THE HISTORY OF A VENDETTA. How Four Families Have Been Almost Exterminated.

A St. Louis paper of February 12th says: The recent arrest of Tom Russell in Carbondale, Jackson county, Ill., has revived interest in the most bloody vendetta ever fought in this country, which resulted in the almost complete extermidation of four powerful families. Russell is now held on two indictments for murder in the first degree, which have been pending for ten years.

Among the prominent families of farmers living in the western portion of Williamson county, Ill., in 1872, were the Russells, Bulliners, Hendersons, Cranes and Sisneys. There were several grown sons and daughters in each family, and trouble between two of these started the feud. Election day in 1873 the two families had a pitched battle at Craneville, in which two Bulliners and one Russell were wounded. Then the friends of the combatants espoused their cause until a half-dozen families were involved on each side. In December, 1873, "old man" George Bulliner was shot from ambush and killed while on his way to Carbondale. He died calling on his boys to avenge his death. In March, 1874, while David Bulliner, one of the boys, was returning from church with a woman in a buggy, he was shot from a hedge and killed, and his companion dangerously wounded. The families were opposed in this wise:

The Russells, Sisneys, Detmores and Hendersons against the Bulliners, Hincheliffes and Rudds. The score at this point stood two to nothing in favor of the Russelis. The night of the 15th of May, while Joseph Henderson was standing on his own doorsteps, he was shot and killed and a man named Jacob Detmore wounded. Two days later Detmore wounded. Two days later Detmore was ambushed and killed thus Detmore was ambushed and killed thus tieing the score. On October 24 Dr. Vincent Hinchcliffe was shot from behind and killed. One month later Levidus Rudd received a load of buckshot in the side. In January, 1874, G. W. Sisney was shot, but recovered; August 9 he was shot with a rifle, but again recovered; December 12, 1874, he was at home, surrounded by his eight children and a neighbor named James Hineman, when the glass in the window Hineman, when the glass in the window was broken by a bullet and Sisney fell mortally wounded. Two weeks later John Russell was killed on the streets of Marion, and the year 1875 opened with the Bulliners one ahead. The sheriff ap-plied to Governor Beveridge for aid to stop the vendetta. Warrants were sworn out against a number of the members of all the families concerned. John Buliner was sent up for life. Two of the Hendersons, and one each of the Cook, Coyle and Crane families were sent to Joliet for long terms. Another of the Cranes was hanged. Tom Russell escaped, but returned a short time ago and was arrested. Nearly all the witnesses against him are dead. Two graveyards were started in the vicinity as a result of the feud.

What the Georgia Bloodhound can Do, To begin with, the Georgia bloodhound does not quarry his game, unless it is a rabbit—a small rabbitt. He is neither fierce nor powerful. A boy can hold a pack off with a cornstalk. But for trail-ing a fugitive—for hugging him close as his shadow-or for flying along his track when the even grass has forgotten its impress, and the wind has powdered it over with dust, he is as relentless as death it-self. Let me tell you what he can do, and he can be made to do this any fair day at Oldtown camp. A convict sleeping in one bunk of a hundred, shod and clad precisely as the hundred convicts about him, may slip his chain and flee. Ten miles away he may meet his fellow-prisoners again, may run to and fro among them, may walk with them a mile and leave them. Six hours after, these hounds put on his track where he slipped from the camp, will follow him to where he met his gang, will thread his track in and about with he leaves them and run him down, though he cross convict gangs every mile he runs. This escaping convict, clad in stripes cut from the same bolt with a hundred others, may run through the woods, touching weeds and bushes as he runs. Fifty convicts, clad as he was clad, may run through the same woods in every direc-tion. The dogs will hold his scent run-ning full tilt, breast high. If he makes a ourse of forty-five degree the dogs will not run the line, put will eatch his scent thirty yards away and cross the angle, though it were filled with the convicts who had eaten and slept with the fugitive. Often a dog will carry a scent to gallop, running parallel thirty yards to the windward. An uncanny and terrible little beast is the red-bone hound, trained little beast is the red-bone hound, trained for the hunting of man.

A. W. Tompkins, M. D., 177 Clinton Place, New York, writes June 2, 1883: "In many of those insidious Diseases of the Brain and Spinal Cord, where local stimulation must be obtained, and where liniments, blisters and various applications fail, marked reflef from pain can be obtained, and the patient greatly benefitted, by placing strips of Allcock's Porous Plasters over the spinal cord, from base of brain to end of spine. In all cases of spinal irritation, weakness or nervous prostration, I recommend Allcock's Porous Plasters."

At Mount Pleasant, in the potteries in Staffordshire, England, is to be found a child whose extraordinary growth excites great wonder. Little Alice, as she is humorously called, is but 4 years of age, yet turns the scale at 150 pounds, the circumference of her waist being no less than 5 feet, while her height is 4 feet, so that literally she is broader than she is so that literally she is broader than she is long. She is bright, intelligent, and re-markably pretty, her head being crowned with a mass of golden hair. Her appetite is enormous.

How Pale You Are! is frequently the exclamation of one lady to another. The fact is not a pleasant one to have mention, but still the act may be a kindly one, for it sets the one ad-dressed to thinking, apprises her of the fact that is not in good health, and leads her to seek a reason therefor. Pallor is almost always attendant upon the first stages of consumption. The system is enfeebled, and the blood is impoverished. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will act as a tonic upon—the system, will enrich the impoverished blood and re-

In a lecture on the microscope Mr. John Mayall said that historians were almost unanimous in asserting the great antiquity of the instrument, but he thought the claim would have to be abandoned. After carefully reviewing the evidence he found that 'it was certain that the invention of the microscope was not anterior to the latter part of sixteenth century." The lecturer exhib-ited over 200 microscopes of various store roses to the cheek.

The pain and miscry suffered by those who are afflicted with dyspepsia are m-describable. The distress of the body is describable. The distress of the body is equalledor surpassed by the confusion and tortures of the mind, thus making its victims suffer double affliction. The relief that is given by Hood's Sarsanarilla has caused thousands to be thankful for this great medicine. It dispets the causes of dyspensia, and tones up the digestive organs. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS

Wheat and Provisions Featureless, Without Any Change of Note.

GOOD SPURT OF LIFE IN CORN.

Satisfying Reports of Export Inquiry for Wheat-Fine Fat Cattle Commanding Better Figures-General Reports.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18 .- | Special Telegram, |-WHEAT-Cables were conflicting to-day. The bull houses and bear houses alike found comfort in the intelligence they received from abroad relating to that all important question, the price of wheat, present and prospective. Locally the wheat market today may be described as dull and firm. Fluctuations in prices were within a range of be on the morning session. The principal element of strength was the clearing of about 200,000 bushels of wheat from Atlantic ports and apparently reliable reports that more was going out to-morrow. Crop damage news was conflicting and not sufficiently decisive to constitute a factor in the market either way. Private warehouses were the heaviest sellers, but the crowd took the wheat that was offered for sale. The closing at 1 o'clock and the opening were very close together. Conn-Corn started upward with a rush, 41%e being bid for May not very long after the opening, which was 36c under that figure, but Baxter, Bliss and a few other fighting professionals got on top and hammered the market. Fleming & Boyden and Counselman were the main supporters of the market, being steady and large buyers on the decline that followed the raiding. The close was at 413@413@ for May.

OATS-Oats were steady with a good shipping inquiry reported. Provisions-Provisions were dull and featureless to-day, and prices shifted very little one way or another. The tone was rather firm, however, and the closing was at the top. AFTERNOON BOARD-Wheat was somewhat easier on the afternoon board, sellers being the most aggressive. The market only sold down 1/5c, however. The current of outside news continued bullish. No change in the other commodities. 2:40 p. m .- Puts on May wheat, Stl/@814e;

Brown & Co., of Chicago and Milwankee: No new features were developed on 'Change this morning. Cables quoted the English markets steady. Consols were 3c higher, The amount of wheat on passage increased 40,000 bushels. Wheat opened strong with fair buying orders, and the local crowd were rather inclined to turn to the bull side. Nothing was taken for export. May opened at 84%c, sold at 85@85%c, reacted to 84%, closing at 84% e at 1 p. m. Nearly all the trading was done between 84% @85c.

Corn was easy. Nine loads were taken for export. May sold at 41%c early, but finally closed at 411/c asked.

Oats were firm at vesterday's prices Provisions were dull and lifeless. 2:30 p. m.-Wheat eased off 1/601/c, closi ng at 84% bid for May. Corn and oats were steady. Pork firmed a little just before the closing, but finally closed the same as at 1

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK CHICAGO, Feb. 18.-[Special Telegram.] Cattle—In the fat cattle market there was a better feeling to-day after the buyers got together, and it was learned that there was not to be an overwhelming flood. Early in the morning receipts were over estimated and the market was slow to open, many dealers anticipating a further downward movement in prices as a result of the continued heavy receipts. Offerings were lighter than on yesterday, and offerings of good use ful cattle were fairly equal to the demand. Buyers paid the prices reluctantly, and on inferior half fat and lean kinds it was difficult to get steady prices; but as a rule the rates were about the same as yesterday. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 ibs, 84 (0.265,75; 1200 to 1350 ibs,

$3.80@5,20; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.50 @4.75. Hoos-The market was active and prices agaia a strong 5c higher on all sorts. There was more of a demand for light sorts for shipment than for any day this week, and that sort made more of an advance than the medium or heavy. Best heavy sold at $4.40 @4.50, and packing's sorts at $4,20@4.40. Packing and shipping, 250 to 400 lbs, $4,20@

STOCKS—Stocks showed decided weakness at the opening, with declines of ½ to over 1 per cent, owing to the trouble among the Transcontinental lines. Early trading was accompanied by a further decline of fractional amounts, except in Pacific Mail, but this was soon checked and business, which had been decidedly active, became more quiet with prices steady to firm, a condition which continued until nearly 1 o'cook. A heavy tone prevailed later until during the last hour, when some weakness was developed, in which coal stocks were the most prominent, the drop in Lackawanna amounting to 2 ner cent. All the active stocks yielded more or less, although the declines in most cases were only fractional. There was a reaction in some cases in the linal dealings, and the market closed irregular but decidedly feverish for most of the active stocks.
