FRACAS OF HOT WORDS.

The Democrats Demand Provision for Representation on the Committee and Succeed in Securing Their Coveted Desire.

The Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—To-day was a field day with the Brown matter in the senate. It had been set for a special order at 3 p. m., and at that time Senator Johnson (dem.) called up his resolution asking for a committee of two from the senate and three from the house to investigate on the lines of his resolution already printed. He stated that he had drawn his resolution of his own accord, and without consultation with his colleagues, but because he believed the grave charges made through the public prints against Auditor Woolson demanded an investigation.

A VAST CORRUPTION FUND.

Republicans Should Go Slow in Aiding Schemes to Replenish It.

A NAVAL REBUILDING STEAL.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

MEASURE CHANCE FOR THE REPEAL OF THE LIMITATION OF ARREARAGES BILL—The Crowd at the Capital—The Telephone Suit.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

PACKED FULL OF PEOPLE.

There has not been so large a crowd here as now since the consideration of the tariff bill in the first session of the Forty-seventh congress four years ago.

Captain Crawford's Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Major General Pope states today that he felt certain the Mexicans who attacked Captain Crawford were not regular troops, but renegades who took the opportunity of the war to enrich themselves in hope of obtaining the cash money offered by the state of Sonora for the hostiles.

TELEGRAPH NOTES.

St. Paul and Ellendale (Dak.) report severe cold weather.

A fire damaged the Albany (N. Y.) Brewing company's malt house $125,000.

The office of W. H. Jans, clerk of the district court, is divided into two parts by a counter which extends from the east to the western wall.

Horace S., Helen, Mary S. and George F. Newman, minors, by their guardian, Horace Newman, filed a petition in the district court yesterday asking the children of Peter Forbes, deceased, be compelled to partition his real estate.

A Red Canon (Cal.) prospector gathered rabbit manure enough during the late storm to do him till June. He cut down a lot of trees, piling up the manure, and the rabbits bit their brains out, and the property has never been divided.

A fight occurred in a farmyard at Stanley, N. J., a day or two ago between a mare and a bull dog. The mare finally killed the canine by falling on it, but had to be killed herself afterward on account of the injuries she had received during the encounter.

The most valuable postage stamp known to collectors is said to be one issued by the postmaster of Battledore, Vt., in 1847, which was suppressed after a few weeks. A specimen is now worth six or eight hundred dollars.

According to the Progress Medical, a method of treating rabies by inoculation was discovered in Leipzig, Prussia, and the journal as long ago as 1849, and the doctor recommending it was stated to be Constantine Hering of Philadelphia.

IT OUGHT TO SATISFY BOTH.

Senator Sherman Explains His Silver Bill Introduced Yesterday.

IT SUSPENDS SILVER COINAGE.

A Flood of Labor Petitions to Organize Indian Territory—Prospects of Sioux City's Public Building—Cleanings.

Senator Sherman's Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator John Sherman was seen to-night by your correspondent, and asked to explain the object of the bill introduced in the senate by him to-day. The senator replied: "Its provisions are simple. First, it suspends the coinage of silver; second, it issues coin certificates on loaner bullion; and last, the issue of similar certificates upon gold or silver coin, or gold bullion deposited with the treasurer as security."

A TUSSE FOR BLOOD.

A Sensational Match Between the Jap and Lewis.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—An exciting contest, with incidents bordering on the sensational, was witnessed to-night by a large audience at Central Park Hall. It was the match between Matsuda Sorakichi, the Japanese athlete, and Evan Lewis of Madison (Wis.). The terms were $300 a side and 75 per cent of the gate receipts, but in five falls, catch as catch can, Sorakichi was hardly a match for Lewis in point of strength, but as the contest progressed, Sorakichi showed more choice, and in skill the Jap was a trifle superior.

THE TIMES PROPERTY.

Surprising Proceedings in the Storey Will Contest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—There was no abatement of the interest in the progress of the Storey will case, which resulted at the close of the day's testimony in a surprise, the attorney for Mrs. Farrand, a sister of the deceased editor, and who had asked for the appeal from the probate court, asking to have the appeal dismissed on the question of insanity, which has been urged as the reason why the will of 1881 should not be probated.

DOING THE THING UP BROWN.

A Field Day in the Iowa Senate Over the Auditorship Investigation.

FACTION FRACAS OF HOT WORDS.

The Democrats Demand Provision for Representation on the Committee and Succeed in Securing Their Coveted Desire.

The Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—To-day was a field day with the Brown matter in the senate. It had been set for a special order at 3 p. m., and at that time Senator Johnson (dem.) called up his resolution asking for a committee of two from the senate and three from the house to investigate on the lines of his resolution already printed. He stated that he had drawn his resolution of his own accord, and without consultation with his colleagues, but because he believed the grave charges made through the public prints against Auditor Woolson demanded an investigation.

A VAST CORRUPTION FUND.

Republicans Should Go Slow in Aiding Schemes to Replenish It.

A NAVAL REBUILDING STEAL.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

MEASURE CHANCE FOR THE REPEAL OF THE LIMITATION OF ARREARAGES BILL—The Crowd at the Capital—The Telephone Suit.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Many republicans here, while forecasting the future, are decidedly of the opinion that the republicans in congress should go slow in committing themselves to the scheme of the administration for appropriating vast sums for sea-coast defenses, for rebuilding the navy, and for furnishing vast stores of heavy armor.

PACKED FULL OF PEOPLE.

There has not been so large a crowd here as now since the consideration of the tariff bill in the first session of the Forty-seventh congress four years ago.

Captain Crawford's Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Major General Pope states today that he felt certain the Mexicans who attacked Captain Crawford were not regular troops, but renegades who took the opportunity of the war to enrich themselves in hope of obtaining the cash money offered by the state of Sonora for the hostiles.

TELEGRAPH NOTES.

St. Paul and Ellendale (Dak.) report severe cold weather.