Lauer's Efforts for a New Trial Likely to

FIVE DOLLARS TO CALIFORNIA.

The Union Pacific Makes Another Cut On Transcontinental Business -Other News on the Rail -Army Matters.

The Lauer Case. Saturday has been fixed for the hearing of arguments on the motion for a new trial made by Lauer's attorneys. The motion, of course, will be argued before Judge Neville, General Cowin and Mr. Estelle representing the state, and J. M. Thurston and Judge Savage the defence. Lauer is anxious to have a new trial-or professes to be-and his attorneys say that in the event that Judge Neville denies the motion for a new trial, the matter will be taken to the supreme court. But it is not thought that such a course will be pursued by Judge Neville; and in fact it is pretty well known that he is of the opinion that the verdict of the jury was not in accordance with the evidence brought out. He has never openly expressed himself as dissatistied with the verdict, because it was not one of second decree, but has nevertheless remarked on several occasions that the finding of the jury was very "peculiar." A prominent attorney, speaking of the matter to a reporter yesterday, said that he had received information, on good authority, that Judge Neville had about decided to grant the motion for a new trial, unless cogent reasons for not doing so were brought out in the arguments next Saturday. "I am very sure." said he, "that Judge Neville is not at all satisfied with the verdict, because it is not in accordance with his instructions, and has distinctly said that it is not in line with the evidence which was clearly laid before the jury. It is fair to presume that he means that the finding should have been either murder in the second degree or acquittal. So that the defense want a rehearing of the case because they believe that the verdict is unjust to Lauer, while the judge is willing that they should have the new trial because, in all probability, he believes that the verdict calls for too light a punishment." It is the general opinion among those well posted on the matter that if a new trial is had it will not be held in Douglas county, but either in Burt or Washington county, or possibly in some other district. General Cowin says that if the case is tried again, new and important evidence against Lauer, which was not introduced at the trial recently closed, will be brought in. Mrs. Nellie Havens, the sis-ter of Mrs. Sallie Lauer, was not able to testify at the first trial on account of sickness, but would be put on the stand, with other important witnesses whose

Cut in Passenger Rates. All day long yesterday the officials of the passenger department of the Union Pacific were closeted in consultation over some momentous matter. The knowing ones averred that something was "going to drop." At about 5 o'clock last night it dropped. The Union Pacific announced the deepest cut of the season in Transcontinental passenger rates. "We have placed the rate, both firstclass and emigrant," said General Ticket Agent Stebbins to a reporter for the BEE, "at $5 net. The first-class rate to the coast is $30 with a rebate of $25 upon reaching destination; $20 for second-class with a rebate of $15."

A Few Surmises About the Military Changes.

General Howard has not yet received official confirmation of his appointment as brigadier general, but is nevertheless preparing to leave Omaha within the next two weeks.

Speaking of the changes in the mili-tary world which will take place within the next few weeks, the Army and Navy Register says: "The departure of General Torry and General Howard from their present headquarters will involve several changes in the commands of other de partments than those over which they have recently been placed. We are in-formed that General Crook is strongly desirous of returning to the department of the Platte, and that probably his wishes will be acceded to. He will therefore succeed General Howard, and one of the new brigadier generals will perhaps be assigned to the de-partment of Arizona. General Miles will quite likely be transferred from the de-partment of Missouri to the department of Dakota, the latter being a larger and more important department than the one has. Whether one of the new brigadier generals will be assigned to the department of the Missouri, or whether further reassignments of commands will be made it is too early to say, but this will doubtless be determined next week, or as soon as the new appointments shall have been made and confirmed."

Further the same journal says: "It is aderstood that the nomination of Gen. Howard to be a major general in the army, has been confirmed by the senate, but it has not been officially announced, and pending the announcement the president delays sending in the names to fill the two brigadier generalships."

Short Interviews Gathered in the Hotel Rotundas.

J. T. Dickerson, St. Paul, Minn.: "Without doubt the ice carnival was a great thing for St. Paul in the way of advertising it through the length and breadth of the land, as a lively and progressive city. I do not think that the projectors of the scheme made money out of it, so far as individual dividends are concerned, though of course the merchants, as a class, profited greatly from the fact that the crowd of visitors spent money lavishly. Yes, next year the carnival will be repeated, though I do not think on so grand a scale as this year. The neighboring cities of Fargo, Duluth etc., will probably take up the scheme and have an ice palace carnival, which circumstance will naturally affect the attendance upon the one to be held in our city. The strikes held in our city. The strikes in the southwestern country have not affected business in St. Paul a particle. On the contrary it has rather helped matters up our way, because it has sent the bulk of the west bound passenger traffle through St. Paul." T. D. Lane, St. Louis, Mo.: "Yes, sir, the trade of St. Louis and in fact the entire southwestern country has been paralyzed by the great strikes. I do not believe that trade in our city will recover its elasticity for the next six months to come. The damage to the merchants there, I believe, has already mounted into the millions. To be sure, after the long suspension of traffic, business will start again with a boom, which will partly make up for losses caused by the strike."

Judge J. C. Crawford, West Point, Neb.: 'Yes, the West Point creamery is now out the hands of the receivers appointed by the United States court and is being operated by the original company which bought it. Politics in our section of the country are not cooling yet, and of the country are not cooling yet, and there is very little that I can tell you on that point. In our county, Cuming, the sentiment I think is against Van Wyck as the coming senator. That is very natural of course, as West Point and Cuming county are the strongholds of the Valentine clique, who are quite naturally opposed to Van Wyck. In Madison county, however, the talk is that Van Wyck delegates will be sent to the convention. In Knox county, I think, the vention. In Knox county, I think, the sentiment is pretty evenly divided. The democrats in our part of the state are talking Boyd as the coming candidate on their ticket.

A Pleasant Celebration.

The second wedding anniversary of Colonel and Mrs. Frank Simms was celebrated on Thursday evening, March 25, at their residence on Eighteenth street. Many choice presents were received by the happy couple.

One of the features of the evening was a "mock lawsuit," in which the ven-erable Colonel figured as prisoner, M. J. Thomson being judge, and P. W. Shaf-rath and H. L. Thomas being lawyers. At 11 o'clock a supper was served, to which all did hearty justice.

A. J. McFarland is a jolly colored individual who was yesterday a little downhearted. He appeared at police headquarters late in the afternoon and made a complaint that Sing Kee, the celestial laundryman, had refused to return clothing which had been left at his wash-house to be cleansed. "I doan care for de shirts, jedge," said McFarland, "only it's lifteen days to pay day an' I can't buy no moah till den an' I hate to go without a biled shirt." Judge Stenberg, to whom McFarland addressed his remarks, told the complainant that there was no redress for his case, except to sue the Chinaman, for it was not a criminal "I haven't any sympathy for you," continued his honor, "for you might have known better than to trust a Chinaman and especially that bad one, Sing Kee." McFarland grinned, and as he backed toward the street said: "Well, I tole de heatden dat I'd hab him 'rested, but I'll go back and tell him de jedge ain't got no sympathy fer me, an' den I'll try an' get him out on de street. The old Izard mansion, on the corner of 22nd and Webster streets, is being torn down, having been sold by Mr. John A. It was built in 1856 by Governor Lard, who succeeded Common and was occupied by ceeded Cuming, and was occupied by him during his two years stay in Omaha. After he left this city the place was sold, and passed through different hands until it became part of Creighton estate. Among those who at lifferent times owned the house was Steve Elkins, who afterwards became famous as the New York politician and wire puller. At one time—not more than three or four years ago, the old mansion was said to be haunted, though the proofs of the ghostly visitations were not forth-coming. For the last few years thehouse

A Big Case.

A motion in a very important case was argued before Judge Dundy in chambers yesterday afternoon. The case is that of Beatty vs. Dow, and it directly involves about three-quarters of the business part of Hastings, the amount at stake being mething like $200,000. Briefly stated the case is this: When the town of Hastings was first laid out the town fell into possession of a town company organized on the stock plan. The company delegated to certain persons the power of attorney, and these persons used the power thus given them, t is claimed, wrongfully, and disposed of many lots without making any returns to the company. After the old stock organization broke up these same persons who, as alleged, had disnonestly used their powers of attorney formed a new company and disposed of the balance of the property. Some of the lots thus disposed of they follow into possession of posed of have fallen into possession of Mr. Beatty, while the defendant in the action, Mr. Dow, still holds a title to the very same lots by virtue of the ownership of the old ompany. The matter stood in this wise when a few months ago Dow began sut in ejectment to force Beatty to give up the property which he held. Beatty, by way of "getting back" at his legal enemy, commenced a suit in the United States court to quiet the old title of Dow. Mr. R. O. Hall, the attorney for Mr. Dow, filed a motion to throw Beatty's suit out of court and proceed with the original case of Dow against Beatty. J. M. Woolworth represented the plaintiff Beatty in the argument of the motion. Judge Dundy has taken the matter under ship of Nebraska.

A number of Omaha sports have been endeavoring to arrange a pugilistic encounter in the near future for a medal and the championship of Nebraska, and the prospects are now bright for a fulfillment of their desires. Mr. Ed Rothery, who takes a lively interest in pugilistic as well as other sporting events, has been in correspondence with Richard K. Fox, of the Police Gazette, in regard to the matter, and has received strong encouragement. Mr. Fox agrees to furnish a medal to be known as the "Police Gazette champion," he to pay 40 per cent of the cost and Mr. Rothery 60 per cent. The value of the medal will be $100, and will be put up for the championship of Nebraska. All residents of Nebraska can be competitors, none being barred. No weight is specified, and anyone can enter from a feather weight to a heavy weight. The exact date of the match has not been agreed upon, but the medat will arrive in Omaha in a few days and will be on exhibition at Rothery's saloon.

An effort is being made for a half-mile race between Dan J. Ross and John Hourihan for $250 a side.

Frank Bandle, the well-known base ball man, has returned from the east, and once more greets his friends with the same smile that used to light up his face every time he placed himself in front of a hot "liner." He will remain in Omaha for some time at least, and perhaps permanently.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

The Church Choir Concert at the

The four-part songs by the choir were very pleasing selections and admirably rendered. One of the gems of the evening was the song Marguirete's Three Boquets, as sung by Mrs. Squires with violin obligate by Mr. Lentz. In this number Mrs. Squires' voice was particularly sweet and her singing was characterized by good phrasing, clear enunciation and brilliant tone. Mr. Taber at the organ and piano was every-thing that could be desired. He is one of Omaha's very few accomplished organists and reliable accompanists. Taken as a whole, this concert was the best of the series.

Col. Smythe's Obsequies. The funeral of the late Col. Edwin F

Smythe took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of Mrs. Sophia Lowe, 1819 Farnam street, and was largely attended by the friends and acquaintances of the deceased. The Douglas county bar was represented by a large delegation, in-cluding the indges of the district court, who paid their last tribute of respect to their late associate. The fire com-panies of the city, and almost the entire membership of the old volunteer engine company, Fire King, No. 2, of which Col. Smythe was an active member, were present at the services and ac-companied the remains to their last resting place. The floral display was profuse the handsome casket being completely embedded in flowers and covered with appropriate floral emblems, tokens from friends and associates in his different walks of life. The tribute from the firemen of the city consisted of a leautiful fixeman's hat with "No. 2" on the fron-naeman's hat with "No. 2" on the fron-tispiece selected by Messrs. Galligan and Moynhan, the committee appointed for that purpose. The funer-al services were conducted by Rev. A. F. Sherrill, pastor of the First Congregational church, assisted by Rev. John F. Williams, rector of St. Barnabas. A quartette composed of H. D. Estabrook and wife, Mrs. Squires and W. B. Wilkins rendered appropriate music for the occasion. At the conclusion sion of the services the remains were conveyed to the family burial ground of Mrs. Sophia Lowe, followed by a long line of carriages, where interment was had. The pall bearers were selected from the fire companies, and were Assistant Chiefs Galligan and Salter, Captain Webb of No. 3, Captain Barnes of Hook and Ladder, Captain Grebe of No. 2, James O'Brien, driver of Hook and James O'Brien, driver of Hook and Ladder, James Connelly of No. 1, and Thomas Ruane, of Hook and Ladder.

The Police Docket. For a Monday morning, His Honor Judge Stenberg did a light business yesterday, only a few unimportant cases of intoxication and vagrancy being disposed of. Both the judge, and the usually genial clerk, Jerome Pentzel, appeared to be wrapped in the deepest gloom, a circumstance doubtless due to the outrage perpetrated upon them-and especially the atter-in Sunday morning's Herald. Mr. Pentzel is usually affable and willing to give all the news to the reporters. But yesterday he looked daggers at the BEE nan who approached him for an item, and pointed ominously at a big club by his side, which Court Officer Whalen says is to be used on the next man who says any-thing about "that pieter."

Lon Shuhurst, George Hyde and Thomas Kane were fined $5 and costs for being drunk. All three paid and were released. Charles M. Gardner was not so fortunate, and was committed in de fault of his fine. John Goodman and David Tostevin, (the latter the well known legal light of Council Bluffs), likewise arraign on a charge of intoxi-eation, but were released. Andrew Long for fighting, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 and costs.

Jacob Klein, arrested at the complaint of B. Danourty for ealling him names, paid a fine of $5 and costs. Several vagrants were given bread and water sentences, and the morning session closed.

Judge McCul-loch has as yet been unable to obtain sufficient time to comply with the request.

A Fatal Accident. News was received yesterday an accident which curred at Dexter, a on the Union Pacific near North Platte.
