A Lucky Ticket—The City's Economy. A Fat Man Pinched by Prohibition—Various Affairs of the City. Rabbinical Oratory. Sunday evening the First Baptist church of this city was crowded to hear the lecture of Rabbi Benson, the rabbi of the Hebrew congregation of Omaha.

He prefaced his lecture by saying that the question had been and would be asked a good many times how it was that a Jewish rabbi was lecturing in a Christian church to a mixed audience. He answered it by saying that since he came to this country he had noticed two greatly felt wants: First, in the United States there are only 280 Jewish rabbis. In Nebraska none other than himself. In Iowa not one outside of Des Moines.

Second, it is well that his co-religionists should have opportunity to hear the faith of their fathers expounded by one having the authority to teach. "It is for these reasons, brothers and sisters, that I appear before you. You may be surprised to hear me, a Jew, use the terms of brother and sister, but I use them not unmeaningly. I claim the right to use them, and if you can know the price I have paid in heartaches you would accord me the full right. The time has now come when the Jew and the Christian and every man who worships the one true God should join hands as brethren and work to advance his cause, and to stem the tide of atheism and infidelity in our land."

What is the cause of the religious apathy of the age, an apathy that pervades the Christian church and the Jewish synagogue? It will not do to content ourselves by saying men must have more faith. Religion and science must go hand in hand, and true science will give faith in God. The time has come when Jew and Christian must join hands and stand like a bulwark against the materialism of the day. God bless the press, and recognize in it a mighty aid, disseminating knowledge not to be purchased by the wealthy few, but teeming with news, and full of practical information, educating all.

One of the truest signs of the decline of religious faith is that the pulpit does not seem fully to understand the needs of the age. When questions are asked by young America, it will not do to answer "Don't believe in God, and don't believe in your fathers, go to church and have faith in God." He declared that all men believe in a God, and read from Tom Paine himself, a declaration of all the wonderful attributes of Jehovah God, but admitted that the finite mind was not capable of grasping the infinite, therefore differentiating in his mind the simple and the complex. He said that he believed in God, but it paid him better to preach to God to the crowds. If Bob Ingersoll was an evangelist he would give us some kind of a religion, but he simply preaches his beliefs, and for that he charged a dollar a head. If it was announced that Rabbi Benson would lecture on how to avoid the payment of honest debts, no hall in the city would hold the crowd, but if the lecture was to tell men how to pay their debts, the Baptist church would be large enough. Some men argue that God is nature—some the human mind is greater than nature, and has already made many of the supposed immutable laws subservient to his will, and if you could live 200 years from this day you would be surprised to see how many of the laws of nature are subjugated by the mind of man. Therefore nature can not be God, else the created is greater than the creator.

He thought that another cause of the decline of religious faith, was that the children were not educated at home. A man would be considered cruel if he should take his son and throw him into the Missouri river with the injunction to go and swim. Yet boys are thrown into the turbulent stream of life with no other instruction than "Be a man." The question is often asked, what does the Hebrew religion refer to? Christ? We believe, and the Reformed Hebrew church believes that Christ was a great reformer, the equal of Moses. He is my brother, home of my home, and the author of my life. He preached the religion of love to man. But oh, my brother, where for ages was that love to man exemplified? The doctrine of love is taught all through the Bible. The Christian should not despise the Jew. Judaism is the nurse, the mother of Christianity. If we had proven false to our blood, if when cruel war, and fire and sword were down upon us, if we had lowered our knees to the religion of our conquerors, where now would have been your bible? Why is it that you despise the Jew? You do not find him in your prisons, as a violator of your laws. You do not meet him as a beggar. It is not that he is lacking in patriotism. His blood flowed freely in defense of the honored flag when such defense was necessary. This is my country, and I love it. But you say if we believe in the Jewish religion, why do we not attempt to convert others to it, and then you answer you own question by asserting that you do not believe that the Gentiles are worth saving. My brothers and sisters, this is a mistake—we do not claim to have the keys of heaven. But we have, thank God, a wide open door, through which all who love and serve God may enter—Jew, Christian and Mohammedan. If you would stem the tide of materialism, join hands with us, and together spread the truth and reason, and let all care for and teach their children, eradicate all denominational prejudice, and there will soon be no sects.

Beard has an immense stock of wall paper and room mouldings which must be turned into cash, so down go the prices at Beard's. GARDEN HOSE, WARRANTED GOOD 1 1/2 per foot, 1 3/4 per foot, 2 1/4 per foot. Of all styles. HOSE REELS, LAWS SPRINKLERS, Etc., Etc. NEW YORK PLUMBING COMPANY. One Opera House Block.

Too Fly For the Buffs. Yesterday afternoon a stylish young gentleman from Omaha, whose face and form are familiar to many of the business men here, was seen in company with a woman driving recklessly through the streets, splashing the mud over himself and his fair companion, until both were beyond easy recognition by even friends. The young man was evidently crazy drunk, and Capt Anderson, of the merc-chants' police, called the pair to a halt. The officer, taking the horse by the bits, led the procession at a slow walk up to the police headquarters, the scene attracting the attention and exciting the curiosity of a large number, who followed on to see what was up. The young man gave his name as Edmund Lather, and the companion's name was not ascertained, she appearing to be reasonably sober, and being not directly blame for the street exhibition. The young man deposited the money to cover his fine, and after getting sobered up, he was allowed to depart. The young couple succeeded during the afternoon in creating the only street sensation of the day, and the young man will probably come to a realization to-day that he made a bad break in trying to have so big a time in the Bluffs. The horse and buggy was hired by him at Mass Wise's stable, but was not seriously damaged by the reckless and spiteful drive.

Go to Beard for room mouldings. I sell the celebrated Twin Burner gasolene stove. That double burner beats them all. A 4-burner same price as a 3-burner; a 3-burner same price as a 2-burner. W. A. Wood, 504 Main.

The City's Economy. The report of the city auditor is quite interesting this month, as it shows how the city administration is trimming sail. By deducting the warrants drawn for the library and park funds, and for condemnation purposes, the actual running expenses of the city are found to be quite small in proportion to the showing made in many months in the past. By the best calculations it appears that the city is running along at about $4,000 a month for general expenditures, outside of special assessments and special improvements. The following is the report in detail:

Table with columns: Month, Total, Police, Fire department, City engineer, Printing and stationery, Gas and street lamps, Park levy, Miscellaneous, Salaries of officers, Library, Oil grading, Sewerage, Intersection paving, Condemnation, Phillips and Myster. Total: $48,742.47

Wanted, Insurance Solicitors.—To work western half of Iowa for Dwelling House Insurance company of Boston. Ernest Smith, special agent, Council Bluffs. Substantial abstracts of titles and real estate loans. J. W. & E. L. Spire, 10 Pearl street, Council Bluffs.

The Lucky Ticket. Among the attractions at the sisters' fair last week was the $100 in gold, to be raffled off by lots. N. J. Steffensen, a young man who had been employed in W. D. Kirkland's jewelry store, in chatting with Mr. Kirkland about the fair, mourned the fact that he had never any luck in drawing prizes, and asked Mr. Kirkland whether his two little fellows, one aged seven, the other three, were lucky sort of boys. Mr. Kirkland thought they had a reasonably bright star, and the young man concluded that he would buy one ticket in the name of the older one and one for the younger. To his great surprise the ticket bearing the name of Ernest Kirkland, the elder of the boys, was the lucky number which called for the $100. He presented the ticket yesterday, got the gold and carried it to the boy, giving it to him as a nest egg for the future.

Go to the N. Y. P. Co for GARDEN HOSE. THEY WARRANT ALL THEY SELL. Opera House Block. The best lawn mower in the market is the "Philadelphia," sold by Cooper & McGee. Dr. McLeod, oculist and aurist, No. 502 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

Sale of the Driving Park. In accordance with the advertised foreclosure of mortgage, the grounds of the driving park association were sold at auction yesterday by the sheriff. The property was bought in by P. Laey for $6,000, who made the purchase in the interests of those who hold the mortgages. The amount of indebtedness was more than twice the amount realized by the sale. The sale will have little practical effect on the driving park, and the meetings of the association will be continued. The association now will get some solid basis by which the enterprise can be carried on probably more successfully than in the past, as there can hardly be such a run of misfortunes as has characterized the attempts of the association in the past.

Go to Beard for low prices. Pinched by Prohibition. D. B. Barr has been brought here from Carroll county and lodged in the county jail where he will remain for the next five months. He was found guilty of "maintaining a nuisance," or in plainer language, selling intoxicating liquors, and was fined by Judge Loubourou $500 and $200 costs. Not being able to put up cash the jail sentence was given him. Barr is a portly fellow, who could hardly squeeze into an ordinary cell, and looks as if personally it might be a benefit to him to have such a change to get some of the extra flesh off by such a period of confinement. Room Mouldings—Largest assortment and lowest prices at Beard's Wall Paper Store. Let us go to Charlie Heister's and get a good cigar. No. 402 Broadway.

His Prompt Pursuit and Capture of Three Thieves in Dakota. Dickinson (Dak.) Letter to Newburyport (Mass.) Herald. To illustrate what manner of men we need I will relate an incident which is to the point. I presume you are all acquainted, through the newspapers, with the capture of Theodore Roosevelt, who is quite prominent in New York politics and society. He owns a ranch on the Little Missouri, about eighty miles north-west from here, and executed quite a stir last Sunday by bringing to town three horse thieves whom he had captured with the help of two of his "cow men." From him I heard the following story:

About the middle of last month these rascals, who had been operating in his vicinity, stole a number of saddles and placing them on board his boat made off with their booty, thinking themselves secure from pursuit as they were on the only boat on the river. Mr. Roosevelt built another boat, and taking two of his men followed the outlaws 100 miles, came upon them in camp on the river bank, covered them with his rifles, disarmed them, brought them 150 miles across the country to Dickinson, and turned them over to the sheriff. On the evening of their capture, one of the thieves was obliged to dispatch one of his men to the nearest "cow camp" for supplies, and send the other out hunting, while he pressed on alone with his prisoners. He was followed by the outlaws on bread made of nothing but flour and water so muddy that the bread was brown. When I saw him Mr. Roosevelt had been on the "trail" for three weeks, and wore a cowboy's hat, corduroy jacket, flannel shirt, and heavy shoes, but was in excellent health and spirits. Said he: "I don't know how I look, but I feel first rate. I don't expect anything but the appearance in the justice court, saw the outlaws indicted, and a little later took the train 'bound west' for his 'cow camp.' I had never seen Mr. Roosevelt before, although I had read of his exploits from his papers; and when I left home I had no idea of meeting a gentleman of his standing on the frontier masquerading in the character of an imprudent cowboy. But on such men, men of courage and energy, can hope to succeed in this new, beautiful, but undeveloped country."

Sick and bilious headache, and all derangements of stomach and bowels, cured by Dr. Pierce's "Pellets"—or anti-bilious granules, 25 cents a vial. N. Kemp's pills to allow waste of virtues by druggists. There is no attraction like a beautiful skin. Pozzoni's Complexion Powder gives it. A Georgia woman stepped a wedding because she was interested to the extent of having paid for the groom's clothes, with the idea that she was to be the bride.

Half-dressed Sauce makes your food more nutritious. Hoboken, N. J., has a mayor who was first elected upon the democratic ticket, and next on an independent ticket, and now the republicans have nominated him for a third term.

FROM the COUNCIL BLUFFS DAILY GLOBE. M. A. McKee, editor of the Cambria (Iowa) paper, Pa. Freeman, has been the editorial manager of that paper for more than twenty years, and is known wherever he is known as one of the best men living. He is also well known in Council Bluffs. He has been an unfortunate in the fact that his family was ravaged with diphtheria, and recently died. His wife, Mrs. McKee, had only recently sent him some of Dr. Jefferies' Diphtheria Cure, it was used at once, and the lives of the rest of his children saved. Dr. McKee's children out of eight died from diphtheria before he had an opportunity of using Dr. Jefferies' remedy.

Price $5 for two weeks treatment. During the last six years there has not been death from Diphtheria in any case where DR. THOMAS JEFFERIES' PREVENTIVE and CURE was used. It has been the means of saving thousands of lives and might have saved hundreds of thousands more. Infallible cure for all inflammatory, Ulcerative, Putrid, Cancerous Ulceration of the Womb and all Catarrhal conditions. Price $2.
