The Ruble Case.

William Fielder, the man arrested by Constable Stein on Friday for alleged complicity in the murder of Christof Ruble is still in jail awaiting hearing.

The detectives who have caused the arrest of Fielder claim that the evidence against him is very strong. One of the circumstances which is strongly against him is the fact that he was seen in company with Ruble the day before the murder.

Another link in the chain of evidence against the prisoner is the fact that he is rigged out in an entirely new suit of clothes, and that he cannot give any satisfactory explanation of what became of his old one.

One of Ruble's acquaintances testified to having heard him say a day or so before the murder that he was going out to work on Faxon's ranch. Now Fielder was arrested on Patrick's ranch, a few miles from the city, having gone there a day or so before he was taken into custody.

HE COMMITTED PERJURY.

A Very Sensational Development in the Powell Murder Case.

The latest feature of the Powell murder case is very spicy and sensational, indeed, being nothing less than the arrest of one of the principal witnesses for the defense on the charge of perjury.

The man's name is Crosby, and he had been in the stand last week he swore that shortly before the death of Charles Leslie, who was shot by Laurence Powell, the defendant, he called upon the sick man in company with a stranger whom he had never met before, and had a long talk with him about the shooting affray.

According to the testimony of the two women who were nursing Leslie, Crosby's testimony was false in every particular. They swore that they had never seen Crosby, and that no such man had ever visited Leslie.

Crosby further denied most strenuously that he had perjured himself, or that he had received any money. He said that he was talking with Baldwin, "and I could say what I pleased."

Mr. Burnham, Powell's attorney, was very indignant at what he called a cowardly gotten up by one of the counsel for the prosecution. "This is a cock-and-bull story he said which will be exposed when the time comes. I believe I am too shrewd and too honest to allow Baldwin to catch me napping in that way."

The B. & M. Railroad commenced the laying of a new track on the hot bottom and this morning the work was continued with a large force of men. It leaves the main track running north and south beside the river and pushes directly west toward the foot of Leavenworth.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian association will be held this afternoon. A full attendance is requested.

The new time card on the Union Pacific went into effect Sunday, and yesterday the railroad employees have had their first experience in becoming familiar with the novelty.

The grading and the B. & M. road to Ashland has already reached the vicinity of the town of Forest City, though the line takes a direction some distance from the old town site.

Messrs. S. T. Smith and H. R. Thompson, of the Union Pacific, have returned from the superintendents' meeting in Denver.

NEBRASKA CHAUTAUQUA.

The Great Sunday School Gathering at Crete in July.

Crete Globe: The time of the annual gathering of the Nebraska Sunday-school assembly is almost here and we fear that many will lose the opportunity.

A gentleman from Boston who was here two years ago, expressed his opinion that we westerners were grave and sober compared with those of the east. I believe that this is true, and also that there are very good reasons for it.

It takes money and time, in neither of which most of us are rich, to go to the mountains east or west, to California, Yellowstone park or the sea shore. What remains then but to plot on year in and year out, going through the same routine of farm or shop or office, until the feet are worn to deep furrows and the body abandoned.

The Bazaar offers good facilities for boating for seven miles above the assembly grounds, and upon the grounds are croquet, lawn tennis, and other helps to physical recreation and enjoyment.

Frank Beard also who can tell a story with a few strokes of his crayon better than Dickens in volumes, will be here to show us the power of skillfully used illustrations.

But as this assembly is the outgrowth of the idea planted at Chautauqua a few years since, members of the Chautauqua circles all over the state, we are sure, will look forward to this gathering with some of the feeling with which the Jews made their yearly journey to Jerusalem, or devout Moslems their pilgrimage to Mecca.

Nor should the social features of the occasion be overlooked. There, not the courtesies, but the formalities, are laid aside, and a freedom of social intercourse is enjoyed that is too rarely met appearing from our lives.

For many it will require some sacrifice of things before thought indispensable: some careful housekeepers will be obliged to leave some things undone. It will in many cases necessitate extra expenditures that can with difficulty be met.

One week ago, an insane lady named Ryan arrived in this city from San Francisco. She had left her home unawares, and her being on the train was discovered and her arrival here anticipated by a telegram to Marshal Cummings.

The celebrated art publisher C. Klackner, has on exhibition at A. Hogue's store a splendid collection of "reminiscence" and artist proof "etchings" by the most eminent American artists, such as Thos. Moran, Hamilton, Millsap, Harvey and others.

The 100 yard bicycle race between Hughes and Hitchcock will come off Wednesday at the Athletic park. The race is for $500 a side, $100 of this amount has been put up and the balance will be forthcoming to night.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian association will be held this afternoon. A full attendance is requested.
