CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS

Colored Citizens of Washington Complain of Discriminations. BUTLER ON THE DAKOTA BILL. The South Carolina Senator Opposes Admission-Wilson of Iowa Supports the Measure-Routine Work in the House.

Senate. WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Mr. Ingalls presented a petition from Frederick Douglas and leading colored citizens of the District of Columbia, complaining against discriminations against them in theaters and other places of public entertainment in the city of Washington.

Mr. Butler's substitute for the committee's bill was read. It is an "enabling act," providing for the admission of the territory of Dakota as a whole, as a state of the union, when election shall have been held under this act.

Mr. Butler then took the floor in support of his substitute. He said that he had received information of fraud in the procedure taken for the admission of the territory as a whole.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa contended that every step for the formation of a state should be in accordance with their own views, and that the pressure will pass her on to the hearts of the people.

Local Breivites. Dr. Benson is making arrangements for a children's ball to be held shortly. The Montana Copper company's mines are to be closed on account of the low price of copper.

Anderson Lewis, bartender in Sam King's saloon, Eleventh street and Capitol avenue, was arrested last night on receipt of a warrant for "knocking down" $80. Both parties are colored.

Teetotalers Sing and Play. An interesting entertainment was given in the Parish hall, corner Ninth and Howard streets, by the members and friends of St. Philomena's temperance society.

THE CHAUTAQUA CLUB. The C. L. S. C. will hold one of its most interesting sessions this (Friday) evening in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A., or if the parlors are too small in the general hall.

Golden Pledge Entertainment. The next programme of this popular society of the St. Mary's avenue Congregational church, will include piano selections by Miss Fanulo E. Loomis.

Firemen Coasters. The fire boys of No. 3 cart are making a travis of prodigious size and robustness which they propose to send flying down the hill at the coasting carnival.

Fell From the Ice Palace. St. Paul, Jan. 28.—Andrew Pavlitzki fell eighty feet from the main tower of the ice palace last afternoon, breaking his jaw and ribs. He will die.

TALKS WITH TRAVELERS.

Short Interviews Gathered in the Hotel Rotunda. M. P. Kirkland, O'Neill, Neb.: "There is no special effort now being made to remove the land office from Niobrara to O'Neill, but I think, nevertheless, that it will be but a matter of a short time before the removal will be made."
