

AN AGED FEMALE FIRE FIEND

The Startling Tale Developed from a Little Replevin Suit.

A PERSECUTED GIRL'S STORY.

She Accuses Mrs. Barrett, Mother of the Dead South Omaha Tough, with Arson and Conspiracy.

The Stock Yards Gang.

The issuance of replevin papers in Justice Anderson's court yesterday, and the recovery of a trunk by a young woman, was the cause of the revelation of a tale of crime which, if true, shows that South Omaha is infested with a gang of criminals of the deepest dye.

The young woman from whom this story of crime is obtained is Sophia Linstrom, a Swede girl 26 years old, who repeated the tale in a straightforward manner to a Bee representative who found her in a room in the Almsow building at Fourteenth and Leavenworth streets.

AT THE POINT OF A REVOLVER.

but finally the woman gave in and the officer took the baggage to Justice Anderson's office.

It was then that Miss Linstrom told her story, which she subsequently repeated to the reporter, of the terrible causes which led to her being driven from Mrs. Barrett's house.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.

The Charge Brought Against Simon Simon, who conducts a tailor shop on St. Mary's avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, was arrested last evening on complaint of Annie Bozowitz, for attempted rape, and was lodged in the central police station.

THE BUILDING BURNED DOWN.

She said that all about the fire she would be to keep my mouth shut and swear that the goods were worth what they were insured for.

THE OTHER SIDE.

How the Ballard Case Appears to "X."

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

A CASE OF "HANS UP."

Hans Young, the Saloonist, Closed by an Army of Hungry Creditors.

A REPLY TO GENERAL O'BRIEN.

An Excursion Steamer for Omaha—The German Federation Falls—The Local Charity—North Omaha Entertainment.

Hans Young's Troubles.

Judge McCulloch opened business in the county court yesterday by issuing to George Duncan an attachment upon Hans Young for $250. This action was followed immediately by all the fated saloonist's creditors and the county and district court and Justice Helseley's tribunal were buried throughout the forenoon, arming officers with the papers of authority.

THE OLD WOMAN.

Mrs. Barrett figured in the courts here last October in connection with a light case of a woman named Sanchezoy. Both were terribly injured in the melees, clubs having been freely used on both sides.

THE OTHER BARRIETS.

Mrs. Barrett is said to have been divorced from her husband, and is now conducting a saloon at Minneapolis, and report says he is no better than he should be. The daughter Mary, as the Linstrom girl asserts, is also a fire bug, as was the son Frank, still another son is reported to be in state's prison.

SOUTH OMAHA FIRES.

For some time past to the killing of John Barrett and subsequently the number of mysterious fires in South Omaha was something alarming. Indignant meetings were held by the citizens of Douglas, in which the town is located, and the county commissioners were requested to furnish them with protection. This request was denied, and the citizens then formed themselves into fire companies for their own protection.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.

The Charge Brought Against Simon Simon, who conducts a tailor shop on St. Mary's avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, was arrested last evening on complaint of Annie Bozowitz, for attempted rape, and was lodged in the central police station.

THE BUILDING BURNED DOWN.

She said that all about the fire she would be to keep my mouth shut and swear that the goods were worth what they were insured for.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

A CASE OF "HANS UP."

Hans Young, the Saloonist, Closed by an Army of Hungry Creditors.

A REPLY TO GENERAL O'BRIEN.

An Excursion Steamer for Omaha—The German Federation Falls—The Local Charity—North Omaha Entertainment.

Hans Young's Troubles.

Judge McCulloch opened business in the county court yesterday by issuing to George Duncan an attachment upon Hans Young for $250. This action was followed immediately by all the fated saloonist's creditors and the county and district court and Justice Helseley's tribunal were buried throughout the forenoon, arming officers with the papers of authority.

THE OLD WOMAN.

Mrs. Barrett figured in the courts here last October in connection with a light case of a woman named Sanchezoy. Both were terribly injured in the melees, clubs having been freely used on both sides.

THE OTHER BARRIETS.

Mrs. Barrett is said to have been divorced from her husband, and is now conducting a saloon at Minneapolis, and report says he is no better than he should be. The daughter Mary, as the Linstrom girl asserts, is also a fire bug, as was the son Frank, still another son is reported to be in state's prison.

SOUTH OMAHA FIRES.

For some time past to the killing of John Barrett and subsequently the number of mysterious fires in South Omaha was something alarming. Indignant meetings were held by the citizens of Douglas, in which the town is located, and the county commissioners were requested to furnish them with protection. This request was denied, and the citizens then formed themselves into fire companies for their own protection.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.

The Charge Brought Against Simon Simon, who conducts a tailor shop on St. Mary's avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, was arrested last evening on complaint of Annie Bozowitz, for attempted rape, and was lodged in the central police station.

THE BUILDING BURNED DOWN.

She said that all about the fire she would be to keep my mouth shut and swear that the goods were worth what they were insured for.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

A CASE OF "HANS UP."

Hans Young, the Saloonist, Closed by an Army of Hungry Creditors.

A REPLY TO GENERAL O'BRIEN.

An Excursion Steamer for Omaha—The German Federation Falls—The Local Charity—North Omaha Entertainment.

Hans Young's Troubles.

Judge McCulloch opened business in the county court yesterday by issuing to George Duncan an attachment upon Hans Young for $250. This action was followed immediately by all the fated saloonist's creditors and the county and district court and Justice Helseley's tribunal were buried throughout the forenoon, arming officers with the papers of authority.

THE OLD WOMAN.

Mrs. Barrett figured in the courts here last October in connection with a light case of a woman named Sanchezoy. Both were terribly injured in the melees, clubs having been freely used on both sides.

THE OTHER BARRIETS.

Mrs. Barrett is said to have been divorced from her husband, and is now conducting a saloon at Minneapolis, and report says he is no better than he should be. The daughter Mary, as the Linstrom girl asserts, is also a fire bug, as was the son Frank, still another son is reported to be in state's prison.

SOUTH OMAHA FIRES.

For some time past to the killing of John Barrett and subsequently the number of mysterious fires in South Omaha was something alarming. Indignant meetings were held by the citizens of Douglas, in which the town is located, and the county commissioners were requested to furnish them with protection. This request was denied, and the citizens then formed themselves into fire companies for their own protection.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.

The Charge Brought Against Simon Simon, who conducts a tailor shop on St. Mary's avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, was arrested last evening on complaint of Annie Bozowitz, for attempted rape, and was lodged in the central police station.

THE BUILDING BURNED DOWN.

She said that all about the fire she would be to keep my mouth shut and swear that the goods were worth what they were insured for.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THE OTHER SIDE.

To the Editor: The Herald yesterday contained startling headlines attracting attention to the Ballard case now pending before the supreme court, and some one has exhibited most manifestly a desire not only to create a false impression in regard to the facts in the case but also to belittle and demean the judge before whom the case was tried.

THAT PRIVATE DETECTIVE.

The Latest Charges Tramped up Against Marshal Cummings.

FACTS WHICH KNOCK THEM OUT.

Emery Says He Was Not Interviewed—Senator Anderson Urges the Passage of the Omaha Port of Entry Bill.

Baseless Charges.

"The disgraceful length to which the Herald is going in its attempts to down Marshal Cummings disgusts me," said a democratic member of the city council to a reporter yesterday.

AN EXCURSION STEAMER.

A Scheme Which Promises Well For Omaha Pleasure-Seekers.

Capt. Ledermann, the well known steamboat man of St. Louis, is expected to arrive in Omaha in a few days to make arrangements to furnish this city with an excursion steamer during the coming summer season.

Capt. L. has long operated on the Mississippi a line of excursion steamers, and in all probability, there is no river man better known or more widely popular. He has determined to begin this year the operation of a line of light excursion steamers on the Missouri river, and is now taking steps to place on the Big Muddy at least three elegant boats, one for Kansas City, St. Joseph and Omaha.

Another batch of silly charges against the marshal appear in the Fifteenth Street Herald yesterday. Perhaps the silliest and flattest is that relating to "Detective" Horrigan and Detective Emery.

The circumstances briefly are these: Some time ago the city council passed a resolution authorizing the marshal to employ a private detective in such cases as he saw fit. This permission was given in a broad, general way, without any restriction as to the nature of the cases which should be turned over to the private detective, or as to what detective should be employed.

Another larger and more pleased audience witnessed the double bill of "Father and Son" and the "Bonnie Fish Wife," by the Vincent company at the People's theatre last night.

The same company plays Sheridan's "School for Scandal" this afternoon and "Romeo and Juliet" to-night.

CREIGHTON COLLEGE NOTES.

Two scientific lectures on Sound and Musical Sound will be given to the public on Tuesday, February 9 and February 16, with novel and startling experiments, such as are seldom witnessed. Invitations and programmes are printed and being distributed.

Examinations are now in progress and the students find them more searching and thorough than usual. The reports giving percentage of merit marks will soon be in the hands of parents who can thus by a glance tell the standing of their sons.

The older students attend lectures every day, and all have drill in elocution twice a week, to learn modulation of voice, gesture, tones, inflection and pathos in declaiming or reading.

All kinds of games to while away wintry weather innocently and pleasantly, are furnished in the play room. The boys are formed into an association and elect their own officers who preside and keep order.

So far as Horrigan is concerned he has never been employed as detective, and has no special detective ability. He was, however, assigned to special duty as a "runner" to "cross" crooks and vagrants whom he might run across from time to time.

Without an equal—Union sewing machine.

Senator Anderson Urges the Passage of an Important Bill.

Mr. Max Meyer, president of the board of directors of the Omaha and Missouri river navigation company, has written to Senator Anderson concerning the bill to make Omaha a port of immediate transportation, which has passed the senate.

"Are you crowding our people in the house, especially Judge Weaver, on the bill to make Omaha a port of immediate transportation of dutiable goods? I procured its passage through the senate early, that it might be pushed through the house. You had better have our local papers stir this thing up. Remember, it is not to make Omaha a port of entry."

There has been a good deal of blundering in the matter of this bill, and some of the local papers have insisted all along that this effort was being made to have Omaha designated as a "port of entry."

This, as Senator Anderson says, is all wrong. Omaha can not be a port of entry, because it is not on the "frontier," as, for instance, New York and San Francisco are. "The object of the bill," explained Mr