The county jail has at last been supplied with a telephone, a needed convenience. M. Kirkendall has been released on $150 bail, and will have a hearing in a few days on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

Why, last year the expenditures were $80,000, almost $30,000. This year is quite a saving on last year. Is the claim true that this council is more economical than any in the history of the city?

Two hundred and two lions have been killed in a Florida preserve the last twelve years. Also 1,214 panthers, 1,382 hyenas and 37,185 jackals.

Removed. I wish to respectfully call the attention of my patrons and the public in general, to my removal from the old stand Nos. 7 and 9, Main St., to my new and commodious quarters, No. 226 Broadway.

The Chicago lumber company has started in on the improvement of its yards on Main street. Seven lots are to be filled in, sheds constructed and changes made of different kinds, so that the total expenditure for the improvements will probably reach $8,000.

From others the Bee learns that there will be an attempt to maintain an economical policy. Three aldermen are to retire this spring, and three are to be elected to fill their places.

It may be interesting to know that at Lake Umbagog, Me., a strange phenomenon was observed. The bones of a mastodon were unearthed at Okemaw, Mich., last week.
