

THE DAISY OF A FUNERAL.

How Jim Hastings was Shot and Placed at Placerville.

A Young Woman Who's Second Pa Was Shot Just Like the First—A Scrap at the Grave.

Denver Tribune-Republican: A miner from the San Miguel country was met by a Tribune-Republican reporter at the American House last evening. After showing some specimens of ore from that country, which he thought second to none brought out of Pitkin county, the conversation turned to life in the San Miguel and Denver country.

ARBOR DAY AMONG INDIANS.

Thousands of Trees Planted by the Noble Reds on Yankton Reservation.

Sowing the Seed of Civilization Comfort on Treeless Plains—Progress of the Indians in Agriculture—Putting in Crops.

YANKTON AGENCY, D. T., April 26.—[Correspondence of the BEE.]—While Congress has been engaged in lengthened and vigorous debates upon the best solution of the Indian question, and agitation upon the subject has long engaged the attention of the leading papers of the country, the Indians themselves, so far at least as those upon this reservation are concerned, are awakening at last to a true sense of their situation and are quietly working out for themselves the problem of self support and independence.
