

THE DAILY BEE COUNCIL BLUFFS.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 29. OFFICE: No. 12 Pearl Street. Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at ten cents per week.

H. W. TILTON, Manager. TELEPHONES, 43. BUSINESS OFFICE, No. 63. NIGHT EDITOR, No. 51.

MINOR MENTION.

Panis to order, from $5 up, at Reiter's. Some thief broke into the stable of R. P. Kemper, the Broadway groceryman, Wednesday night and got away with two sets of harness, one single, the other double.

Henry Arnold was fined yesterday for being drunk. It seems that he has been having ice, and the team being left in his charge, he left the horses standing on the street while he wandered off on his drunk.

Mrs. Annie Grull now wants to be set free from Charles Grull, to whom she was married at St. Joseph in October, 1884. She claims that in the following March he was sent to the penitentiary for two years for larceny.

The alarm of fire yesterday was caused by the overheating of a stove in the dining room in the Western house, which ignited the carpet in a room above. The damage was very small, and no water was thrown by the fire department.

Great preparations are being made by some of the traverse owners for attending the coasting carnival in Omaha on Saturday evening. It is reported that many ladies of this city are preparing coasting costumes for the occasion.

All those desirous of attending the coasting carnival in Omaha on Saturday evening next will confer a favor by having their names before 6 o'clock Friday evening at the office of the City Roller Mills, so that transportation can be secured.

On Wednesday evening there was a little gathering of friends, strictly informal, at the residence of Mr. Samuel Egan, on Sixth street. An opportunity was thus given the friends to meet the Misses Minnie and Pauline Wadleigh and Miss Mamie Gage, who are guests of Miss Mary Haas.

Round trip tickets for the ice carnival at St. Paul will be placed on sale at the Union ticket office, J. L. DeBevoise, agent, as follows: On February 1 and 2, good until February 8; on the 8th and 9th, good until the 16th; on the 16th and 17th, good until the 24th, on the 24th and 25th, good until March 1.

Thieves seem determined to have the saloons kept open. Some of them Wednesday night, finding the saloon of Oliver Lower closed, corner of Main street and Eleventh avenue, proceeded to open it by forcing open the door on Eleventh avenue. They helped themselves to all the cigars in the case and some bottles of whisky.

As will be seen by notice elsewhere, Eisenman, Rodda & Co. have dissolved, and the Peoples store will hereafter be conducted by Messrs. Henry and Simon Eisenman. Mr. Rodda, who retires from the firm will continue in its employ. The Peoples store has proved a great success and its popularity will be increased.

The musical play entitled "The Fish Lion" will be presented by a well-drilled amateur dramatic club at Temple Hall, Thursday evening, February 4, to be followed by the side-splitting farce "Intervening Mrs. Pratt," an episode of Mormon life. Admission has been reduced to twenty-five cents, and a full house should encourage home talent.

The late grand jury have not got their feathers down since Judge Loomis' ruling on the case of the Nonaup. They now propose to see if the Nonaup can prove the assertion it made, that a policeman, who was being investigated, was allowed to remain in the room while they lollied on his case. They now demand proof or retraction. The are also preparing a statement about other matters.

A fellow named Cole, who lives on Bacco street, gave the police a pointer. It has cost him dear. He was fined to them that a fellow was trying to pass a counterfeit $100 bill, and put the boys in blue on his track. He is said then to have slipped around to the fellow and told him that the police were on to him. It was learned that the bill instead of being a counterfeit was a genuine one, but of no account, it being one of the old state bank bills, from Missouri, a relic of former days. The fellow had simply been flourishing it about, with no idea of passing it. On learning these facts the police arrested their informant, Cole, and lodged him in jail as a vagrant.

For hardware and house furnishings get prices of Cooper & McGee, No. 41 Main street.

Substantial abstracts of title and real estate loans. J. W. & E. L. Squire, 101 Pearl street.

Personal Paragraphs. N. D. Sanford of Avoca was in the city yesterday.

Samuel Haas has returned home from business trip.

Mrs. Samuel Clark is recovering from her serious illness.

Jerry Myers has returned from his visit to Pennsylvania.

Bob Flynn of Des Moines was at the Ogden yesterday.

E. D. Fisher has returned from a western business trip.

Rev. W. T. Smith, the presiding elder, yesterday went to Blanchard on a short visit.

G. Washington French, traveling freight agent of the Louisville & Nashville road, was in the city yesterday.

A. S. Swearingen of Mendota, Ill., who has made many acquaintances here by his pool selling during the races, is in the city.

Miss May Stone of Chicago is expected to arrive in this city to-day. She will be the guest of Miss Mary Haas, No. 124 Sixth street.

Misses Minnie and Pauline Wadleigh of Clinton, Iowa, and Miss Mamie Gage of Lyons, Iowa, are in the city, the guests of Miss Mary Haas.

Notice. Notice is hereby given that by mutual consent the firm of Eisenman, Rodda & Co. is this day dissolved, and the new firm of Henry Eisenman & Co., composed of Henry Eisenman and Simon Eisenman, has this day been formed, and the stock of the old company will be at once consolidated and placed in the rooms now occupied by the firm of Eisenman, Rodda & Co., Nos. 316, 318 and 320 Broadway, where the new firm of Henry Eisenman & Co. will continue to do business. Said new firm assumes all the liabilities and will pay all the debts of the old concern, and will collect and receive all claims due the same. Mr. S. J. Rodda, though not a member of the new firm, will continue in its employ.

PLANNING FOR THE PARKS.

Council Bluffs Frostily Boasts of Leading the State in Summer Beauty. OWNERS OF SALOON BUILDINGS. A Young Man With a Weakness For Overcoats—A Paper Thief Nabbed—Other Gatherings of News In and About the City.

A City of Parks.

This is not the most suitable sort of weather to indulge in much attention to parks, but the time draws near for arranging for the appropriation for this year, and hence the park commissioners and aldermen are looking over the probable needs. Council Bluffs is the only Iowa city which really has any parks. Some of the cities have a square, and some of them call such places parks, but this city really has parks. The parks are not only so extensive, but they possess such natural beauty that by the expenditure of a little money each year Council Bluffs would soon be known far and near for the beauty and extent of its parks, if for nothing else. The citizens themselves, at least many of them, do not realize what a wealth of parks Council Bluffs possesses. There are between 600 and 700 acres of parks belonging to this city.

Most are familiar with Bayless park, that being in the center of the city. It is a little beauty, but it needs some improvements. There should be some filling done, and new walks laid. A fountain should be added to the attractiveness of the place. Such are some of the improvements being considered by the commissioners.

Lake View park is one which is by Big Lake. It is proposed to find the meandered lines, and a plan is being talked over of condemning land for a road, 150 feet wide, connecting with Cherry street.

Fairmount park is one of which this city has reason to be proud, it being the grandest natural park in this part of the country. It seems necessary to define the east and west sides by fences, as there has been more or less cutting away of the bluffs, and there may be some encroachment upon the park grounds, unless some such precaution is taken. There is also being considered the advisability of opening a driveway from Park avenue.

Another driveway, entering the park from the south, is also being considered. It is desired that fountains be placed in the park this year, as there is an abundant water supply.

Many citizens are not aware that the city has a small park in Galesburg addition, near Foster's greenhouse. There is a block there, which is valuable, and with some slight care will be one of the prettiest parks in the city. It needs to be trimmed up and fenced.

Little attention has been paid to Island park since the citizens had an excursion there last year. In order to make the park really available it is necessary to buy about twenty acres more. Then there would be a drive clear around Carr's lake, and beautiful picnic grounds. It is proposed to grade around the lake and raise the water some.

The appropriation of last year amounted to $2,500. The present levy will not bring in any money until next fall, so that this $2,500 really has to cover last year's expenses and this summer's outlay, unless the commissioners anticipate the coming in of the cash.

These matters are being considered carefully, and there will be no hasty moves made. It seems desirable that some marked improvements should be made, however, each year, and this can be done without any great burden on the taxpayers. Council Bluffs has a chance to make itself known all over the country by its parks, and at the same time its citizens can have much enjoyment from them.

Correct Abstracts of Title and Real Estate Loans at McMahon & Co's, No. 4 Pearl street.

Money to loan on chattels, by Forbes Smith, 150 Main street.

Owners of Saloon Buildings. The injunction fights under the prohibitory law have been mainly centered about the business itself, and the active saloon men, rather than the owners of the buildings in which such saloons are located. In Des Moines petitions have been filed to secure injunctions against the property owners. The main point in issue was whether they were liable. Their attorney argued before Judge Given of the supreme court that as they had leased for no illegal purpose, their affirmative section must be given for the transaction of the illegal business, before they could be held liable. The prosecution on the other hand claimed that they had been given ample notification, both by seizures and other lawful process, and must consequently be held.

Judge Given decided that the property owners had been sufficiently notified, and were subject to injunctions with the saloon keepers. In deciding this point the court says:

It is claimed on behalf of defendant that he was held to be liable for the sale of liquor, and that he had actual knowledge thereof and has assented thereto by some affirmative act. On the other hand it is claimed by the prosecution that the defendant is charged with the duty of seeing that his property is not used for unlawful purposes, and is liable to be held liable for the sale of liquor, if he does not know that which the law makes it his duty to know. In the State vs. French, 101 Neb. 100, it was held that a person who charges an owner with permitting an unlawful business it must be shown that after he became aware of the illegal use of his property he failed to do some act of some declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

This brings us to determine whether from the facts of the case it is shown that the defendant had knowledge of the use of his property for the sale of liquor, and whether he assented thereto. The unlawful business is shown to have been carried on in his building from May 15, 1885, to January 14, 1886, nearly a month after the filing of his assent or declaration affirmatively assenting thereto. The last paragraph of section 148 of the code makes it the duty of the owner of property leased for lawful purposes to see that no nuisance in permitting the same to be used in violation of law, it must appear that he has knowledge thereof and has assented thereto.

diol determination that such unlawful business as being carried on in violation of his lease, as made it a nuisance, yet notwithstanding such information he proposes nothing toward its abatement but to let the court decide the matter.

It points in glowing colors the general cussedness of hypocrites, liars, backbiters, and scandal mongers, and condemns them to a hereafter where they will probably cry out in their agony, for some one to come and lay a ton or two of ice on their parched tongues. They are all handled without gloves, and justly, too, the whole interspersed with laughable anecdotes, that are not only interesting but bear directly upon the subject. Mr. Cumback has a good and well trained delivery, while his enunciation is as clear and distinct as though he were but thirty years old. All who heard him were well pleased, and we heard many expressions of regret that such treats were so far between.

Last evening a birthday party was given Miss Anna Bradbury at her home, the Essex house.

AN ACROBATIC FAMILY.

The Hanlon Brothers and Their Remarkable Escapes From Death. Philadelphia Times. In Manchester in 1859, while the elder brothers were playing in "The Two Flying Men of the Air," William fell from a trapeze and broke two of his ribs, one of his arms, and cut his head.

As the temporary injunction is granted as prayed against the defendants, Conrad and Lehane, upon the plaintiffs giving bond, the bond is conditioned for the payment of all costs which may be added against the plaintiff by reason of such injunction.

Code, sec. 526. The temporary injunction is granted as prayed against the defendants, Conrad and Lehane, upon the plaintiffs giving bond, the bond is conditioned for the payment of all costs which may be added against the plaintiff by reason of such injunction.

Cottage ranges, Garland stoves Radiant Homes and Hub Heaters of the very latest patterns at bed rock prices, at Cooper & McGee's, No. 41 Main street.

Best coal and wood in the city at Gleason's, 30 Pearl street.

Stop Thief. There has been a great deal of annoyance caused of late by sneaks stealing newspapers from subscribers. The morning papers being delivered by carrier boys at so early an hour when there are few on the streets, gives an excellent chance for such thieves to take a paper without being observed. They have been improving this opportunity, and as a consequence subscribers have been disappointed, carriers have often been blamed for missing, and there has been a great deal of nervous strain and irritation all around. The BEE has had its share of this trouble, and has lately been on the lookout for such fellows. Yesterday morning Capt. Anderson, manager of the merchants' police, caught one of these fellows, and brought him to the front. He was a boy about seventeen years of age, named Charles Hollingsworth. He had just helped himself to a paper from a box at the residence of D. J. Rockwell, No. 813 1/2 Third street, when the officer nabbed him. He admitted to have taken the BEE several times before. In police court yesterday morning he pleaded guilty to larceny, and was fined $5 and costs, suspended for three months, and sentenced to give the boy a chance to behave himself hereafter, and re-vested that his name be not made public on account of the excellent standing of the family.

The BEE has no malice against the boy and regrets that any of his friends should suffer on account of his acts. But it is time that an example was made of this class of sneak-thieves for while the value of a single paper is not great, yet the trouble caused by taking so small a thing is considerable. The publicity is given to the matter as a warning to others who may feel disposed to indulge in this sort of pilfering. The BEE, as well as the Nonpareil and other papers has decided to keep up a watchfulness, and let no guilty man or boy escape. The pilfering of newspapers is too great an annoyance to be allowed to be kept up, and whenever anyone is caught committing such an act the papers will give him the full benefit of advertising in the courts and in the columns.

The Irish Lion and Interviewing Mrs. Pratt at Masonic hall, Thursday, February 1. Remember the date. Admission 25 cents.

The Evans & Hoey company in "A Parlor Match" was received at Doherty's opera house last evening with an extraordinary large and appreciative audience.

The Overcoat Weakness. George Wilson was lately sent to jail for sneaking a hat from the Tremont house. His time was up Wednesday, but he had not been out of jail more than two hours before the officers had him again, charged with a like offense. It appears that he proceeded straight from the jail to the Creston house and tore helmed himself to an overcoat belonging to William Middleton, one of the boarders. He took the coat to Drollich's second hand store, on Broadway, and sold it for $1, although the coat was one that cost over $20. The officers soon after arrested him. When taken in he was found to have on another overcoat, which it is said was stolen from one of the colored boys in the Pacific, and under it he had a lady's jersey, so that it seems he plied his business actively during his short spell of freedom. On being brought before Judge Aylesworth yesterday morning he listened to the information charging him with larceny and admitted it at the time, and asked the judge if he couldn't make it petty larceny. He did not believe the overcoat was worth $20, but the judge informed him it made no difference, as there would be some act of some kind against him for stealing another overcoat from another hotel. This rather weakened his hopes, and he asked for a few days to see what he wanted to do about it. His examination was therefore set for Saturday.

Great Day For Macedonia. MACEDONIA, Iowa, Jan. 28.—Ex-Governor Will Cumback of Indiana was welcomed by a full house last night at Dye's hall. B. F. Clayton, esq., introduced the speaker by a few appropriate remarks, giving a brief synopsis of the speaker's early history, from entering congress at the age of 26 up to the present time. He dwelt briefly upon the progress made by the three western states, viz: Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas, made since the latter first entered congress. At that time the states mentioned were very small spots in America's history, but to-day, they rank among the foremost states of the Union.

Putting his remarks off as short as possible he introduced Mr. Cumback. We would like to give the readers of the BEE the full lecture, so that those who have never been privileged to listen to it might get the benefit of it, but we suppose that would rather be infringing on the patent. Mr. Cumback held the audience for about one hour and twenty minutes, and we presume no audience was ever so long entertained in Council Bluffs. The lecture, "The Invisible Some People," is founded upon the inconsistencies of the world at large, and is very emphatic in its denunciation of those who are ever anxious to tell the ball of scandal, and prove their assertions by the theory that "some people say."

It points in glowing colors the general cussedness of hypocrites, liars, backbiters, and scandal mongers, and condemns them to a hereafter where they will probably cry out in their agony, for some one to come and lay a ton or two of ice on their parched tongues. They are all handled without gloves, and justly, too, the whole interspersed with laughable anecdotes, that are not only interesting but bear directly upon the subject. Mr. Cumback has a good and well trained delivery, while his enunciation is as clear and distinct as though he were but thirty years old. All who heard him were well pleased, and we heard many expressions of regret that such treats were so far between.

Last evening a birthday party was given Miss Anna Bradbury at her home, the Essex house.

AN ACROBATIC FAMILY.

The Hanlon Brothers and Their Remarkable Escapes From Death. Philadelphia Times. In Manchester in 1859, while the elder brothers were playing in "The Two Flying Men of the Air," William fell from a trapeze and broke two of his ribs, one of his arms, and cut his head.

As the temporary injunction is granted as prayed against the defendants, Conrad and Lehane, upon the plaintiffs giving bond, the bond is conditioned for the payment of all costs which may be added against the plaintiff by reason of such injunction.

Code, sec. 526. The temporary injunction is granted as prayed against the defendants, Conrad and Lehane, upon the plaintiffs giving bond, the bond is conditioned for the payment of all costs which may be added against the plaintiff by reason of such injunction.

Cottage ranges, Garland stoves Radiant Homes and Hub Heaters of the very latest patterns at bed rock prices, at Cooper & McGee's, No. 41 Main street.

Best coal and wood in the city at Gleason's, 30 Pearl street.

Stop Thief. There has been a great deal of annoyance caused of late by sneaks stealing newspapers from subscribers. The morning papers being delivered by carrier boys at so early an hour when there are few on the streets, gives an excellent chance for such thieves to take a paper without being observed. They have been improving this opportunity, and as a consequence subscribers have been disappointed, carriers have often been blamed for missing, and there has been a great deal of nervous strain and irritation all around. The BEE has had its share of this trouble, and has lately been on the lookout for such fellows. Yesterday morning Capt. Anderson, manager of the merchants' police, caught one of these fellows, and brought him to the front. He was a boy about seventeen years of age, named Charles Hollingsworth. He had just helped himself to a paper from a box at the residence of D. J. Rockwell, No. 813 1/2 Third street, when the officer nabbed him. He admitted to have taken the BEE several times before. In police court yesterday morning he pleaded guilty to larceny, and was fined $5 and costs, suspended for three months, and sentenced to give the boy a chance to behave himself hereafter, and re-vested that his name be not made public on account of the excellent standing of the family.

The BEE has no malice against the boy and regrets that any of his friends should suffer on account of his acts. But it is time that an example was made of this class of sneak-thieves for while the value of a single paper is not great, yet the trouble caused by taking so small a thing is considerable. The publicity is given to the matter as a warning to others who may feel disposed to indulge in this sort of pilfering. The BEE, as well as the Nonpareil and other papers has decided to keep up a watchfulness, and let no guilty man or boy escape. The pilfering of newspapers is too great an annoyance to be allowed to be kept up, and whenever anyone is caught committing such an act the papers will give him the full benefit of advertising in the courts and in the columns.

The Irish Lion and Interviewing Mrs. Pratt at Masonic hall, Thursday, February 1. Remember the date. Admission 25 cents.

The Evans & Hoey company in "A Parlor Match" was received at Doherty's opera house last evening with an extraordinary large and appreciative audience.

The Overcoat Weakness. George Wilson was lately sent to jail for sneaking a hat from the Tremont house. His time was up Wednesday, but he had not been out of jail more than two hours before the officers had him again, charged with a like offense. It appears that he proceeded straight from the jail to the Creston house and tore helmed himself to an overcoat belonging to William Middleton, one of the boarders. He took the coat to Drollich's second hand store, on Broadway, and sold it for $1, although the coat was one that cost over $20. The officers soon after arrested him. When taken in he was found to have on another overcoat, which it is said was stolen from one of the colored boys in the Pacific, and under it he had a lady's jersey, so that it seems he plied his business actively during his short spell of freedom. On being brought before Judge Aylesworth yesterday morning he listened to the information charging him with larceny and admitted it at the time, and asked the judge if he couldn't make it petty larceny. He did not believe the overcoat was worth $20, but the judge informed him it made no difference, as there would be some act of some kind against him for stealing another overcoat from another hotel. This rather weakened his hopes, and he asked for a few days to see what he wanted to do about it. His examination was therefore set for Saturday.

Great Day For Macedonia. MACEDONIA, Iowa, Jan. 28.—Ex-Governor Will Cumback of Indiana was welcomed by a full house last night at Dye's hall. B. F. Clayton, esq., introduced the speaker by a few appropriate remarks, giving a brief synopsis of the speaker's early history, from entering congress at the age of 26 up to the present time. He dwelt briefly upon the progress made by the three western states, viz: Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas, made since the latter first entered congress. At that time the states mentioned were very small spots in America's history, but to-day, they rank among the foremost states of the Union.

Putting his remarks off as short as possible he introduced Mr. Cumback. We would like to give the readers of the BEE the full lecture, so that those who have never been privileged to listen to it might get the benefit of it, but we suppose that would rather be infringing on the patent. Mr. Cumback held the audience for about one hour and twenty minutes, and we presume no audience was ever so long entertained in Council Bluffs. The lecture, "The Invisible Some People," is founded upon the inconsistencies

SPECIAL NOTICES

NOTICE.—Special advertisements, such as Lost, Found, To Loan For Sale, To Rent, Wants, Boarding, etc., will be inserted in this column at the low rate of TEN CENTS PER LINE for the first insertion and FIVE CENTS PER LINE for each subsequent insertion. Leave advertisements at our office, No. 12 Pearl street, near Broadway, Council Bluffs.

WANTS. FOR RENT.—House, 214 Tenth avenue, five rooms, all conveniences. Enquire of Arndt & Son, No. 519 Main street.

FOR SALE.—Sealed bids will be received by J. W. Holsler up to February 23, 1886, on eighty feet front, two story brick block, Nos. 22, 24, 26 and 28 Pearl street, between Broadway and First avenue.

FOR RENT.—The three-story brick business house formerly occupied by Greenlee & Schenck, Enquire of McMahon & Co., No. 4 Pearl street.

SWAN & WALKER, No. 38 Main street, under Citizen's Bank, real estate and merchandise exchange brokers. Our books are full of special bargains, but it is impossible to publish a reliable list from the fact of so many daily changes. What we ask, if you want to sell or trade anything in our line, write us and we will send you a pile of bargains to select from. Property, stocks of goods of any kind in any place, if such you have or such you want to let us hear from you. Swan & Walker, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

$120 Made in 31 days by a lady agent of the "Equitable." We want six more live agents, male or female. Apply in person or by letter to Wm. Randall, Sup't. of agencies, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

FARM FOR SALE.—At a bargain if sold soon, 100 acres, 6 1/2 miles southwest of Omaha, 4 room house, excellent well and cistern, 23 barns, one for eight horses, one for 23 cows; land, 100 and wagon houses; 100 acres in timothy; 4000 forest trees, cotton wood, black walnut, ash and white oak; one apple orchard, cherries, plums, grapes and small fruit; 5000 bushels of corn, water, R. P. OFFICER, 509 Broadway, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

HOUSES FOR RENT.—At McMahon & Co's, No. 4 Pearl street.

RUSSELL & Co

Manufacturers of all sizes of AUTOMATIC ENGINES

Especially Designed for Running MILLS, GRAIN ELEVATORS, AND ELECTRIC LIGHTS,

Tubular and Locomotive Boilers. New Massillon Threshers. Carey and Woodbury Horse Powers.

STATIONARY, SKID, Portable and Traction Engines, SAW MILLS, ETC.

Factory Massillon, O. Branch House 510 Pearl St., Council Bluffs.

SEND FOR 1886 ANNUAL.

CARPETS.

Our stock is now complete in every department and contains all the latest styles and effects in CARPETS, CURTAINS, SHADES

UPHOLSTERY GOODS, ETC., ETC.

Best Goods are Put in Smallest Parcels.

The old proverb is certainly true in the case of Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," which are little, sugar-wrapped parcels, scarcely larger than mustard seeds, containing as much cathartic power as a large pill in the biggest, most repulsive-looking pill. Unlike the big pills, however, they are mild and pleasant in their operation—do not produce griping pains, nor render the bowels costive after using.

Just prior to the time Thomas fell at Pike's opera house the brothers, who were the originators of a theater under canvas, followed the army with the first theatrical troupe of soldiers and officers fought to get in and the Hanlons reaped a harvest. It was when they reached Cincinnati that they abandoned their circus theater and went to play at Pike's opera house.

Just prior to the time Thomas fell at Pike's opera house the brothers, who were the originators of a theater under canvas, followed the army with the first theatrical troupe of soldiers and officers fought to get in and the Hanlons reaped a harvest. It was when they reached Cincinnati that they abandoned their circus theater and went to play at Pike's opera house.

Just prior to the time Thomas fell at Pike's opera house the brothers, who were the originators of a theater under canvas, followed the army with