· AN INSANE MAN'S SUICIDE. Coroner Roberts returned from Olive Branch precinct yesterday afternoon, where he had been called Thursday to hold an inquest on the remains of John Kersch, who had been found hanging to a tree. The funeral was held yesterday forenoon, and the jury brought in a ver-dict of suicide by hanging. Kersch was a bachelor and lived alone on a rented farm in Olive Branch precinct. He was not mentally strong at any time, and on Sunday he was clear off his base. He imagined that some one was pursuing him and in this condition called at a neighbor's and asked for protection and at the same time offered a roll of greenbacks, which on their refusal to take he threw under the table and started on the run towards the grove where he was found. This was the last seen of him alive. On going to the house it was discovered that he had not returned and search was begun for him, which resulted in finding him on a little island in the south branch of Salt creek. He had procured a lariat rope and with it had committed the act of self destruction. It appeared that he had climbed the tree and then slowly let himself down, and death came from strangulation.

NEW CORPORATIONS. Three new corporations were recorded by the secretary of state yesterday. The first was the Superior Cattle company, of Superior, Nuckolis county, the promoters of which are C. E. Adams, E. J. Adams, D. Bosserman, E. Bosserman, W. A. Meyers, L. B. Adams, L. B. Bosserman and J. H. Bosserman. The authorized capital is $100,000.

The Nebraska Distilling company, of Nebraska City, with a capital of $100,000, is another new organization. The incorporators are George L. Woolsey, Dexter Miels and Erastus C. Gaffield,

John Lisco and William F. Dodge, of Clarks, Merrick county, have organized what they term the Central Nebraska Detective association.

BRIEF MENTION. The ball given by the Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent association Monday evening was the most notable event of the week in the social line. There was a large at tendance of our most worthy Hebrew cit izens, and a snug sum was realized for the poor, for whose sake the belles and beaux mingled in glad communion and danced till daybreak. Mrs. Draper has returned to her home in Iowa, after a short visit with her son, T. B. Draper, in this city

Work on the capitol building will be resumed about the 1st of April. Contractor Stout is already massing a large amount of material on the ground, and has a large force of men under contract.

The Dying Shoemaker. "Dear wife, I'm waxing near my end,"
The dying cobbler said;
"Soon to an upper world my sole
Its lonely way must thread.

"I fear, indeed, I'm pegging out; But then what boots it, love?

Here we have been a fitted pair, And so we'll be above. "My Ills, I know, no drugs may heel, So it's welt to prepare; We can't run counter to our fate— Just put a peg in there!

"The future need not give you care, I've left my awl to you;

For, deep within my inner sole,
I know that you've been true.

"I've always given you your rights, But now you must be left; However, do not grieve too much

"A last farewell I now will take,"
He smiled and raised his head.
"B-last the cruel malady
That lays you low," she said.

When of me you're bereft.

"I'll slipper 'way in peace," he sighed,
"The strife will soon be past."
His head fell back, he sweetly smiled,
And then he breathed his last.
