A Detective Establishes His Faith in Dreams.

"Dreams?" said an Omaha detective musingly, as he threw a long spiral coil of tobacco smoke from the clear Havana that rested between his lips.

"Yes," said the newspaper man, "go ahead. Tell me about it."

"It happened some ten years ago," said the detective, dexterously throwing his little finger against the ash end of his cigar.

"One of the young ladies with whom I became acquainted was a fair being whom I shall call Ida. Pretty? Yes. Take my word for it, a more charming creature never lived."

"You, too, are curious," she said. "Well, I'll show you the way."

"The old woman lay upon the snowy sheets, which were warm and dry, showing that a terrible death struggle must have taken place."

The rest of the story is soon told. Ida in her ravings the story of the crime in its every detail, and there was no longer any doubt in my mind...

Worship in the Jewish Synagogue.

To the Editor: Sir—Whilst on my way recently to the synagogue I was asked the frequent question, "Rev. Rabbi, do you admit Christians to your synagogue?"

The questioner on this occasion was one of a party of ladies, and personally known to the writer as a person of both culture and intelligence.

Western Mutual Benevolent Association

BEATRICE, NEBRASKA. THE LEADING ASSOCIATION OF THE WEST.

CASH CAPITAL, PAID UP IN FULL, $100,000.00. GROSS ASSETS, DECEMBER 31st, 1892, $100,000.80.

A certificate of membership in this Association furnishes benefit at the lowest cost. Men and women, between the ages of 17 and 65 years, who are in good health, may become members.

There is no changing from one class to another, and assessments do not increase with increasing age.

The Company has a guaranteed fund of $100,000 paid up in cash, which is an additional security to that furnished by any company in the United States.

It has a Reserve fund which provides for a non-forfeiting policy and a paid-up policy.

The Company is located in the West; its business is confined to the healthy West, and applications from persons residing in malarial districts are not accepted.

A local Advisory Board, composed of not less than five leading citizens of each vicinity, may be formed, who may act as advisory counsel in the settlement of claims by the death of members and as to the admission of applicants to membership.

A member who lapses his certificate may reinstatement the same at any time upon satisfactory evidence of good health, by the payment of all delinquent dues and assessments.

No insurance company in this or any other country has ever failed by reason of the death-rate experience. The failure in each instance has been caused by speculation or speculation. The safe guards introduced render both impossible in this Association.

Our business is confined to the endowment for old age, and the payment of the widows and orphans after death.

The policy is more liberal, and the plan more secure, than any company in the United States.

Co-operative Insurance Companies existed in England 200 years before the stock plan was thought of, and the same companies exist to-day, some of them having nearly one million members.

We guarantee every promise we make with $100,000 this being in addition to the $100,000 provided for as a Reserve Fund which is a more liberal provision and offer than any other company makes.

The cost of life protection in this company is less than any company in the United States. The company is good and payments prompt.

This Association is now entering its third year, and has a large membership, which is constantly increasing.

All policies become non-forfeiting after the third year to the extent of the member's interest in the Reserve Fund.
