

FIFTEENTH YEAR.

THIS STRIKE MUST GO ON.

The St. Louis Knights Openly Rebel Against Chief Powderly's Orders.

WORK FOR ALL OR FOR NONE.

An Appeal to the Public From the District Board—Parsons and Fort Worth in Control of Mobs—Incidents.

The Situation in St. Louis.

St. Louis, April 1.—It is not by any means certain that either the knights on the Gould system or those in East St. Louis would return to work today in obedience to the order issued by the officers of the assemblies.

BLACKLISTING THE BOYS.

The Gould Road Officials Will Only Hire Those They Feel Inclined.

St. Louis, April 1.—It now develops that under instructions from the executive board of districts No. 92 and 17, the committee from local assembly 3550 awaited upon Master Meachanic Bartlett last evening at the Missouri Pacific shops and tendered the services of the old shop employees.

Seeking Arbitration.

Pittsburg, April 1.—The striking street car men will meet tomorrow afternoon to consider a proposition from the railway company.

A Ten Per Cent Advance Given.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 1.—The workers at the Medina, Ohio, hollow ware mills, one of the largest establishments of the kind in the country, were today given an advance of 10 per cent in wages.

WATERY WASTES.

The Effects of the Southern Freshet Worse Than Anticipated.

Birmingham, Ala., April 1.—Specials to the Age from the river towns of North Alabama show that the effects of the freshet are worse than telegraphed yesterday.

AN APPEAL TO OGLESBY.

Merchants of St. Louis Call His Attention to the Situation.

St. Louis, April 1.—About noon today several representative members of the Merchants' exchange, headed by D. R. Francis, mayor of the city, called upon Governor Olesby at the Martell house in East St. Louis.

THE TRAIN FAILED TO MOVE.

A Conflict Between Strikers and Citizens at Fort Worth.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 1.—Fort Worth is in the hands of a mob. A citizens' posse was summoned by the sheriff to assemble this morning at the Missouri Pacific yards.

ROOM FOR VERY FEW.

Sheldon's Answer to Martin Irons—Dallas, Texas, April 1.—The following telegram was received here yesterday:

Parsons in the Hands of a Mob.

Kansas City, April 1.—The Journal's Topeka special says: Governor Martin received a dispatch to-night from State Adjutant General Campbell at Parsons, Kan., saying the mob was seemingly in the ascendancy there and he could not start trains without aid.

Quaker Fashion Without Quarreling.

Philadelphia, April 1.—The board of city railway presidents had a four-hour conference with the arbitration committee of the Quaker City Protective association, knights of Labor.

A bill of grievances, submitted by the committee on March 23, was considered in every detail, and an amicable understanding was reached and an agreement signed by the president of every road in the city and by seven members of the arbitration committee.

Miners' Strike Inaugurated.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 1.—Some 2,500 miners on the Baltimore & Ohio road and its branches went on a strike today for a 25 per cent rate on all coal, no matter when shipped.

Slowly Resuming at Kansas City.

Kansas City, April 1.—Though the strikers as a body have not returned to work, Missouri Pacific freight business is progressing more actively today.

Strikers in Court.

St. Louis, April 1.—Fred Howard, a striker who assaulted a Missouri Pacific engineer because he refused to stop his engine upon the request of the knights to do so, was fined $100 and costs today at the criminal court.

Seeking Arbitration.

Pittsburg, April 1.—The striking street car men will meet tomorrow afternoon to consider a proposition from the railway company.

A Ten Per Cent Advance Given.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 1.—The workers at the Medina, Ohio, hollow ware mills, one of the largest establishments of the kind in the country, were today given an advance of 10 per cent in wages.

WATERY WASTES.

The Effects of the Southern Freshet Worse Than Anticipated.

Birmingham, Ala., April 1.—Specials to the Age from the river towns of North Alabama show that the effects of the freshet are worse than telegraphed yesterday.

AN APPEAL TO OGLESBY.

Merchants of St. Louis Call His Attention to the Situation.

St. Louis, April 1.—About noon today several representative members of the Merchants' exchange, headed by D. R. Francis, mayor of the city, called upon Governor Olesby at the Martell house in East St. Louis.

THE TRAIN FAILED TO MOVE.

A Conflict Between Strikers and Citizens at Fort Worth.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 1.—Fort Worth is in the hands of a mob. A citizens' posse was summoned by the sheriff to assemble this morning at the Missouri Pacific yards.

ROOM FOR VERY FEW.

Sheldon's Answer to Martin Irons—Dallas, Texas, April 1.—The following telegram was received here yesterday:

Parsons in the Hands of a Mob.

Kansas City, April 1.—The Journal's Topeka special says: Governor Martin received a dispatch to-night from State Adjutant General Campbell at Parsons, Kan., saying the mob was seemingly in the ascendancy there and he could not start trains without aid.

Quaker Fashion Without Quarreling.

Philadelphia, April 1.—The board of city railway presidents had a four-hour conference with the arbitration committee of the Quaker City Protective association, knights of Labor.

A bill of grievances, submitted by the committee on March 23, was considered in every detail, and an amicable understanding was reached and an agreement signed by the president of every road in the city and by seven members of the arbitration committee.

Miners' Strike Inaugurated.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 1.—Some 2,500 miners on the Baltimore & Ohio road and its branches went on a strike today for a 25 per cent rate on all coal, no matter when shipped.

Slowly Resuming at Kansas City.

Kansas City, April 1.—Though the strikers as a body have not returned to work, Missouri Pacific freight business is progressing more actively today.

Strikers in Court.

St. Louis, April 1.—Fred Howard, a striker who assaulted a Missouri Pacific engineer because he refused to stop his engine upon the request of the knights to do so, was fined $100 and costs today at the criminal court.

Seeking Arbitration.

Pittsburg, April 1.—The striking street car men will meet tomorrow afternoon to consider a proposition from the railway company.

A Ten Per Cent Advance Given.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 1.—The workers at the Medina, Ohio, hollow ware mills, one of the largest establishments of the kind in the country, were today given an advance of 10 per cent in wages.

WATERY WASTES.

The Effects of the Southern Freshet Worse Than Anticipated.

Birmingham, Ala., April 1.—Specials to the Age from the river towns of North Alabama show that the effects of the freshet are worse than telegraphed yesterday.

AN APPEAL TO OGLESBY.

Merchants of St. Louis Call His Attention to the Situation.

St. Louis, April 1.—About noon today several representative members of the Merchants' exchange, headed by D. R. Francis, mayor of the city, called upon Governor Olesby at the Martell house in East St. Louis.

THE TRAIN FAILED TO MOVE.

A Conflict Between Strikers and Citizens at Fort Worth.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 1.—Fort Worth is in the hands of a mob. A citizens' posse was summoned by the sheriff to assemble this morning at the Missouri Pacific yards.

ROOM FOR VERY FEW.

Sheldon's Answer to Martin Irons—Dallas, Texas, April 1.—The following telegram was received here yesterday:

Parsons in the Hands of a Mob.

Kansas City, April 1.—The Journal's Topeka special says: Governor Martin received a dispatch to-night from State Adjutant General Campbell at Parsons, Kan., saying the mob was seemingly in the ascendancy there and he could not start trains without aid.

Quaker Fashion Without Quarreling.

Philadelphia, April 1.—The board of city railway presidents had a four-hour conference with the arbitration committee of the Quaker City Protective association, knights

ALWAYS FIGHTING MONOPOLY.

Van Wyck Pays His Respects to the Washington Gas Light Company.

WELL PROTECTED CORPORATION.

The Nomination of J. C. Morgan as Postmaster at Kearney Withdrawn—A Poppy Oil Petition—Washington Notes.

A Great Monopoly Exposed.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special Telegram.]—Senator Van Wyck has drawn blood from the monopoly interests of the laboring people here. He succeeded in his efforts to reduce the working hours of the street car men without reducing their pay, and then he turned his attention to that gigantic monopoly, the Washington Gas Light company.

THE EDUCATION BILLS.

Ugly Rumors in Connection With Their Course in the House.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—It is generally believed now that if an educational bill such as that proposed by Senator Blair and Representative Willis, should be passed, that the president would veto it. It is even said that the president has taken an interest in the legislation that has been prevailing in the house for a week or two.

AN ACHMONOON DEBATE.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

UNION PACIFIC AFFAIRS.

President Adams Explains the Financial Condition of the Company.

BOSTON, April 1.—[Special Telegram.]—At the annual meeting of the Union Pacific stockholders, yesterday, President Adams made a short review of the progress made by the road during the year.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

from which it is manufactured; and the petitioners ask that poppy oil pay a duty equivalent to that placed on linseed oil, on which class it properly belongs, otherwise it will injuriously interfere with the interests of the entire country, and especially the interests of farmers in Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota and Dakota.

THE EDUCATION BILLS.

Ugly Rumors in Connection With Their Course in the House.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—It is generally believed now that if an educational bill such as that proposed by Senator Blair and Representative Willis, should be passed, that the president would veto it. It is even said that the president has taken an interest in the legislation that has been prevailing in the house for a week or two.

AN ACHMONOON DEBATE.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

UNION PACIFIC AFFAIRS.

President Adams Explains the Financial Condition of the Company.

BOSTON, April 1.—[Special Telegram.]—At the annual meeting of the Union Pacific stockholders, yesterday, President Adams made a short review of the progress made by the road during the year.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

available cash items, $1,404,377.85; net cash in treasury, $76,881,099; debt, $6 of debt during March, $14,087,884; cash in treasury, $230,138; total cash in treasury, as shown by the treasurer's general account, $403,007,711.

PENALTY FOR IMPROPER USE OF MAIL.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Senator Wilson today reported favorably from the committee on postoffices his bill to amend the Revised Statutes of the United States so as to make the penalty for using the mails to circulate obscene or immoral books, a fine of not less than $100, nor more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, if the offense is committed by a person more than ten years, at the discretion of the court.

Secretary Manning's Condition.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Inquiry at Secretary Manning's house at noon today, elicits the information that the secretary is about the same as at the last report.

Nebraskans Nominated.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The following nominations were sent to the senate today: Victor V. Johnson, Nebraska, consul at Barranquilla.

Counterfeit $5 Banknote.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, April 1.—A counterfeit, brownback, national bank, note, here discovered, purporting to be an issue of the Central National bank of Newark, Conn., and giving its charter number of the bank as 404, and that the bank had been organized in the year of 1882, and its charter number is 2,342.

Military Nominations.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate: To be brigadier general, Col. Thomas H. Roger, Eighteenth infantry, vice Gen. Terry; Col. Joseph H. Porter, Twenty-fourth infantry, vice Gen. Howard.

UNION PACIFIC AFFAIRS.

President Adams Explains the Financial Condition of the Company.

BOSTON, April 1.—[Special Telegram.]—At the annual meeting of the Union Pacific stockholders, yesterday, President Adams made a short review of the progress made by the road during the year.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army, by increasing it a few thousand in number of men, has been marked by more feeling and interest than is usually shown in the senate.

Logan's Army Bill Discussion Creates Some Bitter Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Special.]—The debate on the bill by Senator Logan to increase the efficiency of the army