

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. MONDAY MORNING MAY, 10. OFFICE, NO. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week. N. W. TILTON, Manager.

MINOR MENTION. New spring goods at Heller's. Rev. Dr. McCreey preached on the labor question last evening.

Leonard & Jewett refrigerators at Cooper & McGee's, No. 41 Main street. The board of trade holds its regular monthly meeting to-morrow night.

The "Quick Meal" is a quick seller; come and get one before they are gone. Cooper & McGee.

Fred Green, a colored boy, is under lock and key for petty larceny from Wies & Clausen's store.

There were no services in the Presbyterian church yesterday on account of the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bates.

All kinds of woman's work, and all kinds of commission goods solicited by the Woman's Exchange on Pearl street.

H. Stillman, tried to stop off a moving train. He is satisfied with the experiment, and is now nursing a sore head.

A dog near the Northwestern depot was yesterday shot and mangled. He looked as if he might go mad, if he hadn't already.

Married, at No. 15 North Main street, M. Christmann and Mary Anderson, both of this city, by Justice of the Peace A. L. Hendricks.

A little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ratten was run over Saturday by a team of horses and a buggy, and had a narrow escape from serious injury.

The board of directors meets this morning to decide upon the assessment of the banks, and conclude some other important business matters, which have been under consideration for some time.

Frank Boyd, arrested here for the larceny of McVeigh's watch, and chain in Omaha, consented Saturday to go across the river without a requisition, and will have to stand trial there for grand larceny.

It is said that Woodward's saloon, on Broadway, was open until about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, when a lively rumble occurred. The Sunday ordinance got smashed all to pieces and will probably have to be patched up in court to-day.

"Sport" Miller is in the calaboose for being drunk. If the man who sold him or gave him the liquor was there too, it would be nearer right. The authorities have long since notified everybody to no longer feed poor "Sports" appetites.

The Knights of Labor hall in Masonic hall to-morrow night, promises to be a grand success. Since the great strike on the Gould system has subsided, for which purpose the hall was originally intended, the Knights of Labor now will use the proceeds for the fitting up of their hall in this city.

A boy, giving his name as Ed. Middleton, was arrested on suspicion. He was going from one shop to another, trying to dispose of some articles, and when arrested had a revolver, gold pen and pencil, and pocketbook. He claims to live only a short ways out of the city, and that he got these articles at home.

Mr. Dohany has decided to have a new drop curtain for his opera house. This will be a relief to the amusement goers who are growing weary of evening grotesque proportions of the deers and Indian wigwags and wild geese, which have so long called upon the people to strain their faith to believe that in the days of Council Bluffs, the geese were larger than horses, and the bluffs smaller than the wigwags. A change would be greeted with delight.

David Tostevin has been taken charge of by the authorities, and adjudged insane. He will be taken to Mt. Pleasant to-day. He is an old resident, and a man of more than ordinary natural endowments, but his brain seems to be in a whirl about some wonderful theories he has made in what he terms "occult sciences." It is to be hoped that by treatment the cloud may be removed from his intellect, for when himself he is one of the best men in his profession, and abundantly able to care for himself.

The dear old grandmother has adopted a new child, and has set the youngster at work on weddings as a specialty. Samples of his spring frowns are: "The bride's tress was once the most elegant in design, quality and finish the art of millinery could furnish. The bride's dress was of the finest garnette gross grain silk. White French lace fell in artistic profusion about the neck and shoulders, a diamond studded pin holding the lace in position at the lady's throat. Orange blossoms were nicely woven in her hair, presenting a picture of beauty seldom seen before the hymeneal altar. Coming down along the course of the blue Boyer we catch the fragrant odor from orange blossoms which are now most skillfully woven into a wreath and will before long rest upon the womanly brow of the charming and artistically beautiful daughter of the talented jurist." The old lady should get another bag of salt.

Substantial abstracts of titles and real estate loans. J. W. & E. L. Squire, 10 Pearl street, Council Bluffs.

Go to Beard for wall paper. The work of construction of the lines of the American district telegraph is about completed and the boxes will be put in place within a week. The service will commence, however, to-day. Some of the messenger boys will be on duty, although the boxes are not in place. Anyone desiring a messenger can use the telephone, calling up 173. Until the boxes are put in place the calls will have to be made in this way.

Leusi go to Charlie H. Isler's and get a good cigar. No. 402 Broadway. De Val sells Golden Star gasoline ranges, best in market. No. 501 B'way.

Decorating Day. In response to invitations sent out by the local posts of the G. A. R. to attend the memorial services on Decoration day, May 30, Macedonia responds by accepting and saying they will send in three car loads of people, and Persia will turn out en masse. The police department, through Chief Mathews, have signified their acceptance of the invitation to parade in a body.

Seasonable goods of all kinds at hard-time prices at Cooper & McGee's. I sell the celebrated Twin Burner gasoline stove. That double burner gas stove has all. A 4-burner same price as a 2-burner; a 3-burner same price as a 2-burner. W. A. Wood, 504 Main.

On Saturday morning, during a short, heavy rain storm, about six miles north of Minden, Ia., the fifteen-year-old son of John Causen, while plowing in the field, was with the team he was driving, struck by lightning and killed.

PUNISHING THE PROCURESS.

A Judgment Rendered In Favor of the Mercer Girl For Damages.

A VENTRILOQUIST IN JAIL.

Lightning Kills a Boy and Team—Was Oakes' Death Accidental?—Doings of the City Solons—A Woman Robbed on the Street.

Damages Given the Mercer Girl. Another chapter has been added to the Mercer case. About the same time that the Huber woman was arrested for cutting Lulu Mercer into pieces of prostitution in Omaha, a civil suit was commenced against her for damages by the Mercer family in behalf of the girl who had been thus ruined. The criminal proceedings have so engrossed the attention of those concerned that they evidently thought little about the suit for damages. After the Huber woman had been bound over to await the action of the grand jury, Attorney Scott Williams, who has been so successful in prosecuting the woman, turned his attention to the civil action. The defendant put in no appearance, and judgment was obtained by default, and on presentation of the proof, Judge Aylesworth entered up a judgment against Mrs. Huber in favor of the girl for $2,000. It is understood that the woman has some property, and steps will be taken to enforce the collection of the judgment. She will probably resist such an attempt, and will hardly rest without carrying the case up to the supreme court. Whatever may be the ultimate result of these cases, it is a cause of gratification that it has been made evident that notorious women cannot come to Council Bluffs for the purpose of getting girls to enter their dives without, at least, getting into trouble. The experience of Mrs. Huber will probably serve as a warning to others of her class to look elsewhere for victims.

After a thorough investigation we are convinced that the "Quick Meal" is the best gasoline stove made and shall make it our leading stove this season. Cooper & McGee.

Satisfaction guaranteed with every "Quick Meal" gasoline stove, or money refunded. Cooper & McGee.

A Ventriloquist in Jail. Tom Hughes, a well known character, is at present confined in the city jail on account of his inability to pay a fine imposed on him for disturbing the peace. Few even of those who know Tom are aware of the fact that he is a pretty fair ventriloquist. He was using his peculiar power with a great deal of effect Saturday night. There is in the floor of the corridor an iron grate, and Tom made one poor German prisoner believe that it opened into a room below, where some of the police stayed. Tom threw his voice down into this grate, and the German had quite a lengthy conversation with the man down stairs, whom he thought was officer who arrested him. The supposed officer got the German quite mad by denying that he had taken any money from him when he arrested him. The German raised such a row about this denial on the part of the officer whose voice came up through the grate that finally the officer told him that if he would not complain of him he would give him $20 to square it. After some further talk the officer was heard to deny that he had offered to square it, and then the perplexed prisoner was madder than ever.

Mr. W. Loomis has been arrested for horse stealing, and that he had been found in a house of ill fame and in a most disgraceful condition. If the prisoner could have got to the office of Cooper & McGee, he would doubtless have hummed him, or tried to, so angry was he, and yet he never suspected for a moment that the real voice was from the man who stood beside him, and that there was no officer, or any one else, down below the grate which really leads into the drain. Finally the German got so mad at the way the officer talked to him, and especially at his going back on the bargain to give him $20 to keep quiet about taking the money from him, that he concluded not to make any more compromises with him, but to report his case to the judge, and the judge, when the court meets this morning and the German is brought before the bar, it is expected that he will make his troubles known to the judge, and will doubtless tell how the officer tried to buy him off with money and afterwards tried to compromise it. He expects to prove by the other prisoners that they heard the officer talking through the grate, and their evidence will therefore corroborate his statements. When he finds out that it was only Tom Hughes' ventriloquism the joke may turn on the latter, for the German is a thumper.

We have a few water coolers which we will sell very cheap to close them out. Cooper & McGee.

The Fruit Prospect. Council Bluffs and vicinity is getting to be widely known for its wonderful fruit producing advantages. The bluffs seem to be particularly adapted for fruit culture. It is said that an analysis of the soil composing these bluffs shows it to be almost exactly the same as that which produced the famous grapes on the Rhine. While the climate may not be in all respects as favorable, still it is sufficiently so to insure an average of excellent fruitage. This year opens up very promising. The Bee man had the pleasure Saturday of driving out with Mr. McGee, of Cooper & McGee, and seeing some of the blossomy promises of what this year will produce, unless some unforeseen set-back occurs. The apple trees on the fruit farm of Mr. McGee's mother present a wonderfully beautiful sight. They are so thickly covered with blossoms as to almost hide every other part of the trees, and where the blossoms are beginning to fall there strewn the ground as though there had been a heavy storm. Mrs. McGee has a beautiful place of about twenty acres right in the border of the city, and the sight there presented now is a most charming one to any lover of nature. The practical can see in it the promise of a wonderful fruitage this year.

Go to the N. Y. P. Co. for GARDEN HOSE. THEY WARRANT ALL THEY SELL. Opera House Block.

Was it Accidental Death? About one year ago J. Fred Oakes died in this city. He was a clerk at the transfer and a member of the Y. M. C. A., and had a large circle of friends here. The young man had a policy in the United States Mutual Accident association, of New York. The body was taken to Boston for interment and now his friends in the east are suing the company for the amount of the policy, $5,000. Dr. Montgomery was the physician for the company. The attorney of the company, William B. Smith, was here recently investigating the causes of young Oakes' death, and arranged for Dr. Montgomery to go east and testify in the case. The friends of young Oakes claim that while he died from a carbuncle, still that was the result of an accident, and therefore the company is liable under its policy. The company claim that death was from natural causes. Dr. Montgomery will start next Friday for Albany, N. Y., where the case is to be called up on the following Monday. The friends and acquaintances of the young man in this city will watch with interest the result of this litigation, and the case is in some of its features sufficiently unique to attract general attention.

In consideration of the fact that George Fauble has been deprived of the use of his brick yards by an injunction the council decided to remit his taxes for last year and this year, provided the county would consent.

The city attorney reported that he had seen Mr. Vincent and that Mr. Vincent had agreed to govern the water so as to prevent damage during the progress of the work on the new sewer ditch.

R. Holst asked that the alley in the rear of his hotel be paved at once, and that the street also be paved from Fourth to Main street.

The ordinance establishing the grade of Worth and Third streets was passed. In the matter of Schultz & Hill for an area at their carriage factory, the committee reported favorably, and the city was instructed to prepare the necessary ordinance.

Heister don't handle any "snide" cigars. Social Doings. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. John N. Baldwin entertained about thirty lady and gentleman friends at a card party at their residence on Sixth street, opposite Baylis park.

Progressive euchre was the order of the evening. Eight tables occupied the elegant parlors and an enjoyable evening was spent. Strawberries, cream and cake were served.

The prizes were awarded Mrs. McDonald and Mr. A. M. Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gault will this evening entertain a company at cards at their home on Seventh street.

Cut Rates to Chicago Again. On Saturday afternoon the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road made a second class passenger run from here to Chicago of $8.50. Heretofore there has been no second class rate, the first class being $12.50 on all the roads. This new rate is looked on as a slap at the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, because of that road's cut between St. Paul and Chicago. Up to last night none of the other roads had met the new rate. Burlington, the Rock Island folks claim that they belong to the Chicago and Missouri River Passenger association, which is now composed of the Wabash, Chicago and Burlington, and Quincy and Rock Island, and they will not cut unless the other roads in the compact do so.

The scalpers on Saturday evening announced on their bulletins the $8.50 rate over the Milwaukee.

A Woman Robbed. Mrs. Gerstenberg claims to have been attacked and robbed on the streets Saturday night. She was walking along with her sister about half past 8 o'clock and in crossing Willow avenue by James & Haverstock's store, some fellow snatched her hand satchel in which she had about $13. Her pocket book was found yesterday morning in Baylis park. Its contents gone, the thief having evidently thrown it away after emptying it.

has spent his years in this city from boyhood up, and has won and held the confidence and esteem of all his noble wife will also be missed from the social circles, and the departure of so worthy a young couple cannot but be greatly regretted by all.

Prof. J. A. L. Waddell and wife returned home Saturday after a sojourn of four years in Japan, where he has been occupying the position of professor in the government polytechnic school. Accompanying them is their little child, born in Japan. Prof. Waddell was offered special inducements if he would retain his position, and he preferred to come back to the United States.
