

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Monday Evening, Feb. 22. As might be expected, on the day of the week and on a holiday, the market was not active. There were no offerings of choice corn-fed steers, and prices remain about steady. A few light change hands, 3 to 4 c.

Table with columns for No., Av., Pr. for various livestock categories like Hogs, Sheep, and Cattle.

HIGHEST AND LOWEST. Showing the highest and lowest prices paid on this market for the corresponding period last month.

Note—All sales of stock in this market are made per cwt. live weight unless otherwise stated.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS.

Monday Evening, Feb. 22. General Markets.

Eggs—The market closed weak to-day. At 7 o'clock, with a few sales, the price was not surprising if the market went off a cent to-morrow.

Game—There is very little game coming in and not a very high price. Deer, antelope, prairie chickens and quail were out of season on January 1, and so very few are coming in.

Fish—The market for fish is about steady. Salmon, cod, haddock, and other fish are available in good quantities.

Meat—The market for meat is about steady. Beef, pork, and mutton are available in good quantities.

Produce—The market for produce is about steady. Apples, oranges, and other fruits are available in good quantities.

Grain—The market for grain is about steady. Wheat, corn, and other grains are available in good quantities.

Oil—The market for oil is about steady. Lard, tallow, and other oils are available in good quantities.

Other goods—The market for other goods is about steady. Sugar, flour, and other commodities are available in good quantities.
