 NIGHT EDITOR, NO. 23.

MINOR MENTION.
 New spring goods at Reiter's.
 The United States court meets here next Monday.
 Everything will be admitted free at the opening of the musical institute to-night.
 J. Johnson, arrested on suspicion of not being wanted here, was yesterday given a chance to leave the city. He took it.

There are forty-one applications for positions in the fire department. This does not look as if all could be accommodated.

Belle Smith was arrested last evening for obtaining money under false pre-texts from A. L. Johnston, a money lender on Chicago.

Mrs. K. Man, mother of Fritz Bernhardt, died on Tuesday night at her residence No. 217 South Fifth street. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Matrimonial permits were yesterday issued to Jacob Zekler and Mary Fox of Loveland; Nathan Moore and Eliza B.
 Robinson of Macedonia; John Busa and Maggie Nance of Council Bluffs.

George Adams, a plain drunk, who had the distinction of being the first to be arrested by the new police, was yesterday fined the usual amount, and congratulated himself on not being charged extra for the distinction.

Chief Matthews made his first arrest yesterday, a fellow giving the name of Huber, who got mad because he was not given a free meal at the Scott house.
 Huber in his wrath smashed in a window and then Matthews led him to the cooler.

The American District Telegraph company has completed arrangements for the speedy construction of their lines here, and as fast as weather will permit the work will go on until the service is in complete working order.

Among the cases to come before the supreme court at its session here is that of Cooper against Mills county, in which the lower court gave judgment for $25, 000 in favor of the plaintiff for personal injuries received by falling through a bridge.

The new policemen have received instructions to keep moving on their beats, and not stop to visit with every fellow who chances to have an hour or so to spare. They will move on and make a change from the old gossiping way of hanging about the streets.

The ball given by the Ancient Order of Hibernians last evening was very largely attended, and the night was as enjoyable as was expected, which is saying much. All enjoyed themselves heartily.
 The music, supper and all arrangements were such as ensured this result.

An attempt is to be made to do away with the market place at the junction of Main and Pearl streets and have this kind of business done on the city grounds, between the city building and city jail.
 The scales of city weights and measures and his office are located at the city building, and other conveniences will be provided there to accommodate the public.

The junior class of the high school held their club meeting at the home of Miss Nannie Harding Tuesday evening. A very pleasant time was had. One of the most interesting features was a "quote down" which promises to become more popular than the old-fashioned spelling down. Sides were chosen, and quotations given from Shakespeare until one side was beaten. Games and social chatting followed.

Dr. Cook yesterday received a letter from R. M. Wilbur, at Iowa City, stating that he had just received a telegram from St. Paul announcing the death of his wife.
 Mrs. Wilbur was formerly a teacher in the public schools here, and at the time of her death was engaged as a teacher in the St. Paul schools. She was a very efficient and popular teacher, and outside of the school room made many friends, who admired her many qualities of mind and heart. The news will be as sad as it is to her friends here.

Personal Paragraphs.
 E. Fleury, of Carson, was in the city yesterday.

J. J. Bliss has returned from a visit to Nebraska City.

J. J. Sullivan and wife, of Missouri Valley, were in the Bluffs yesterday.

Joe Kintz, of Kintz & Kiech, has gone to Chicago on a brief business tour.

S. Siloway, of Cedar Rapids, is looking after his interests in the Ogden house, and shaking hands with friends.

Mrs. Charles Mack, wife of the conductor on the Omaha train, spent yesterday with friends in the Bluffs.

Charles Adolph returned yesterday from Kansas, where he has been gathering in a big amount of real estate. He is enthusiastic over Kansas, its past and its prospects. He comes one arm in swelling, however, having met with a bad break, by an accidental tumble into the cellar of a new building he was erecting.

Among the prominent attorneys attending supreme court here are: J. Y. Stone, Glenwood; W. A. Stow, Omaha; H. B.
 Williams, Glenwood; Judge Newman, Burlington; C. L. Poor, Burlington; Thos.
 Wright, Des Moines; W. A. Work, Os-tuma; D. C. Berman, Ottumwa; H. B.
 Stiles, Kansas City; Ed Long, Des Moines; Cron Brown, Des Moines; C. S. Keenan, Shenandoah; Smith McPherson Red Oak;
 T. L. Maxwell, Council Bluffs.

The Pacific House Property.
 A few days ago we assured the public that all reports about the closing of the Pacific house were premature and unfounded. We made promises to duty announce any changes. To quiet the nerves of those who have sleepless nights in imagining great hotel changes, we now announce that we have reversed our lease of the Pacific house and will continue to occupy it, accommodating our friends and patrons as usual. There will be extensive and marked improvements made at once in the hotel. With thanks for past patronage, we remain, J. W. FERGUSON & SONS,
 Proprietors of Pacific House.

Big Fees Demanded.
 Fremont Benjamin, one of the attorneys engaged by Arch Coffman, of Avoca, has presented a bill for services, amounting to $2,500. Mr. Coffman is not impressed with the modesty of the fee charged, and deems it exorbitant, as the case has only reached the grand jury, and not been tried at all. He objects to paying it, and a suit will now be the result. Coffman is said to be willing and ready to pay what he deems a reasonable fee, but for a preliminary examination he thinks such an amount is exorbitant. The courts will have to determine it.

DOES THE MAYOR MEAN TO DO

Anxious Inquiries as to the Inauguration of the New Administration.

THUGS AND CROOKS MUST GO
 State Supreme Court Proceedings—
 The Local Railroad Offices—
 Misplaced Confidence.

Does He Mean It?
 "Does he mean it?" That is being asked by many in reference to the inauguration of the new mayor. His distinct avowal that the city must be cleared of cappers, plunders and crooked men, called forth the hearty endorsement of worthy citizens, but among the hangerson of some of the dens, the declaration was at first looked upon as a bluff. There have been occasional utterances of quite similar import in the past, but threats soon passed into friendship, and matters were made easy in a manner best known to those concerned. The inquiry has been made rather doubtfully, but it seems now conceded that the present mayor really means business. Some of the fellows have already emigrated, and others were given the assurance so clearly yesterday that there was no more fooling as to cause them to decide to begin packing. It is evident that none of the old methods of sheltering from the storm will avail under the present administration, and the house cleaning is not to be stopped.

Another anxious inquiry is as to whether the avowed policy in regard to closing saloons on Sunday is to be followed out. On this, too, there seems to be no weakening. The officials are getting in readiness to control the closing of all bars on Sunday, without regard to where they are or who runs them. The great difficulty has been that the hotels did not think they could well close their bars, and consequently some of the guests.
 The saloons having lunch counters followed the claim that they had boarders who must have their meals, and they could not close the saloons without closing the lunch counters. The city has been trying to solve this difficulty for these unfortunate, but the present mayor proposes to let them wrestle with the puzzle as to how they can arrange it.
 The order will go forth that where hotels or lunch counters are so situated that the doors of one cannot be closed without closing the doors of the other, that the bars must be closed, and no drinks sold from them. If any drinks are sold from the bar, then war is to be declared against the offender. It is understood that there is to be no backing down from this position, in favor of any one.

The Supreme Court.
 There were a number of decisions rendered yesterday by the supreme court, as follows:

Morton vs. Blumher et al. Petition for rehearing overruled. This petition was filed upon the ground that a landlord cannot be made liable for a nuisance created by his tenant, of which he has no knowledge, the landlord, Mr. Gibbs, disclaiming that he was responsible for the nuisance, and that the tenants necessarily follow the lead of the landlord. The court says: "The existence of the nuisance having been conclusively established by the judgment in this case, the tenants cannot continue the business. The premises may continue to be occupied by them for a lawful purpose, and the lease may continue to exist. Clearly, however, in our judgment, Mr. Gibbs can protect himself and his premises from the nuisance created by his tenants, and he may have the power to cancel the lease of anyone who is unlawful use. We, however, do not regard it as essential to determine this question. The petition for a rehearing is overruled. When Mr. Gibbs was made a party to the action he obtained knowledge that it was claimed and admitted that tenants had been using the leased premises as a place for the sale of intoxicating liquors, and he should have known that the same use, as the owner, would become liable. This, at least, should be regarded as sufficient to put him on inquiry as to the truth of the matter charged."

I. B. N. Twining, appellant, vs. city of Burlington, appellee. On appeal from the district court. The plaintiff claims to be the owner of a parcel of land in which the city also claims to have an interest. The city claims to have a right of way over the land, and the plaintiff claims to have a right of way over the land. The court decides in favor of the plaintiff. A decree dismissing the plaintiff's petition, and he appeals. Affirmed.

Jonathan Gee vs. S. C. Moss, appellant.
 From Des Moines district court. Plaintiff brought action on account of certain alleged false and fraudulent representations made by defendant concerning the business and financial condition of the Burlington Shirt and Steam Laundry company, an incorporation of which he was an officer, by which plaintiff was induced to purchase certain shares of stock for $2,400. There was a verdict and judgment for plaintiff. Defendant appeals.

Jacob Brandenberger vs. L. Regier, appellant. From Lee circuit court. Action on a contract for the sale of certain land. The plaintiff claims that the defendant has failed to pay for that amount, and rendered for $100 and costs. Defendant appeals. Appeal dismissed.

William Bell vs. city of Burlington, appellant. From Des Moines circuit court. Controversy between the city and the plaintiff as to the location of boundary line between the street and abutting lots. Affirmed.

Gibson Browne appellant vs. C. J. Hickie, From Lee district court. Reversed.

State vs. Mahan. On rehearing. Former opinion adhered to.

White vs. Smith. On rehearing. Petition overruled.

American Buttonholing, Oversewing and Sewing Machine company, appellants, vs. The Burlington Mutual Loan association. From Des Moines district court. Action in replevin for certain shares of stock in the association. Plaintiff claims to be the owner of the shares, and the defendant claims to be the owner. The court decides in favor of the plaintiff. A decree dismissing the defendant's petition, and he appeals. Affirmed.

Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company, appellants, vs. John J. Gleason, From Mills county district court. Action for possession of eighty acres in Mills county.
 Reversed.

The Musical Institute.
 The musical institute which is to open today under the direction of Professor Martin Towne, affords an opportunity for voice culture which every lover of music in Council Bluffs should improve. This can be had at the low price of $1 to enable all to have the benefit of instruction, such as this course of instruction will give. It is expected there will be a chorus of more than 300 voices, including the best talent of the city. The classes are arranged as follows: For juveniles from 8 to 14 years, 6:30 p. m.; rudimentary class, for adults, young or old at 7:30; chorus class at 9:30. Tickets for the course are placed at the low price of $1 to enable all who desire instruction to attend. Prof.
 Towne will also give private lessons in voice culture to all who desire. The institute begins to-night and continues two weeks, at the close of which a grand concert will be given. The Congregational church will be used for the conclusion of the classes. Prof. Towne's reputation as a musical director and vocal teacher is a well known fact; it is unnecessary to enlarge upon his merits at this time; that he is coming will be sufficient to insure him a large class. It will be well, however, to secure your tickets before the opening of the institute to avoid delay. They may be found at the store of Harkness Bros., W. S. Harkness, Squire Bros. or D. Mont-gomery's offices.

Misplaced Confidence.
 A short time ago the police arrested a fellow named Williams for being noisy drunk, and being unable to pay his fine he did chores around the city building for several days. Last week he said he had a chance to work for a well known Keg Creek farmer, Mr. Ward. Yesterday Mr. Ward was here and related his experience with the fellow. He had employed him for a time last fall, and after his release from jail here last week he employed him again. He sent him to do Council Bluffs with the team to do some business and the fellow disappeared, and term and all. Mr. Ward then came here and following the clues found that he had gone to Omaha and there sold the outfit.
 Mr. Ward found the man who had bought the stolen horses, but this man had traded off one of them. This complicated matters, but Mr. Ward succeeded in securing his property and was yesterday en route home again. He got no track of Williams, and the fellow has doubtless put a long distance between him and this part of the country.

No Offices Yet.
 The Milwaukee and Northwestern roads have not located their ticket offices. Colonel T. McKissock of the Council Bluffs & St. Louis road, came in yesterday afternoon but no decision was reached in regard to the two former roads locating their offices with the C.
 B. & St. L. ticket office, nor will there be a decision until word has been received from certain Chicago railroad officials.
 In the meantime the Northwestern and Milwaukee roads have no other offices than those in their local depots.

PILES!
 A sure cure for Piles, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams, (an Indian remedy), called Dr.
 Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions and instruments do more harm than good. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the itching, (particularly at night), and getting warm in bed, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of private parts or nothing else.

SKIN DISEASES CURED.
 Dr. Frazier's Magic Ointment cures as by magic Pimples, Blackheads or Grains, Botheles and Eruptions on the face, leaving the skin clear, soft, supple. Also cures Itch, Salt Rheum, Scabies, Scalds, Sores, Lumps, and Old Ulcerated Ulcers.

 the ranks to the grade of lieutenant, and was made chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

The Thirteen club should start a branch in Spain, where the superstitious people think their late king fell a victim to the thirteen-able fatal fatality. It seems that when Alfonso visited Aranjuez last summer to see the gardens, patients he lunched at the palace, and thirteen persons sat down to the meal. Noticing the number, the king gaily referred to the tradition, and made his enquiry give him a list of the guests, and he might have whether any one died within the year.
 The king himself was the victim.

A report on the progress of the leper settlement at Molokai, one of the Sandwich islands, states that the settlement opened in January, 1880, with 141 lepers, of whom 103 were males and 38 females.
 Up to November last there were admitted 3,101 lepers, of whom 1,985 were males and 1,116 females. The largest muster roll from the foundation of the settlement was in August, 1884, at which time it stood 842, comprising 512 males and 330 females. There is a biennial appropriation of $100,000 for the maintenance of the sufferers.

Jacob Keogh, aged 33, a mere skeleton, and possessing hardly strength enough to move any portion of his body, was admitted to Bellevue hospital, New York, on Saturday. He has been living for the last two weeks upon water, given to him in small quantities. His stomach would not retain food of any description, and the smallest quantity given would cause violent spasms. He has been tending a lead grinding machine for two years, and having inhaled the dust, chronic lead poisoning set in. In his skin the color of lead, and the whites of his eyes are nearly black.
