

THE STRIKE STILL GOES ON.

New Complications Confront the Railroads Running Into St. Louis.

ALL QUIET AT FORT WORTH.

Trains Moving Regularly—Could Deny the Statements of Turner—Men Being Re-Employed—The Situation.

The Strike Goes On.

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—It was generally believed yesterday that to-day the freight blockade on this and the east side of the river would be raised and resumption of traffic be completed.

British Grain Trade Review.

LONDON, April 5.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review, says: Trade in native wheat in London was very much depressed.

The Visible Supply Statement.

CHICAGO, April 5.—The number of bushels of grain in store in the United States and Canada on April 4 and the increase or decrease since the previous day are given as follows:

Death of Bunker Foster.

LOS ANGELES, April 5.—Honorable William E. Foster, chief secretary of Ireland under a previous Gladstone ministry, is dead.

Strong Indications of War.

ATHENS, April 5.—The minister of war has returned from a tour of inspection of the frontier defenses.

Celebrating Alexander's Birth.

SOFIA, April 6.—To-day is the twenty-ninth anniversary of the birth of Prince Alexander.

Knights Elect Their Ticket.

ST. PAUL, April 5.—A Winona, Minn., special to the Pioneer Press says: The entire knights of labor tickets were voted for.

The Rate War Nearly Ended.

NEW YORK, April 5.—"Rates will not be extended beyond to-morrow," was said at the transcontinental offices to-day.

Restraints American Emigration.

PARIS, April 5.—M. Sarin, minister of the interior, has ordered all mayors and prefects of the country to do their utmost to dissuade Frenchmen from emigrating.

Land Frauds in New Mexico.

NEW YORK, April 5.—[Special Telegram.]—The Herald has a long letter from Las Vegas, saying that 90 per cent of the pre-emption and homestead entries during the last five years in New Mexico are of a fraudulent nature.

Weather for To-day.

MISSOURI VALLEY.—Fair; westerly winds, becoming variable, succeeded in southerly portion by northerly winds.

THE CLEARANCE RECORD.

The Gross Bank Exchanges for the Last Week.

BOSTON, April 5.—The following table, compiled for special dispatches to the Post, from the managers of the leading clearing houses in the United States, show the gross bank exchanges at each point for the week ending April 3, in comparison with the corresponding week in 1885:

Table with columns: CITIES, CLEARINGS, INCREASE, DECREASE. Lists cities like New York, Boston, Philadelphia, etc.

THE EDWARDS RESOLUTIONS DISREGARDED.

The Labor Arbitration Bill a Roaring Farce—Why Weaver Retains His Seat.

OFFICES CHANGING HANDS.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—[Special Telegram.]—The fact that the 23,000 demagogic postmasters in the service of the government, as shown some time ago, has set people looking up the situation a little, and it is being found that the offices are becoming demagogic more rapidly than was supposed.

THE PAN-ELECTRIC.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Solicitor General John Goode appeared before the telephone investigating committee this afternoon to tell what he knew of the circumstances leading to the institution of the Memphis suit.

THE LEGISLATURE'S WORK.

The house passed a bill of realizing acts and the bill to prevent the spread of contagious disease among cattle by providing that any person bringing cattle into the state infected with Texas fever, or any other contagious disease, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable with fine and imprisonment.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST.

I have in stock the Best and Most Choice Selection of Men's Finest Goods.

FOR RENT.

Second and Third floors of 1309 Farnam street. Low rent to desirable party.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

A RAPID REPUBLICAN EXIT.

Insidious Official Changes Which Will Place Democrats in Full Control Next Year.

HOW IT IS ACCOMPLISHED.

The Edmunds Resolutions Disregarded—The Labor Arbitration Bill a Roaring Farce—Why Weaver Retains His Seat.

OFFICES CHANGING HANDS.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—[Special Telegram.]—The fact that the 23,000 demagogic postmasters in the service of the government, as shown some time ago, has set people looking up the situation a little, and it is being found that the offices are becoming demagogic more rapidly than was supposed.

THE PAN-ELECTRIC.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Solicitor General John Goode appeared before the telephone investigating committee this afternoon to tell what he knew of the circumstances leading to the institution of the Memphis suit.

THE LEGISLATURE'S WORK.

The house passed a bill of realizing acts and the bill to prevent the spread of contagious disease among cattle by providing that any person bringing cattle into the state infected with Texas fever, or any other contagious disease, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable with fine and imprisonment.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST.

I have in stock the Best and Most Choice Selection of Men's Finest Goods.

FOR RENT.

Second and Third floors of 1309 Farnam street. Low rent to desirable party.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

public monies at Beatrice, and G. J. Evans to be postmaster at Hastings.

NEBRASKA SETTLERS GRANTED RELIEF. The house to-day passed the bill to quiet title to settlers on the Denver & St. Joe railway lands.

FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES.

The Minority Report on the Brown Matter Simply a Stump Speech.

THE ABSURD STATEMENTS MADE.

The Work of the Iowa Legislature—The Cattle Contagious Disease Bill Passes—A Marshalltown Scandal.

Whiting's Remarkable Document.

DES MOINES, April 5.—[Special Telegram.]—Senator Whiting presented his minority report on the Brown matter this afternoon. It is a very remarkable document in that it treats of everything else but the testimony before the committee.

THE PAN-ELECTRIC.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Solicitor General John Goode appeared before the telephone investigating committee this afternoon to tell what he knew of the circumstances leading to the institution of the Memphis suit.

THE LEGISLATURE'S WORK.

The house passed a bill of realizing acts and the bill to prevent the spread of contagious disease among cattle by providing that any person bringing cattle into the state infected with Texas fever, or any other contagious disease, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable with fine and imprisonment.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST.

I have in stock the Best and Most Choice Selection of Men's Finest Goods.

FOR RENT.

Second and Third floors of 1309 Farnam street. Low rent to desirable party.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES.

The Minority Report on the Brown Matter Simply a Stump Speech.

THE ABSURD STATEMENTS MADE.

The Work of the Iowa Legislature—The Cattle Contagious Disease Bill Passes—A Marshalltown Scandal.

Whiting's Remarkable Document.

DES MOINES, April 5.—[Special Telegram.]—Senator Whiting presented his minority report on the Brown matter this afternoon. It is a very remarkable document in that it treats of everything else but the testimony before the committee.

THE PAN-ELECTRIC.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Solicitor General John Goode appeared before the telephone investigating committee this afternoon to tell what he knew of the circumstances leading to the institution of the Memphis suit.

THE LEGISLATURE'S WORK.

The house passed a bill of realizing acts and the bill to prevent the spread of contagious disease among cattle by providing that any person bringing cattle into the state infected with Texas fever, or any other contagious disease, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable with fine and imprisonment.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST.

I have in stock the Best and Most Choice Selection of Men's Finest Goods.

FOR RENT.

Second and Third floors of 1309 Farnam street. Low rent to desirable party.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

FOR RENT.

Two houses with all modern improvements on easy terms.

CAPITAL NOTES.

An Important Decision—Lands Open for Settlement.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—In the supreme court of the United States to-day, the following decision was entered in the Illinois Midland Railway company case:

NEWS FROM OVER THE STATE.

South Auburn's Convicted Murderer Makes a Public Statement of the Case.

South Auburn, Neb., April 5.—[Special.]—Mark Hall, sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for manslaughter, had the following statement prepared to make to the court, but he decided to give it to the public by means of the press and desired the Bee correspondent to attend to its publication. It is given over his signature and is as follows:

A POISONING AT CREIGHTON.

Rough on Rats Nearly Ends a Family's Existence—Auburn's First City Election Hotly Contested—State News.

How Worrell Was Killed.

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—[Special.]—Mark Hall, sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for manslaughter, had the following statement prepared to make to the court, but he decided to give it to the public by means of the press and desired the Bee correspondent to attend to its publication. It is given over his signature and is as follows:

Thrown Open to Settlement.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The secretary of the interior has denied the application of counsel for a rehearing in the celebrated McCarty case.

To Investigate Railroad Rates.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Dorsey of Nebraska introduced a resolution directing the committee of commerce to inquire into the charges made against the railroad companies concerning the present system of transporting live stock.

Crenholm Confirmed Comptroller.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The senate has confirmed William T. Crenholm as comptroller of the currency.

A Causeless Killing.

MILWAUKEE, April 5.—A beautiful girl of 15 years, living at the corner of Villet and 19th streets, early this morning, while sleeping by the side of her little sisters, was shot and instantly killed by Isadore Schulman.

Yesterday's Nominations.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The president today made the following nominations: Postmaster—John H. Sargent, De Witt, Iowa.

To the Public.

OMAHA, Neb., April 3d, 1886. All shippers are hereby notified that on and after Monday, April 12th, 1886, no freight, in less than car load lots, will be received for or shipped from the depot.

Let Bradford figure your bill if you wish to save money.

Low prices, good grades and a square deal. Central Lumber Yard, 13th & Cal.

All the News at Creighton.

Creighton, Neb., April 5.—[Special.]—The family of John Fox, a farmer living west of here, was poisoned a few days ago by eating bread made of flour which was supposed to have been prepared for them by putting "Rough on Rats" in it.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

CAPITAL NOTES.

An Important Decision—Lands Open for Settlement.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—In the supreme court of the United States to-day, the following decision was entered in the Illinois Midland Railway company case:

NEWS FROM OVER THE STATE.

South Auburn's Convicted Murderer Makes a Public Statement of the Case.

South Auburn, Neb., April 5.—[Special.]—Mark Hall, sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for manslaughter, had the following statement prepared to make to the court, but he decided to give it to the public by means of the press and desired the Bee correspondent to attend to its publication. It is given over his signature and is as follows:

A POISONING AT CREIGHTON.

Rough on Rats Nearly Ends a Family's Existence—Auburn's First City Election Hotly Contested—State News.

How Worrell Was Killed.

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—[Special.]—Mark Hall, sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for manslaughter, had the following statement prepared to make to the court, but he decided to give it to the public by means of the press and desired the Bee correspondent to attend to its publication. It is given over his signature and is as follows:

Thrown Open to Settlement.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The secretary of the interior has denied the application of counsel for a rehearing in the celebrated McCarty case.

To Investigate Railroad Rates.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Dorsey of Nebraska introduced a resolution directing the committee of commerce to inquire into the charges made against the railroad companies concerning the present system of transporting live stock.

Crenholm Confirmed Comptroller.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The senate has confirmed William T. Crenholm as comptroller of the currency.

A Causeless Killing.

MILWAUKEE, April 5.—A beautiful girl of 15 years, living at the corner of Villet and 19th streets, early this morning, while sleeping by the side of her little sisters, was shot and instantly killed by Isadore Schulman.

Yesterday's Nominations.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The president today made the following nominations: Postmaster—John H. Sargent, De Witt, Iowa.

To the Public.

OMAHA, Neb., April 3d, 1886. All shippers are hereby notified that on and after Monday, April 12th, 1886, no freight, in less than car load lots, will be received for or shipped from the depot.

Let Bradford figure your bill if you wish to save money.

Low prices, good grades and a square deal. Central Lumber Yard, 13th & Cal.

All the News at Creighton.

Creighton, Neb., April 5.—[Special.]—The family of John Fox, a farmer living west of here, was poisoned a few days ago by eating bread made of flour which was supposed to have been prepared for them by putting "Rough on Rats" in it.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.

Our democratic postmaster has moved into his new office, just completed. It is the finest office in this part of the state.

J. C. Santee, the Nebraska postmaster, still holds the office, although it was supposed he had been removed and a democrat appointed.