THE COUNTY JAIL.

Its Inmates, Their Crimes, and How the Time is Passed.

"Good afternoon; pleased to see you, come in and sit by the fire," said George Miller, county jailer, to a Blue reporter who was up that way yesterday afternoon looking for news.

There are seventy-eight prisoners now inside the county jail, and all seem to fare very well. Twenty-nine of these are on a bread-and-water "diet."

There are two or three in the jail for grand larceny, three for horse stealing, two for forgery, three for robbery, two for larceny, two for seduction, and two for assault.

The inmates, while in jail, are kept busy with their own work, and are allowed to read newspapers and magazines.

RAILROAD MEN CONFERENCE.

Trustees of the Cheyenne & Northern Meet General Manager Callaway.

The trustees of the newly projected Cheyenne & Northern railroad, Messrs. Sturgis, Nagle, Post, Devine, Warren, Hay and Corlett, were in Omaha yesterday, to confer with General Manager Callaway and other railroad men in this city who may be interested in the road.

The rates were last night as low as heretofore to the coast—$10 round trip to San Francisco and return.

Something over seventy-five tickets were sold yesterday for California points, and the holders are now on their way.

Mr. E. S. Albricht, agent in this city for the B. & N. road, has in the past two days sent fifty men and a large number of teams to Grand Island, to work on the extension of the road from the latter place to the Black Hills.

Gen. Howard, in speaking about the matter, said that a barricade against bullets would be erected between the grounds and the house, but if the tenant still objected to taking any risks, the use of the range would probably have to be abandoned.

Col. Henry has recovered from his illness and is once more able to be at his post of duty.
