The supreme court is to meet here tomorrow

The new school board, which is in fact the old one, will meet to-day. R. McGuire is jailed for beating a board bill at the St. Jo house.

The American Express company has enlarged and relitted its local office.

Mase Wise sold on Saturday sixty head of mules to Malory & Cushing, railway contractors. Quiet in police circles yesterday, Only two drunks run in-P. Hanifan and Robert Richardson. The men at work on the new bridge have been laid off until after the spring rise of the river is past.

Interesting exercises are held each Friday afternoon in the high school department of the Bloomer building.

Blanche Pouter was given a pleasant birthday surprise at her home on Vine street on Saturday evening by her many young friends.

Mrs. T. S. Hines of Davenport died yes-terday morning of consumption at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Snow, in this city.

One of the best stock salesmen in the west is H. H. Inman of Council Bluffs, and those desiring the services of a well posted salesman should give Harry a call. The A. O. H. dance in Masonic hall Wednesday night and the Rory O'Moore dramatic entertaiment in the opera house Saturday night are both for the benefit of the Parnell fund.

It is said that the new mayor, instead of appointing his policemen all himself, will present to the new council a list of fifteen or twenty names and allow the aldermen to suggest which to select from

The old council had its last meeting on Saturday, and unanimously and enthusiastically sat down on Mayor Vaughan's yet of the ordinance raising the salaries of the city attorney and city engineer from $1,000 to $1,250.

The rates of first-class fare from this city to Chicago yesterday were, over the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific and the Chicago, Burlington & Quiney, $12.50; over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Chicago & Northwestern, $10. The need of more policemen and less thieves was made apparent Saturday evening. A citizen called on Mayor Chapman, leaving his overshoes on the porch. When he came out the shoes were gone and the thief too. The funeral of little Fannie H., infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Eiseman, was held yesterday, and was largely attended. The remains were laid away in the Hebrew cemetery at Oak Hill. Rabbi Benson of Omaha officiated.

There have been hovering about the city for several days past some well known confidence men, who are said to belong to the same gang which were concerned in the tragedy at the Avenue hotel, in which one was killed by the "Major."

A recent number of the Loup Valley Gazette contains the announcement that Wallace & Spooner, both well known young men of Council Bluffs, have opened up a general store at Greeley Center, Neb. The Gazette in making the announcement says: "These young men come to our county highly recommended as of excellent business qualifications, and as they bring with them their business experience we bespeak for them a prosperous future."

A. T. Elwell to-day takes charge of the ticket office in place of J. L. De Bevoise, who is to take a position in Omaha. Mr. Elwell was the ticket agent for ten years previous to the coming in of Mr. De Bevoise, who has occupied the position for a year and a half. It is a union office, the Chicago & Rock Island, Chicago Mil-waukee & St. Paul, Chicago & North-western, and Union Pacific being alike interested. Mr. Elwell has not only the needed experience and ability to handle the business, but with the public he is a

The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Lafferty was held Saturday, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Bates and Rev. Mr. Rice. Mrs. Lafferty was born in Ireand in 1815, and with her family came to this country when she was but a child, settling in Richmond, Va., where she lived until her marriage. In 1853 she became a resident of this city, then known as Kanesville, and resided her until her death. She leaves three daughters Mrs. death. She leaves three daughters, Mrs. W. H. Robinson, Miss Bella Lafferty, both of this city, and Mrs. J. F. Hopper of Leavenworth, also two sons, John A. Lafferty of Montana, and W. H. Lafferty of Creston, Iowa.

When the old council elected Mr. Dal-rymple as city clerk, the old clerk, Tront-man, held on to the position, and backed by the little mayor's veto refused to give up the place. Dalrymple made claim for up the place. Dalrymple made claim for the office in accordance with the wish of the majority of the council, and took legal steps to get a chance to perform the duties to which the council had called him. For legal advice and services he had to pay ex-Governor Manning $100. At the last meeting of the old council the clerk presented this bill but the council refused to allow it, Aldermen Shugart, Straub and Siedentopf voting for the allowance, and Aldermen Bennet and llowance, and Aldermen Bennet and Mynster against it.

Next Thursday evening the musical in-stitute opens at the Congregational church parlors, under the directorship of Prof. T. Martin Towne of Chicago. There never was presented in this city There never was presented in this city so excellent and yet so cheap an opportunity to those desiring to learn to read music. The parlors should be filled. Tickets for the entire course can be secured at a nominal price at frankness Bros.' store, or at W. S. Homer's, or at the office of J. W. and E. L. Squire. Prof. Towne will also arrange so that those desiring to avail themselves of his presence here for private instruction and presence here for private instruction and voice culture, can do so, such to meet him in the day time, the evenings to be given to the institute. Prof. Towne has so wide poser that he needs few words of intro-duction. He will doubtless find his ser-vices in demand while here.

Digging Out of Jail.

Saturday evening another jail break was made from the city calaboose. The prisoners were in the corridor, being left there to cat their supper before being locked in their cells. Deputy Marshal Mullen stepped over to the city building for a few minutes, and taking advantage of his absence they went to work on the brick wall, at the hole where the escape was made a short time ago. Four of them had succeeded in crawling out, and the fifth was passing out some of their clothing and preparing to follow, when Mullen came onto them. He pulled his gun and marched them around to the front door and into jail again. The prisoners were vagrants and cheap drunks, so that if they had made good their esso that if they had made good their es-cape there would have been no great re-gret felt. The fault in the city iail could be remedied by the expenditure of a few dollars, but it seems to be neglected for some reason. The jail was never prop-erly finished for holding prisoners, and it seems to be among the things which should first command the attention of the new city administration. new city administration.

Indian Boy Hurt. Friday night as passenger train No. 3 was nearing Denison a small Indian boy jumped or fell from the cars while they were at full speed. The boy was one of a company which Mr. Lewis was taking from Pine Ridge agency to the Philadelphia school. When the train came to a stop at Denison the conductor and Mr. W. V. Lewis went back, and found the boy lying insensible, his head badly cut and other injuries quite serious. They brought hin in ma'bus, and had him cared for at the hotel. He was at last accounts still unconscious, but there are hopes for his recovery. The other boys were taken on by Mr. Lewis, and if this little tellow gets along as well as is now hoped for he will Talking Temperance. There was a largely attended temperance meeting last evening at the opera house, several of the churches giving up their regular services to permit of the congregations joining. The address of the evening was by Rev. Mr. Williams, the state lecturer and general agent of the Temperance Alliance of Iowa, This was the third of the series of lectures given here by this enthusiastic apostle of cold water, and was decidedly his best. He was closely listened to, and he pre-sented his side of the question with evi-dent confidence in his own views, and with much more force and clearness than has characterized the addresses of other temperance lecturers who have had audiences here. He is a strong thinker and an interesting speaker.

A Leg Broken. Mr. E. W. Hart, of the water works company, met with a serious accident Saturday. He was riding along near Rice's nursery, when his horse stepped into a bad hole in the road, stumbled and fell, throwing Mr. Hart against a barbed wire fence. A carriage was used to convey him to his rooms at Mrs. Robinson's, on First avenue, and Dr. Lacey was called in to attend to the injuries. Mr. Hart's leg was found to be broken, and he re-

A LUCKY PAYMASTER.

A Gambling Story of the War-Shrewd Schemes that Failed.

Detroit Free Press: During the two last years of the war I assisted to run a gamb-ling den in Cincinnati. This statement will prepare the reader to believe that I was a bold, bad man. I shall not make any excuses to weaken this belief. I set any excuses to weaken this belief. I set out to relate an incident of these excitable times, and my being good or bad won't add to or detract from its interest.

We found a way after a while to drop $5 into the major's pocket, and put a good man at his elbow, and the result was as anticipated. During the next week he visited our rooms two or three times, and "dramed" about half the week he visited our rooms two or three times, and "dropped" about half the money. All his passion for play revived, and one night during the second week he came into the came with $55. We were playing for a high stake. It was known to a certainty that he had from $40,000 to $50,000 in his safe, and that was the boodle our fingers itched to grasp. Redwood was allowed to win until he had piled $2,000 before him. He then lost steadily until his pile was reduced to $400. We could see how desperate he was growing under his losses, for it is a fact that men under his losses, for it is a fact that men had sooner lose their own honest money than to part with that gained by play.
The paymaster won $300, and then dropped back to $200. Then he won $100, and dropped back to $75. He was now considerably under the influence of liquor and thoroughly aroused. He staked his $75 on one turn and won; he he staked his pile again and lost. Ten minutes later we had his diamond pin and watch. When he had been cleaned out he uttered a tremendous oath and oxelamed. exclaimed.

'Luck has been against me, but I will bust this bank or blow my brains out! Keep my place here for half an hour!" He beckened to the chum we had put put on his trail and the two went off to-gether. We knew the paymaster was going after the greenbacks he had in his safe. He had been drinking but was by no means overcome, and then the excite ment of play kept the liquor from working on him. However, when he got out doors he began to get drunk pretty fast, and by the time he reached his office he was badly muddled. He could not remember the combination on which he had locked the safe. He was showered with cold water and filled up with strong coffee, and in brief, we worked him for two hours to get his sober senses back, but the more we worked him the worse he got. He was finally left alone in his office, half dead with the treatment. Next day some hints of his escapade reached the authorities at Washington, and, although he was not relieved, he received such a caution and was obliged to make such promises that he was never afterward even seen in a saloon. Had he been able to get into the safe that night we should have scooped in every dollar of the money.

PILES! PILES! PILES

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itchin and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams, (an Indian remedy), called Dr Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 50 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wongerful soothing medicine. Lotions and instruments do more harm than good. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of private parts, and for nothing else.

SKIN DISEASES CURED.

Dr. Frazier's Magic Ointment cures as by magic, Pimples, Black Heads or Grubs, Blotches and Eruptions on the face, leaving the skin clear and beautiful. Also cures Itch, Sait Rheum, Sore Nipples, Sore Lips, and Oid Obstinate Ulcers.

The Funeral of a Chinese Vanderbilt. Pall Mall Gazette: The Vanderbilt of China has just died and been buried. Not much is known in Europe of his life, less of his death, but the funeral is said to have been most picturesque. His palace of Hang Chou was a miracle of luxury, and in creating this banker a pro-vincial judge, and specially authorizing him to wear a yellow jacket, the emperor of China made him the envy of all his other subjects. But the glory of his funeral seems to have surpassed the splendor of his life. The whole city turned out to see the procession. First came a mob of coolies weighed down with leaflets, on which ware written moral sentences and such were written moral sentences and apoth-egms. Then followed a procession of lantern bearers, supported by a band of musicians with songs, gongs, cymbals, and trumpets. It is hard to conceive anything less funereal. A hundred little boys came after the band brandishing the heraldic arms of the deceased; the boys were followed by the bearers of his portrait.

Groups of guests came next in procession, some in white, some in scarlet, some in yellow; then bearers of lamps, banners, parasols and fans; next the master of the ceremonies in white robes, on a white horse, preceding an enormous tent, under which the relatives of the deceased moved, entirely hidden from public view, and last the collin borne on the shoulders of twenty-four men.

His Style of Cutting. "Have you taken notice, Fred, what a misfit style there is to Mr. Sponger's attire." 'Oh, yes! It always looks as if it was hung there under protest."

"Very likely he does his own cutting."
"He does. His chief employment is cutting out of the way of his creditors.'

Down on Anything Which Can't Kick. Wall Street News: "Can you tell me," he asked, as he entered an office on Broad street, the other day, "why the railroads should discriminate so neavity are instanced meat over live stock?" Certainly, sir. Dressed-meat is dead, isn't it?"

"Of course."
"Well, anything which can't kick is always buildozed by a railroad company. Henry Augustus is out again. St. Jacobs Oil cured his rheumatism. Fifty
