PRESIDENT EGAN INTERVIEWED.

The Silk Thieves Endeavoring to Prevent Identification—Interesting Items From the Capital.

FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.

At the meeting of the city council last night Mayor Burr said that he had discovered that Mr. Littlefield, the Law and Order League policeman, is not a citizen of Lincoln, and he would have to remove him from the force. As Mr. Lewis, the attorney of the League, was not present, however, the mayor said he would postpone the bouncing performance until the next meeting, though he had intended to use the official book now.

AN AMATEUR'S INVENTION.

How the Catcher's Mask Was Introduced.

The First One Made by Capt. Thayer and Worn by Catcher Tynge—Two Noted Harvard Ball Players of Long Ago.

Old ball players in Omaha and lovers of the sport, who have watched the game for the last seven years, will remember the first professional nine organized in this city in the fall of 1879. It was a good nine, including the two Whiteyses, Bandle and Nibben. In two of the most important games played the nine was headed by a catcher from the B. & M. headquarters.

Comparatively few people who are interested in the national game today, know that professional catchers were once employed by an amateur.
