

STUDY IN RAILROAD FIGURES.

Cleanings from the Commission's Annual Report to the Governor.

A TOTAL MILEAGE OF 2,767.16.

A Busy Day with the Clerk of the District Court—The Auditor Refuses to Register City Bonds—Capital News.

[FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.]

The railroad commissioners are preparing for submission to the governor their annual report showing the condition of the various roads doing business in Nebraska up to June 30, 1885. The following facts are gleaned from advance tables: There are eight roads operating in this state, a combined mileage of 2,767.16, an increase of 42.68 miles over 1884. The aggregate mileage of the systems running main and branch lines into Nebraska is 10,162.28. The estimated cost including equipment of the 2,767.16 miles of road in this state is $101,527,919.18. The proportion of the stock and debt of these eight roads for Nebraska is $124,642,725.17, an average of over $45,000 a mile. The capital stock foots up $18,402.61, and the debt $106,240.56 per mile. The total capital stock for the mileage in this state is $90,923,214.83, and the total debt $73,719,510.34. The gross earnings from Nebraska business during the year were $1,319,319, an average of $473.36 per mile of road operated. The highest passenger earnings per train mile were by the Omaha, Niobrara & Black Hills road, $5,000, the smallest by the Chicago, St. Paul & Minneapolis & North Western, $1.50. The earnings from freight per train mile vary from $5.50 on the B. & M. to $1.00 on the Minneapolis & Omaha. The operating expenses aggregate $9,089,888.33, an average of $3,284.90 per mile.

The following are among the tables prepared by the commission:

Table with 2 columns: MILEAGE IN THE STATE, and values for various railroads like Burlington & Missouri, Union Pacific, etc.

Table with 2 columns: MILES ROAD BUILT LAST YEAR, and values for C. St. P. M. & O., Union Pacific, etc.

Table with 2 columns: TOTAL MILEAGE OF SYSTEMS, and values for Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, C. St. P. M. & O., etc.

Table with 2 columns: STOCK AND DEBT IN NEBRASKA, and values for Union Pacific, Burlington & Missouri, etc.

Table with 2 columns: TRAIN EARNINGS PER MILE, and values for Sioux City & Pacific, St. Joe & Western, etc.

Clerk Sizor of the district court, was kept unusually busy yesterday entering new cases on the docket, no less than seven being handed in, as follows:

Fanny N. Peterson vs. Peterson, petition for divorce on ground of adultery. Plaintiff, whose maiden name was Beadle, was married to defendant at Waterloo, Iowa, March 19, 1885, and contracted with defendant a vile disease, etc.

Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railway vs. County of Lincoln, according to a writ of habeas corpus; petition for temporary injunction restraining the collection of taxes on depot grounds in the city of Lincoln for years 1880 to 1885 inclusive, plaintiffs alleging that same have been returned to state officials.

St. A. Brown & Co. vs. Preston Heaton, et al; action to recover $340 for material furnished and used in construction of various buildings.

Fritz Lucke vs. John and Mary Akker; action to recover on two promissory notes of $1,300 and $108 each.

Basid & Dillon et al vs. Annie M. Day et al; petition alleging that defendant is indebted to plaintiffs for $300,000 and $50,000 Missouri Public bonds voted by the people of Lincoln, on the ground that the bonded indebtedness of the city is already in excess of the 10 per cent limit. The assessed valuation for taxable purposes is about $2,180,000 and the bonds outstanding amount to nearly $300,000, being some $90,000 over the proportion fixed by law. Mr. Babcock is said to base his refusal on the opinion of the supreme court in "State ex rel Wiant vs. Babcock," when Justice Maxwell held that the 10 per cent provision restricts the entire issue of bonds by the county to 10 per cent on the assessed valuation. Good lawyers were retained to represent the city and it was probably insisted upon an opinion by the attorney general or chief justice before proceeding.

BRIEF MENTION. Machine for testing the test well in the salt well is beginning to arrive, and active operations will be commenced within two weeks.

Mrs. Governor Dawes has gone to Fortness Monday, to visit her father, Major W. J. Dawes, who is recovering from a major ill. It is a curious coincidence that the governor's name is J. W. Dawes and that of his father-in-law W. J. Dawes. A petition is being circulated asking the state to sell at auction the Gillespie property, southeast of the capitol, which came into possession of the state some years ago on foreclosure proceedings. Attorney General Lester is looking over the transcript in the matter of the State Matthews, plaintiff in error, vs the State of Nebraska. Matthews was convicted in July, 1885, of having outraged Catherine Shepard, a woman of 42, and his counsel, Mr. Caldwell, is now before the supreme court asking for a new trial. Miss Adelaide Moore gave a creditable presentation of Rosalind at the Funke Monday night, married only by a piping voice with which capricious nature has fitted her.

The masquerade ball of the Harmonie society, given at City hall Monday evening, was a success in every feature. Gus Saunders, the principal defendant in the gambling cases, has been held to await trial in the district court in $500 bail. Horace Tipton, Willard Barnes and Jay Norton were held in $300 each. John Morgan, the gambler, was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Melick for unlawful cohabitation. The complainant is the district attorney at Ottawa (Ill.), who says that Morgan has a wife and family at that place. Gross has been boarding at the Tremont house here with a young woman whom he passed off as his wife.

Mr. Boughton, the Street Jeweler, made an assignment to Sheriff Melick yesterday for the benefit of his creditors. The list of liabilities has not been prepared yet, but Mr. Boughton will more than pay the debts.

William Rollins, of McCook, advertised an award of $7 for the capture of his wife Lella, who eloped on Christmas eve with one Hiram Rider, a man of 60.

A Pleasant Party. A pleasant party was held last night at the residence of Alex Schall, corner of Sixth and Pierce streets, in honor of his sister, Miss Katie Schall of St. Joe, and Miss Hardy of Iowa, who are visiting at the home of the host. About twenty couples were present and the evening was enjoyed in the most cordial and playing, games and other amusements.

POLICE COURT DOCKET.

The Cases Disposed of by Judge Steinberg Yesterday.

James Reynolds, charged with disturbance of the peace, was fined $5 and costs and in default he went to jail. M. A. O'Brien, for vagrancy, was committed to the county jail for thirty days, as was also Frank Burns, same charge. Frank Smith was given a like sentence, the last ten days thereof, to be on bread and water.

"James Hogan," called the court, "you are charged with being a tramp. How is that?"

A jolly, redosed, redfaced Irishman came to the front and burst out: "I am guilty. Might as well tell the truth. Ain't got no money nor no work and what the h— is a man to do? Yes, I'm a tramp."

"How would it do to send you up for ten days?" "All right I guess. D— me if I care whether you make it thirty days or sixty days. Can't find no work anyway."

Judge Steinberg released Hogan with instructions to leave town unless he could get work soon.

A. Thard and Tom Leonard, two young cads, broke Chicago, were arraigned for vagrancy. They plead not guilty, saying that they had come to Nebraska to find work. They were released, on a promise to leave town at once.

John Nyak, the confirmed Bohemian, was given a sentence of thirty days in the county jail.

A fine of $5 and costs was imposed upon William Parker, an expressman who is carrying on his business without a license.

Leon Hewitt and Frank Van Ness, two notorious little thieves and vagrants, were next called up. They were found sleeping in a little hut on a vacant lot near the city hall, and were arraigned for vagrancy. This hut has been rigged up by a lot of the incorrigible youngsters who make it a point never to sleep at home if they can help it, and to sleep in the open air.

They have a small stove in the house, which makes desperate attempts to throw out heat, while overhead in a loft is a bed made out of rags, pieces of straw, and other refuse. The workmen congregate to hold their nightly revels and to lay plans for the robberies which they commit from time to time. The establishment is a sort of robbers' cave, as it were, which the police are endeavoring to break up. The first victims, Hewitt and Van Ness, were sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

FILES: A sure cure for Piles: Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams, (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The stock was thin and reduced from the rigors of a long season of cold weather. Now the cattle are strong and vigorous and will not mind a few days of blizzard weather in March. Another reason why the season has been favorable to the stockmen is that the calves had a chance to fatten and grow, and will make larger and better cattle. —Chicago News.

BOON. FALCONER—At 710 North Sixteenth street, on the 2d inst, to the wife of Wm. Falconer, a son.

Federal Collections. The following were the internal revenue collections for the month of January: Collections on list, $2,123.13; Beer stamps, $3,596.45; Spirits, $13,947.90; Cigars, $2,958.45; Tobacco, $1,000.00; Special tax, $1,556.82.

SOUTH SIDE SOCIETY. The winter and the season of social pleasure has not been neglected in that prosperous portion of the city, which is growing in people and valuation south of the railway tracks. Social clubs, meetings, balls, hops, card parties, private entertainments and soires of every description have beguiled the winter nights and some of the most pretentious and surely many of the most enjoyable affairs of the season are to the credit of the south side.

A public nature the South Omaha Social club is probably the most prominent. The organization consists of five gentlemen, Messrs. Chas. Seldon, Thos. De Puy, Chas. Baume, Chas. Hoye and J. H. Chapman.

Every other Saturday night they bring together at Muller's hall, on the Bellevue road, some fifty or more couples of ladies and gentlemen, and give a hop of the best character. These evening meetings are well attended, and the music is furnished by a full string orchestra, and a handsome spread is served at the proper hour in the gallery.

The Bohemian element have regular Sunday night parties at their own hall on South Thirtieth street, and the best of feeling and order invariably prevail. The music is good, and the dances, many of the most native and, are the actual "round" form, such as waltzes, polkas, etc., although they have some figure dances, adopted from the society of their new home.

There are two individuals on the South Side who furnish great amusement on occasions both in public and in private when a "jolly good time" is wanted. One is an old country fiddler who can only scrape in tune while his foot is in motion, and the other is a "cater" of the same type who plays second fiddle and calls the changes to the tune of "The Arkansas Traveler," "Run, Nigger, Run," etc., as he saws on one string.

Altogether the people of the south side will welcome the flowers that bloom in the spring with many pleasant recollections of the winter.

TRYING TO JUMP INTO WHAT THEY TOOK FOR HOLES.

There was a queer scene on the prairie at Fort Custer, Montana, the other night, when the quarters of troop M, First cavalry, went up in flame, and some fifty-eight cavalry horses were burned to death, one of them, though on fire, galloping a long way over the snow before he fell.

A few nights ago eighty wild ducks were picked up at the base of the lighthouse on Anastasia Island on the Florida coast. In their heedless southern flight in advance of the northern blizzard they were blown clear of the tall tower, and were killed outright by the contact.

A bald eagle swooped down upon a live grouse in Hartford county, North Carolina, recently, and was caught in a trap, of which the grouse was the decoy. The wings of this monarch of the air measured ten from tip to tip, and he had been spreading havoc among the poultry and sheep of the section for many weeks.

A New York (Conn.) man, who keeps a pet shepherd dog that carries packages, and letters to his master in his mouth, was surprised Thursday morning, says the Norwich Bulletin, when the dog brought to him a note saying: "I kept away from you from me of I small froth. 'I am mad,' they say, and I am wroth. O master, dear, be merciful to me, and send me ticketed through to Pasture in Parae."
