

SIX DAYS SHALT THOU LABOR.

The Divine Injunction to be Enforced by the Omaha Sabbath Association.

SUNDAY TO BE A DAY OF REST.

Pulpit Consideration of the Law of God Concerning the Sabbath and the Manner in Which It is Ruthlessly Violated.

Some time ago, the attention of Bishop Worthington was directed to a number of cases in which the Sabbath was violated by a number of the working people...

The object of this society for the present, in advance of the adoption of the constitution, which took place yesterday is to discourage work on Sunday...

Pulpit Opinions.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

Rev. Mr. Harsha took for his text the ninth verse of the fourth chapter of Hebrews: "Where remaineth, therefore, a rest (or keeping of Sabbath) to the people of God?"

The idea of the discourse is that the Sabbath rest in heaven. The essential elements are resting in calmness...

Rev. Willard Scott took for his topic: "Sabbath Observance in America after an introduction concerning the origin and intention of the day said: 'Can this ideal Sabbath be secured in a city such as Omaha?'

The work I have to do," she said, "is apparently easy, but at the same time it requires no little skill and experience. Taking care of the finger nails is as important a detail of the toilet as taking care of the teeth or hair.

The subject obeyed. The water was pretty warm, but as the operation was not under his control he could do nothing but follow instructions.

The operation was over, and the newspaper man arose from the chair with the sense of having as perfect set of finger nails as one could desire.

What Omaha shall be on the Sabbath is largely what its better people allow it to be. It may be made as orderly as Toronto, or allowed to become as disorderly as San Francisco.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL. The text the Rev. Mr. Sherrill took was the fourth commandment, to remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.

U. S. COURT. Judge Brewer presiding. The work of the day consisted in the disposition of a few unimportant equity matters.

More Paving. A petition has been presented to the city council asking them to order Park street paved west to the city limits.

THEY "SHADOWED" HIM.

Two Omaha Detectives Procure Evidence in an Interesting Divorce Case.

Two Omaha detectives have just returned from Dubuque, Iowa, where they gave evidence in a divorce suit, pending in the district court of that city.

Some twenty-two years ago, Mr. Gibbs was married to Miss Langworthy who was then living in Dubuque. Her parents, who were quite wealthy, decidedly opposed the match, and threatened to disinherit the young lady if she persisted in marrying the objectionable suitor.

For eighteen years or thereabouts, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs resided in Dubuque, and it is said that their married life was not a very happy one. However that may be, certain it is that four years ago, Gibbs left his wife and came out to Omaha, where he has since been engaged in business, part of the time in the Union Pacific headquarters.
